

Coastal Quilters Guild Meeting
Minutes
November 8, 2018

Debbie Haerberle, President, called the meeting to order at 7:00 PM.

Presentation—Debbi Haerberle

Debbi presented flowers and a check from the Guild to Linda Boynton de Sepulveda for her service in 2017 and 2018 as President. Other presentations were Roxanne's gift certificates from both Carol Hart and Roxanne's store and a beautiful angel pin from the Guild. The pin has special significance for Linda because during her years working in palliative care she always wore an angel pin to signify the "angel on her shoulder". She told her patients she was the angel on their shoulders.

Announcements—Debbi

- The December 13 Guild meeting is a holiday potluck. There will be no Treasure Table or Library, but other activities such as the Raffle and Block of the Month will carry on as usual. The Guild has hired a magician from the Magic Castle for entertainment; the show will last about 30-45 minutes. Debbi and friends will set up for the dinner.
- There will be no Board meeting in December.
- There will be a speaker in January 2019, but in February there will be a special program to honor past presidents. The honorees have been asked to bring their first quilt and a photo of themselves with the quilt.

Additional Announcements—Rosana Swing

- Joan Watts will put the commission checks from the show Boutique in the mail next week.
- The Christmas Boutique will be on December 13.
- Tonite is the last chance for Road to California bus tickets at $50. The price in December is $55 and $60 in January. The bus will pick up at 3 locations: the Airbus depot in Goleta, St. Andrews church, and the Casitas Pass IHop in Carpinteria. Tickets for non-member guests are $60.

Block of the Month—Bee Saunders

- The first drawing winner was Betty Kelley who declined. The second drawing was Kika Hutchings
- The BOM for next month is Starry Holiday Sky which was last done in 2011. Embellishments can be added to the block, if desired.

Membership—Gwynn Hladyniuk (for Annette Goena)

- Reminder to sign in when you arrive at the meeting
- New members:
 - Ellen Singer—returning member
 - Barbara Thorn—from Utah

Axxess Books—Gwynn Hladyniuk

Twenty two Santa Barbara and one Ventura books have been sold for a $299 profit for the Guild.

Satellite Groups—Isabel Downs

- Three groups have not reported:
Grateful Threads
Loosey Goosies
Unique Quilters
(Note: the Grateful Threads and Unique Quilters have since reported)
- Seven members are interested in joining a group.
- The Daisy group working at Direct Relief welcomes any additional member.
- Carol Hart has offered to start a group for anyone wishing to learn hand quilting.

Challenge Quilt—Carol Hart

The Challenge this year is to create a 12" quilt that can be used at the Quilt Show to warn viewers not to touch the quilts. Pre-cut fusible lettering is available from Roxanne's.

Break—10 minutes

Raffle Winners

- #3 Janis Meloy
- #1 Lynn Manchester
- #2 Mary Wenzel

Show and Tell

Member	Name of Quilt	Main Colors	Website OK? (Yes/No)
Michelle Garbarino	Scrappy Stars	Multi
Linda Estrada	Placemats	Multi
Kathy Piasecki	Halloween Quilt	Multi
Barbara LaPlante	Laina & Chris Reed	Multi	OK
Patty Latourell	Falling Leaves	Brown w leaves	OK
Lynn Manchester	Never Again	Blue/white	OK
Linda Boynton De Sepulveda	Spooktacular	Black/Orange	Yes
Suzanne Zanesco	Blockheads challenge a la Freddy Moran

Program—Linda and Carl Sullivan

Helmina introduced the Sullivans who took us through their history from theater, television, and film production to forming the Colourwerx fabric and quilt pattern design company and presented a number of colorful, fun quilts.

The meeting adjourned at 8:37 PM.

Respectfully submitted:
Sherry Lafler, Recording Secretary