

COASTAL QUILTER'S GUILD General Meeting
Jan 8, 1997

The meeting was called to order at the Samarkand Community Center at 7:40 P.M. by Norah McMeeking.

Norah thanked Judy Rys for a fine newsletter. She also announced board meetings will be the last Wednesday of each month at 7:00 P.M.

MEMBERSHIP - Jan Inouye has a drop box for memberships. 6 new members and then guests were introduced.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH - Carol Barringer won a gift certificate for participation in 1996.

LIRARY - Sue Scholl - The Guild members checked out over 500 books during 1996. There appear to be 4 lost volumes. A game was played and Diane Eiler and Melode Bollay were winners.

WESTMONT COLLEGE PROJECT - Carol Fay passed a sign-up list for volunteers willing to work on quilts for the upcoming play project, "How to Make an American Quilt".

PROGRAM AND WORKSHOPS - Diane Eardley and Kathy Pierce spoke of a workshop in February with Jean Ray Laury and two sessions with Harriet Hargraves in March. Diane then introduced Dixie McBride program presenter this evening.

REFRESHMENTS - contributors were thanked by Ingrid Bergere and Mary Bersak.

SATELITE GROUPS - Ruth Walters encouraged participation in these groups and took names of those interested in joining or forming a new group. There are 8 active groups as of now.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH - Carol Meyer said there were 96 log cabin blocks and by general request they were split into 2 sets. Winners were Anita Allman and Janet Berlin.

DOORPRIZES- Linda Estrada had a record number of prizes for the evening. There were many member donations.

ANNOUNCEMENTS -The classes being taught at Adult Ed were reviewed. Norah will be teaching in Santa Paula in February. Susan Cochran asked for Challenge ideas.

The meeting closed at 9:50 P.M. and was followed by Show and Tell.

Respectfully submitted,
