

Coastal Quilters Guild
General Meeting
April 10, 2003

St. Andrews Church Hall

Meeting called to order at 7:02 by Susan West. 2003 Directories are available at the door, please confine use to quilt matters.

Diane Eardley asked that members talk to her regarding changes in the directory, everyone proof their entry.

Community Quilts: Cynthia Manzer asked Betty Libbert, Sally Jones, Nedra Ireland, Dorothy Gibbons and Pat Masterson to do a show and tell. Pat also show a turtle pillow, given out (along with a quilt) to children in Paul Newman's Rainbow Turtle Summer Camps for ill children. She has the pattern.

Show and Tell: Carol Barringer, Anita Allmon, Verna Smith, Isabel Downs, Judith Nybakken, Norah McMeeking, Ursula Dial, Erma Sheaha, Paulette Ley, Pat Shewczyk, Pat Masterson, Debra Blakey, Martha Adams, Kristen Otte. Kristen and Norah also announce their new classes at the Wake Center.

Workshops: Betty announced that there were still a couple of spaces in this month's doll workshop, Libby Lehman workshop was full, she has started a waiting list.

Sandy Wilmot discussed the Challenge.

New Members: Norah will be organizing a satellite group for new members, passed around a clipboard for "veteran volunteers".

Evelyn Garrindo: Will be organizing a booth at the Avocado Festival for people to sell goods, $40/person to enter, October 3-5 are the dates.

Carol Barringer announced that the Dollfuns satellite group needs members, usually meets 3rd Tuesday afternoons, could be changed.

Block of the Month: Susan Carty announced Jan Beckert was the winner.

Door Prizes: Johanna Taylor, Norah McMeeking, Nancy Olsen, Ranell Hansen, Lorraine Minor, Nancy Olsen.

After the break Pamela Hastings took us on her life journey and shared her wonderful, intuitive doll figures.

Respectfully Submitted:
Penny Odom