

6/12/96 Coastal Quilters Guild, Inc, Monthly Meeting

1. Maggie Godwin opened the meeting at 7:30 pm.
2. The 1997 opportunity quilt made by Harriet Berk was shown to the group. Maggie thanked Harriet on behalf of the guild. The pattern is plaid hearts. Members are asked to seek donations as this is a major fund raiser for the guild. Volunteers for next year's opportunity quilt are needed.
3. Maggie announced that the Crazy Ladies and Friends shop has a new owner, Linda Sheard. Linda has donated a box of approximately 15 books for our library. In the future, she plans to donate gift certificates for door prizes.
4. Kristin Otte, membership co-ordinator, introduced 3 guests. She also announced that this year's membership cards are on the back of name tags.
5. Maggie announced that the guild will have a table at the Stow House's July 4th celebration. Volunteers for 2 hour time slots are needed.
6. Lynn Laughrin announced that Nola Ferguson won the "Best of Fair Theme" award at the Santa Barbara County Fair and presented the first place ribbon to Nola.
7. Anne Braddock announced a Saturday workshop on wearable art to be taught by Noelle Olson on August 17th. The workshop will be at the Goleta Community Center in the cafeteria. On September 12, Nancy Johnson-Srebo will lead a workshop entitled "Endless Circles", and she will teach special techniques for rotary cutting circles.
8. Judy Gorrindo asked that members who took the workshop on "Fabric Postcards" send Judy Warren slides of their project. Judy G. also discussed future programs. The August 14th program entitled "Fabric Alterations" will be held at Oak Park at 6:30 pm. Fabrics dyed by Judy Gorrindo, Tatiana and Cynthia Bonner were on display at this meeting. The speaker for the July meeting is Bev Stookey entitled "Look what I found in my sewing room!"
9. Eight people presented "Show and Tell".
10. Katie Pasquini presented a lecture entitled "Fractured Landscapes." A workshop on this technique was held June 13th.
11. Following the break, drawings for block of the month and door prizes were held.

Respectfully submitted,

Diane Eardley
