

6/14/95 Coastal Quilters Monthly Meeting

- I. Susan Cochran introduced two visitors and three new members tonight.
- II. Norah McMeeking and Jan Inouye did a special thank-you presentation to the following people who helped out at the Natural Impressions II quilt show: Ruth Walters, Sandy Wilmot, Carol Boyce, Janet Berlin, Chris Bollenbach, Colby Kline, Pat Yamada, Anne Braddock, Lynn Laughrin, JoAnne Hankey, Lee Carlson, Diane Morgan, Kristin Otte, Barbara Maxwell, Helena Kennedy, Judy Gorrindo, Evelyn Gorrindo, Karin Cooper, and Betty Libbert. There will be a "wrap-up" meeting tomorrow at Jan's to tally finances and critique the running of the show.
- III. Harriet Berk reminded the membership of the NQA show in Riverside from June 22 to 25.
- IV. Anne Braddock said tomorrow's workshop by Sharyn Craig had to be cancelled because of insufficient registration. Harriet Hargrave's workshops for July 13 and 14 still have a few openings on both days.
- V. See Judy Gorrindo to purchase acid-free paper for very low cost.
- VI. It was announced that our community project this year will be doing quilts for Hospice. Claire Hemke will report further when she returns from vacation.
- VII. Karin Cooper reported that Guild members are following the established rules for taking books out. The library is getting new books constantly, and she encouraged members to browse through them.
- VIII. Carol Hamilton spoke of a class being held at Sally's Quilt Quarters in Santa Maria on June 24 for $20 by Rhonda White, called "The Electric Quilt."
- IX. Lynn Laughrin asked the membership to fill out and return a "Program Survey for Guild Members" to her. She introduced tonight's speaker, Sharyn Craig, whose presentation was titled "Planned Over Quilt."
- X. Diana Idler gave refreshment thank-you's to individuals who contributed tonight.
- XI. It was announced that Harriet Berk will take money donations for the Opportunity Quilt.
- XII. Linda Karppinen reminded the Guild of the California Heritage Project.
- XIII. Door prizes were given out by Tracy Hilden-Cope.
- XIV. The block-of-the-month drawing went to Alice Neilson. Verna Smith and Beth Jones presented next month's block, Midnight Sky.
- XV. Show and Tell concluded the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
