

COASTAL QUILTER'S GUILD General Meeting
February 12, 1997

The meeting was called to order at the Samarkand Community Center at 7:30 P.M. by Norah McMeeking.

MEMBERSHIP - Jan Inouye introduced guests and reminded the membership dues must be paid by February 28 for inclusion in the 1997 roster booklet.

SATELLITE GROUPS - Ruth Walters reported a new daytime satellite group is ready to go.

COMMUNITY PROJECTS - Anyone interested in working on the Quilt of Hope, an autograph quilt of breast cancer survivors, should contact Norah.

Carol Faye, organizing the Westmont College "Quilter's" quilt, distributed blocks to be done and set a February 15 workshop at her home to complete the quilt. The show will be on March ~~16~~¹⁶ and there is an opportunity to display quilts. Call Norah if interested.

Donations for the American Quilt Society Auction would be welcome.

Cecilia Puppo will organize charity quilts this year with children in mind, probably for a S.B. Children's oncology group.

LIBRARY - Sue Scholl talked of the library reservation system.

CHALLENGE - Chairman Susan Cochran said the theme will be "Celebrating Women, the good, the bad and the ugly!" ~~Maximum~~ The size is to be 36"x36" and must have a star on the front.

PROGRAM - Diane Eardley introduced Jean Ray Laurie

REFRESHMENTS - Ingrid Bergere thanked ~~donat~~ors.

BLOCK of the MONTH - Carol Meyer said 140 squares last month. Diane Eiler and Betty Schumacher split the 79 Heart blocks for February.

DOOR PRIZES - Linda Estrada led the drawing.

SHOW and TELL - as part of this several members of the Camarillo Guild showed their quilts and reminded all the Camarillo Show will be held April 12 and 13.

Respectfully submitted

Betty Kelley
Betty Kelley, Secretary