

COASTAL QUILTER'S GUILD

General Meeting June 11, 1997

The meeting was called to order at the Samarkand Community Center at 7:30 P.M. by Norah McMeeking.

OPPORTUNITY QUILT - Judy Gorrindo showed the quilt. Quilting has been done by several groups, but lots of volunteers are needed to complete the quilting.

SANTA BARBARA QUILT - is hanging in the Washington office of our representative, Walter Capps. It will be there for the summer,

SPECIAL EVENT - Diana Iler and Oleta Bennet circulated a sign-up board for volunteers to help at our booth at the Stowe House Fourth of July celebration.

QUILT SHOW - The committee will be chaired by Diane Eardley, Faith Huxley and Betty Kelley. A budget will be presented at the July or August general meeting. Diane encouraged all interested to attend the next committee meeting at Samarkand at 7:00 PM June 18.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA COUNCIL OF QUILT GUILDS - Nola Ferguson told a bit about the organization which meets 4 times each year and represents 20,000 Quilters here in Southern California. The July 1998 meeting will be in Santa Barbara.

LEGACY QUILT - Judy Gorrindo and Susan Cochran explained they would be taking bids on the quilt done for Westmont with a minimum bid of $75. A drawing was held at the end of the meeting and Mary Markow was high bidder.

SPEAKER - Monica Calvert spoke on her quilting career and development as an artist.

MEMBERSHIP - Jan Inouye reported we now stand at 212 members. 4 guests were present.

WORKSHOP - Diane Eardley and Kathy Piece described future programs and workshops.

Show and tell was held after the break.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH Chairman Carol Meyer explained the next block. The June blocks were won by Karen Pickford.

DOOR PRIZE Linda Estrada again had a wonderful assortment of door prizes.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:15 PM.

Respectfully submitted

Betty Kelley