BRINGING HOME THE HARVEST

November 1992

This Month -- A Landslide of Thanks to Everyone!

A pat on the back is deserved by all those intrepid campaigners who created a quilt for Distortions: An Election Year Challenge and to everyone who contributed to the fun by casting a ballot tonight. It was probably more difficult to choose tonight than it was last week.

The Guild would like to thank our generous donors of prizes for this year's Guild challenge project:

- * Betty's Fabrics, Santa Barbara
- * Beverly Fabrics, downtown Santa Barbara
- * Fabric Depot, Santa Paula
- * Grant House, Santa Barbara

Those elected tonight will be listed in the next copy of Coast Lines. Note: Norah will be keeping the quilts so she can photograph them and try for publication. You may pick up your quilt at one of her classes at the Wake Center Room 2, Monday, November 16, or Wednesday, November 18 at noon, or Tuesday, November 17 at 7pm. Or call Norah, 962-8511.

Next Month -- Holiday Fun at our December Meeting

Bring a plateful of goodies and a sense of humor to our December Guild meeting. Also bring 12 six inch squares of DIFFERENT PRINT fabrics for a special game. Try to chose prints that are 3 or more colors. Plaids and stripes are fine too. Just be sure that they are 100% cotton

And Santa promises you'll get to keep some of the ones you want and no grinches will be allowed to steal your favorites. (For those who are new members, our fabric exchanges have some times not met the requirements for goodwill during this season!)

And a Christmas Present to the Guild from Mary Ellen Hopkins (because we've been good ?? . . . )

Well acquainted with some of our zannier members, Mary Ellen though we would like to see a slide show produced by Debbie Titus and the Bag Ladies of Omaha Nebraska. Presenting an uproarious look at the changes in our lives brought about by quilting, this production is an example of just how silly things can get when we start to poke fun at ourselves. Thanks to Mary Ellen for tickling our funny bone!

Looking Ahead 1993

Start the New Year Right! Our Speaker for January has Much to Offer

We'll begin the new year with a look back at quilt history with Beverly Dunivent of Green Valley Lake. Beverly has been making and studying quilts for the past 14 years and has made scrap quilts her speciality. At our January meeting, she will present her talk, "Exploring Quilt History Through Scrap Quilts." Using actual Quilts, Beverly will tell us about the quiltmakers, describe construction details, and tell us about the changes, trends, and fads that have occurred over time.

A certified American Quilting Society Appraiser, Beverly is working on a book on quilts made from kits. If you happen to own one of these, be sure to bring it along on January 13 -- Beverly wants to meet you!

Scrap Quilt Workshop Presents Opportunities for All

Create a wallhanging with the lovely look of watercolor in this easy workshop class. Your quilt will have the appearance of an impressionist painting. Quilters like Diedre Amsden and Judy Dales use this subtle technique to carry color over the surface of stunning contemporary quilts. (See the November QNM for an example of this technique -- My First Quilt, pg 22; Dierdre Amsden has a quilt in the "Visions" exhibit in San Diego.)

If you are a beginner, don't despair! Beverly has a special feeling for the beginning quilter and tries especially to encourage them with extra attention. The workshop will include a fabric exchange so that everyone has lots of fabrics to work with and you have the next two months to trade with your friends -- I only need a little piece . . .

 To sign up for this scrap quilt workshop, see Jan Inouye and get a supply list at the same time. There are photographs included to help you gather your scraps. The workshop will take place from 9 am to 3 pm on Thursday, January 14. Cost: $25

* First Aid for Antique Quilts -- Beverly's visit is being co-sponsored with Grant House (118 N. Milpas St., 963-8956) and she will present a talk, "Care, Repair and Dating of Quilts" at the Bernina Club meeting on Tuesday January 12 at 10 am and again at 6:30 pm. Visitors are welcome and encouraged to bring quilts. This is a great chance to ask about stain removal, laundering, and the repair of tears and other damage

* Important! Take Advantage of a Real Opportunity -- On Tuesday, January 12 from noon to 4 pm, and Wednesday, January 13 from 9 am to noon, Beverly Dunivent will be at Grant House. This is a rare opportunity to have your quilt appraised by this AQS certified appraiser. Both antique and contemporary quilts can be evaluated. A verbal appraisal will cost $5.00 and a written one is $20. This is a wonderful chance to provide the documentation required for insuring and shipping quilts. (If you want to know how difficult it is to do things without an appraisal, just ask Norah McMeeking about her adventures with the Museum Quilt.) Tell your quilt collecting friends too!

Harriet Hargrave is Coming in February!

"Heirloom Machine Quilting" will be the topic of Harriet's presentation at the Guild meeting. Harriet is a masterful quilter, wonderful speaker, knowledgeable teacher, and just a plain peach! This will be a meeting you won't want to miss.

As we go to press, negotiations are underway to bring Harriet to Grant House too, where she will give a talk on another subject. Watch next month's Coast Lines for more details, or phone Grant House. Grant has some exciting plans for us to spend more time with Harriet.

✂ You have to be a Guild Member to sign up for Harriet's Guild workshop, so pay your dues today!

* The Guild's Treasure(r), Laura Alarid is looking into a bulk order of Harriet's favorite batting -- Hobbs Heirloom Cotton Batting. If this sounds good to you, give Laura a call at 964-1205

Onwards and Upwards . . . Where Does a Quilt Go to Have Fun?

"Museum Impressions" is back from its visit hanging around with the other quilts at the San Francisco International Quilt Exposition. This quilt was created by our Guild to mark the 75th anniversary of the Museum of Natural History, who loaned it to the Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds for display in San Francisco. The quilt was so highly regarded, that Marilyn Stocker, outgoing president of SCCQG, returned it to the Museum in Person. What a doll! The quilt has recently been appraised at a value of $5,000 and the Guild has made a gift of the certified appraisal to the Museum of Natural History.

Marge Reports on our Community Project:

News from the Board . . .

CQG Comes of Age. President Barbara has researched the By-laws, and the Board has gone over them with a fine tooth comb. Tonight the membership will vote on their acceptance. Our By-laws are designed for good leadership and flexibility and pave the way for the Guild to incorporate. This will provide the Guild with many operating advantages. Laura Alarid, Incorporation Chair, and Mary Vandenberg are doing some pretty serious work on the technical aspects of this process. Mega-Thanks for all this celebration!

November - Block of the Month

'Twas the month before Christmas
And all you could see
Was an un-bedecked house
And undecorated tree.

When what to our wondering minds should appear
But a Block-of-the Month thought
To bring you great cheer.
Instead of the block we so often require,
A symbol of Christmas is what we desire.

An ornament made by your own loving hands
Would fit rather nicely into the guild's plans.
Next month they will all be displayed on a tree
For the rest of our members to view joyfully.

And if you've the fortunate name that is picked
All of you're holiday woes will be licked.
To be given as presents, or hung on your tree
These ornaments will make your Christmas mer-ry!

Happy Holidays!

Kathy
