Meeting called to order by President Ranell Hansen at 7:00pm

- I. Minutes of the last meeting corrected and approved. Motion by Betty Kelly
- II. Committee Reports
  - A. Leslie Hogan gave a quilt show update, contract signed, banner/signs in the works and the next meeting is 6/28. Ranell will address Vendor committee.
  - B. Programs-Susan West. We are good for the rest of the year. July is Joe Cunningham and "The Joy of Quilting"; August is eLINOR pEACE bAILEY on dolls.
  - C. Future Programs-Norah Mc Meeking. Many speakers lined up, some confirmed are January-Ruth McDowell; February-Gwen Marsten; March-Jeanne Wells; May-Jo Diggs; June-Syliva Einstein; October will be the challenge. Some speakers are booked for 2002 already.
  - D. Workshops – Betty Kelly. 8 have signed up for eLINOR pEACE bAILEY; and 10 for Joe Cunningham. Joanne will handle signups for the rest of the year.
  - E. Community Quilts – Suzy Carter reported that the next workshop will be 7/22.
  - F. Nominating Committee update was given by Nola Ferguson, they have most positions filled, need a president.
  - G. Library-Joyce Ball used book sale at the September meeting as the Feature of the Month, received many donations and she will need a new assistant next year
- III. Old Business
  - A. The quilt rack saga is now complete – the pole was found
  - B. Group of the Month – July will be first quilts, August-dolls, September will be the book sale and October will be the Challenge. It was suggested that this be referred to as the Display of the Month.
  - C. Scholarships – Nola Ferguson reported on the status of the scholarship fund. It was suggested by Ranell that there be a Scholarship Committee next year. We could expand to include the high schools.
  - D. IV. New Business
    - A. A budget not to exceed $300 for letterhead and envelopes was established
    - B. Ranell will be on vacation for the next General Meeting, Susan West will run the meeting in her absence.
