

Coastal Quilters Board Meeting

March 15, 2001

A meeting of the Coastal Quilters Guild Board was held at Samarkand on March 15, 2001. Those in attendance were Diane Eardley, Michelle Peerson, Liz Turner, Joyce Ball, Kristen Otte, Nola Ferguson, Betty Kelley, Ranell Hansen, Jan Beckert and Lora Martin. Diane Eardley opened the meeting at 7:05

Announcements – Linda Hanna, Recording Secretary, Gail Tinsley, Opportunity Quilt Tickets and Susan McIntosh, Door Prizes have resigned due to health problems or relocation and replacements will be requested at the April meeting.

Workshops – Kristen Otte – Barbara Barber workshop is full

Membership – Jan Beckert – Membership is over 250.

Lora Martin and her satellite group, The Block Heads, requested permission to raffle a “Panty Raid Quilt”. The chances will be purchased with the donation of a new pair of panties. These will be donated to Shelter Services for Women and also a facility for children and or men. The proposed time frame is April through June. Michelle Peerson moved and Liz Turner seconded “The Guild will support the Panty Raid Quilt project at our meeting.”

Treasurer – Michelle Peerson presented the 2001 budget. Kristen Otte moved and Joyce Ball seconded acceptance of the budget. Passed unanimously.

Newsletter – We need to research the advertising policy and can we legally accept paid advertising. Will be again revisited at the next Board meeting

Scholarships – Nola Ferguson City College will have a meeting on March 15 to review and get our input into the selection of our scholarship recipient. She also has had a request for two more quilt presentations to groups in the community

The Guild name will be used in conjunction with these programs.

Respectfully submitted,

Betty Kelley
