

3/8/95 Coastal Quilters Monthly Meeting

- I. Four new members were introduced by Susan Cochran (Margaret Rasmussen, Cathi Russell, Hilde Heller, Peggy Alexander). Three visitors tonight are from New Jersey, Ottawa Canada, and Santa Barbara.
- II. Norah McMeeking was thanked for doing the roster. Roster has new features of Guild activities and monthly program listing.
- III. Lee Carlson did Natural Impression update. Judges chose 65 quilts from 248 entries. Next committee meeting is March 15 at Lynn Laughrin's at 7:30 p.m. See Newsletter article also. Evelyn Gorrindo spoke of special events being planned, including different speakers each hour between 11a to 4p, and quilt collections. Helena Kennedy circulated clipboards for docent sign up. There will be a required training session in May. Norah circulated signup sheets for 'quilt loans' to businesses to publicize show, and Guild volunteer reception table. Lynn explained use of Advertising Package Instructions, with ads due in by March 31.
- IV. Anne Braddock said Libby Lehman gave an excellent workshop today. She said Sharla Hicks will present May 11 workshop on Color Illusions; cost is $30, which includes $5 supply cost.
- V. Joanne Hankey said our Guild has been invited to show its Fantaseas Challenge quilts for an autograph party at AQS in Paducah.
- VI. Lynn spoke of Silent Auction and Bazaar for April. Slides of last quilt show will also be shown that night.
- VII. Libby Lehman was introduced and gave her presentation on many different quilt artists' works, including her own. Libby embellishes her quilts and appliques in a unique way. She is one of our quilt show's judges.
- VIII. Lynn encouraged entry of quilts to Santa Barbara Fair & Expo 4/26 to 30. See Newsletter for details on entry.
- IX. Harriet Berk did update on NQA show 6/22 to 25 in Riverside. Zetta Hanna will be doing a centerpiece for the Guild. Volunteers are needed for 2 hour slots; you get free admission for the day.
- X. Nola Ferguson spoke of 3 new satellite groups: wearable arts, mixed media, and applique. All groups have openings.
- XI. Diana Iler thanked Nancy Bauerle, Nancy Horii, Pat Masterson, Chris Bollenbach, Anita Allman and Suzy Carter for refreshments.
- XII. Seven door prizes were given by Tracy Hilden Cope.
- XIII. Jana Johns won 31 blocks for February. Beth Jones and Verna Smith presented March's block of Sunbonnet Sue.
- XIV. Show & Tell concluded the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
