

Coastal Quilters Guild
General Meeting
St. Andrews Church Hall
March 13, 2003

Susan West opened the meeting at 7:00.

Diane Eardley announced we have over 300 members. She reminded the membership to pick-up new directories next month if possible to help save on postage.

Show and Tell: Carol Boyce, Connie Tafelski, Ingrid Bergere, Judy Welker, Cynthia Manzer, Erma Sheaha, Patti Hunter, Ruth Walters, Kristen Otte, Norah McMeeking, Michelle Bargarino, Melissa Froli, Becky Gallup, Mary Ann Huggins, Maureen Hyland, Joyce Antrim-Sos, Kathie O'Neil, Jane McMenamin, Barbara Ortiz, Angela Moll.

LouAnn Schlichter announced the results of the Ojai Show.

Laura Norman announced that library notices will be going out for overdue books, everyone check their shelves.

Marilyn Martin announced a full bus for the Glendale Show. Meet here at 7:15, Carp. At 7:45.

Angela announced next month's doll workshop, still some space. In May thread artist Libby Lehman.

Cynthia reminded all that Community quilt kits were in the back.

Sandy Wilmot and Karen Cooper announced the challenge theme. "Black and White with a Little Color" 1-5% of quilt to have color. Vote for winner in October; announce the winners in November to allow for more categories.

Norah McMeeking will be starting a satellite group for new members, looking for "seasoned" hosts.

BOM: Jan Beckert, March won by Gladys Brown

Door Prizes: Ingrid Bee, Gwendolyn Jeeter, Martha Adams, Ursula, Judy Garrindo, Sue Shoal.

Respectfully Submitted: Penny Odom