

Coastal Quilters Guild
General Meeting Virtual
March 11, 2021

The meeting was called to order at 7:06 by President Karen Pickford. She welcomed members and introduced Pamela Holst who introduced the speaker, Rose Parr.

- A. Rose Parr gave an interesting and informative talk about proper furniture adjustments and stretching for safe sewing.
- B. Karen thanked the speaker and then noted the coming events:

March 20: Quilted Postcard Workshop
March 26: Coffee Break - Special Tour
April 8: Christina Cameli
April 10: Christina Cameli Workshop
May 13: Jenny Bowker

Updates and announcements:

C. Committees

1. Programs/Workshops/Coffee Breaks—Susan Katz and Diana Hamilton

Quilters coffee break:

Darilyn Kisch and Kathy Draine will give us a sneak preview of the fabric sale. Show and Tell for Coffee break. You can show your quilts as well as the "word" quilts, finished or not.

April 8 will be Christina Cameli who will do a three-hour workshop called "use it up."

The Quilted Postcard workshop is free. Sam is doing a tutorial. Nancy reported that the Peltex is available at her doorstep.

- 2. Election Committee: Sue Wuertz, Bee Saunders, Nancy Butterfield, Carol Hart, Joel Blumenthal
Election in May. Nancy showed a chart of the positions and responsibilities. It will be on the website. Contact committee members: elections at coastalquilterssb.org if you would like to run for election for one of the committees. The election is in May.
- 3. 2021 Challenge: Bee Saunders and Pat Masterson
Entries will be due by the May meeting on the 13th. Entry forms will be available in a week or so on the website. Some members discussed their progress in planning their quilts.
- 4. Tech Support: Bee Saunders and Sam McIlraith
No report

5. Community Projects: Darilyn Kisch, Kathy Draine, Laura Perry
Darilyn invited all members to attend the next Coffee Break on the 26th saying she will present a Commercial for the fabric sale.
- 6 Quilt Show 2022 and/or Fundraising Task Force Report: Nancy Butterfield
Nancy reported that the Quilt Show will be held in 2022. Current fund raising will consist of the sale of Post Cards as well as the fabric sales. Karen mentioned that we are making money from our various sales so we are doing pretty well financially.
- 7 PR: Nancy Butterfield
No additional report.
- 8 Membership: Sue Orfila
Tonight we have three new members: Kim Holbert, Judy Cooper Ashford, and Nicola Constantine as well as three guests, Renee Slattery, Laura Martin, and Sharon Peterson.
- 9 Library:
Karen reported for them. Bonnie noted that members can contact the committee through the guild email if they wish to access books. We can make arrangements to fill their requests on the day of our meetings. The names of books for sale are listed on the website.
- 10 Block of the Month – Kika Hutchings
Eight people participated and 16 blocks were made. Nancy Butterfield is the winner. Next month will be Rain Dance. It is in the Newsletter.

The meeting was adjourned by Present Karen Pickford at 8:50 PM

Respectfully submitted electronically by Mary Maxwell
Recording Secretary