

5/10/95 Coastal Quilters Monthly Meeting

- I. Susan Cochran introduced 2 visitors (Judy Callen from Madison, Wisconsin, and Mariel Hawell from Santa Barbara) and 4 new members (Bonnie Barber, Deana Gilman, Ellie Geidt, and Erin Pate).
- II. Judy Gorrindo congratulated those members who were winners and exhibitors at the Santa Barbara Fair and Exhibition of 1995 (see Newsletter article).
- III. A farewell and recognition was given to Sherry Root, who is leaving the Guild.
- IV. Anne Braddock said there are several openings for tomorrow's workshop by Sharla Hicks. Sharyn Craig will give a workshop on June 15 for $30, and Harriet Hargrave's workshop dates are either July 13 or 14 for $35. See newsletter article.
- V. The Guild was updated on Natural Impressions II Quilt show for May 26-29, 1995.
 - a) Helena Kennedy talked about Docent training on May 12 and 13.
 - b) Jan Inouye spoke about functions of volunteers at Information table and Greeter's area also.
 - c) Betty Libbert said the The Touchy Feely quilt has been taken to different schools for viewing and will be on display at the show.
 - d) Norah McMeeking spoke of the 'blue flyer' for discounts on quilt appraisals. She said there will be a video-tape made of the quilt exhibit for $25.
 - e) Carol Boyce said an antique quilt was donated and will be raffled off at the show.
 - f) Judy spoke of the special events and speakers at the show.
- VI. Lynn Laughrin reported that we earned enough money from last month's auction to pay for a speaker next year. She then introduced tonight's speaker, Sharla Hicks, who presented her talk on "Looking for the Glow".
- VII. Members were reminded to pick up their envelope of tickets for the 1995 Opportunity quilt.
- VIII. Diana Iglar thanked Nancy Bauerle, Linda Karppinen, Beth Jones and Helena Kennedy for bringing refreshments tonight.
- IX. Harriet Berk announced there would be a bus going to the NQA show on June 22. Contact her for further information.
- X. Marty Frolli, Maggie Godwin, and Melody Bollay will be presenting classes through Adult Ed in the fall. See attached schedule.
- XI. Door prizes were given out by Tracy Hilden-Cope.
- XII. Block-of-the-Month was won by Gladys Brown. Verna Smith and Beth Jones presented next month's block, Basket of Flowers.
- XIII. Show and Tell was a special pre-planned surprise presentation for Norah McMeeking, who will be going to England for the next year. Many of her students showed projects they had made in her classes over the years that Norah has taught for Adult Ed, and Judy read a special tribute letter. This ended the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
