

Coastal Quilters Guild Meeting

Minutes

April 11, 2019

All the Challenge quilts were hung for display and members checking in at the door were given ballots to vote for 4 quilts.

Linda Boynton de Sepulveda, Interim Chair, called the regular meeting to order at 7:00 PM.

Up and coming Meeting dates

The next Board meeting is scheduled for 6:30 on April 18 at Maravilla. The ballot and voting procedures for the May meeting election will be finalized at the meeting. All members are welcome to attend.

Workshops

- May—Rami Kim, “Quilt Lace Table Runner, Folded and Padded Hexagon Method”. There have been only 4 sign-ups so far. Rami needs children ages 7 to 14 to model her custom clothing. Please volunteer grandchildren or others.
- June—Cathie Hoover, “Make a Wild and Crazy Quilt with Curves”

Parliamentarian—presented by Sue Orfila

- A volunteer is needed for Parliamentarian.
- There is also need for volunteers for the following open Committee Chairs:
 - Library
 - Refreshments
 - Coastlines editor—a big job, but there are good programs available. The application we are currently using is easy.
 - Challenge Quilt
- Sue introduced the following members who will be on the election slate at the next meeting:
 - President—Karen Pickford
 - Vice President, Programs—Susan Katz
 - Recording Secretary—Sherry Lafler (returning)
 - Treasurer—Marcia Greiten
 - Speaker Liaison—Pam Holst
 - Workshop Coordinator—Margaret Dear (returning)
 - Membership—Sue Orfila
 - Public Relations—Gwynn Hladyniuk (returning)

Quilt Show—Toni Percival

- The dates for the show have been moved to September 26-27 because the original dates conflicted with Jewish high holy days.
- A volunteer sign-up sheet will be circulating. At the meeting in November several people signed up for positions in the planning committee; the blanks on the sheet are still needed. Please include your email for easy contact.

Membership—Annette Goena

- There are quite a few visitors at the meeting tonight.

- The new form for the July 1 to June 30 year will be available at the next meeting.

Block of the Month—Nancy Butterfield

- The block for next month is a flag design. All the blocks will be given to the quilt group working on the Veterans quilts.
- The block for this month was a beehive. The winner of the drawing was Linda Bird.

Library—Carol Hart

- Carol encouraged someone to volunteer for the position and displayed the circulation basket and notebook (including a printed copy of the complete database), which are the only tools a new Librarian would need to take home. She would need a team of 3, plus one backup, and access to Excel. A full list of the books is available on the website.

A reminder from Linda that there are still some cars that are backing into spaces next to the residential area. Those cars need to turn around so that exhaust does not go into the back yards.

Show and Tell

- Nola Ferguson tell: A Carpinteria corporation, Bega Lighting used to decorate the whole complex with antique quilts brought from back East. The son of the owner has donated the quilts to the Art Center and the ladies at the Carpinteria Presbyterian Church. They were made between 1895 and 1934 and are of very high quality. They will be available for sale May 31 and June 1 at the Carpinteria Historical Museum (across from Roxane’s) and the church (on Carpinteria Ave behind Rusty’s Pizza).
- Ranell Hansen tell: Ranell is in charge of the museum sale and has seen most of the quilts. They are all hand quilted and have various degrees of wear. In conjunction with the sale there will be a fiber arts show which will include all types of works—knitted, baskets, fiber jewelry, etc. Ranell has flyers with the entry information. Please email her with a photo of your entry. There is space for up to 70 quilts. The size limit is 40 x 40 but larger quilts will be accepted. ALL pieces will be up for sale.

Challenge Quilts—Carol Hart

Carol said that the inspiration for the challenge came from her visit to the Ventura Quilt show where she saw clever signs alerting the visitors not to touch the quilts. She asked the entrants to feature some facet of the guild purpose—education, techniques, style. Roxanne’s provided laser cut letters for the messages on the quilts. The “Sew It Alls” group assisted. Carol made mug apron favors for all the participants and stitch pillows for all the winners.

Each entrant brought her quilt to the stage and the inspiration statement for each was read by Susan Katz or Ranell Hansen. Winners:

4th Place: (3-way tie) Each received a $30 gift certificate for Roxanne’s and a stitch pillow

- Darilyn Kisch
- Heather Georgakis
- Mary Faria

3rd Place: Received a $40 gift certificate for Roxanne’s and a stitch pillow

- Rita Hardin

2nd Place: Received a $50 gift certificate for Roxanne’s and a stitch pillow

- Linda Boynton de Sepulveda
