

COASTAL QUILTER'S GUILD

General Meeting July 9, 1997

The meeting was called to order at the Samarkand Community Center at 7:30 P.M. by Norah McMeeking. Norah requested members check thier names off on the roster sheet so a more accurate count may be kept of attendance.

MEMBERSHIP - Jan Inouye welcomed 2 new members and 5 guests. 102 members were present.

SPECIAL EVENTS - Diane Iler thanked the volunteers at Stowe House. They had a good time and $127 was made on the opportunity quilt.

COMMUNITY QUILTS - Cecelia Puppo will organize a work session in August.

CHALLENGE QUILTS - Susan Cochran reminded us of rules and October deadline.

OPPORTUNITY QUILT - Harriet Berk has tickets available. The quilt will be displayed at the Elks Club on August 17 and 2 volunteers are needed from 9 A.M. until 12:30. There is a special show then.

Linda Karpinen reported quilt appraisals and an opportunity to have your quilts professionally photographed will be available in Ventura this fall. The Ventura County Museum is looking for quilts with local history for a show early next year.

QUILT SHOW - Betty Kelley asked for anyone interested in serving on the planning committees to let one of the co-chairs know. Next meeting will be on August 6.

Judy Gorrindo moved and Nola Ferguson seconded that there be a fund transfer of $4,000 to a show account for seed money to fund or fall show. Unanimously approved.

PROGRAM - Diane Eardley told of future programs and Kathy Pierce showed the vest that will be done in September. Diane then introduced the speaker, Virginia Walton.

SHOW AND TELL was followed by BLOCK OF THE MONTH won by Evelyn Gorrindo.

DOOR PRIZE - were drawn.

Respectfully submitted,

Betty Kelley
