Newsletter of the Coastal Quilters Guild Inc. of Santa Barbara & Goleta, California

Emergency!

As of this writing, 14 members were asked if they would be president for the 1996 term. Thirteen respectfully declined. One was not able to be contacted.

A choice needs to be made — To be a GUILD or NOT to be a Guild in 1996?

If you still want a quilt guild in this area, some members must volunteer for the following nominated positions:

- President
- Vice President
- Recording Secretary
- Treasurer
- Parliamentarian

The voting will take place in November and the officers installed in December. If we don't have these positions filled, the Guild will be dissolved by December 31, 1995!

✂ ✂ Program & Workshop News ✂ ✂

October 11. Yellow/Orange Challenge

November 8. 1995 Hoffmann Challenge Exhibit

Last years Hoffman Challenge had nearly 600 entries in one of three categories — quilts, clothing and dolls. Our Guild will be one of the first to see the new, 1995 exhibit. We are very lucky to be able to see this unique traveling show, and we will be able to see it early in the season. Join us and enjoy this fun evening.

December 13. Holiday Celebration

Installation of officers and reception.

January 10. Alex Anderson.

Our speaker will be Alex Anderson of Livermore, CA, on her way to Crossroads in Ontario, and Asilomar workshops. Stay tuned, her topic is yet to be announced.

Contact Anne Braddock, 687-4228 to register for workshops. Class space is limited, so sign up early.

Workshop location is Goleta Community Center, Rooms 1 & 2. 9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. Please arrive early to set up. Contact Anne Braddock, 687-4228 to enroll. Sign-ups for July workshop begin at May meeting.

Shhhhhhhhh.....
It's a surprise!

It's a SURPRISE! for Judy. We want to do something special for our president when she leaves office next year. Instead of a traditional memory quilt, an elf whispered that Judy would love handmade Christmas ornaments. So now that the Challenge deadline is over, start your first Christmas project by making a special ornament for Judy. Just remember the following:

1. Not larger than 4-5 inches big or around.
2. Make sure to add a hanging hook or loop.
3. Bring gift wrapped with your name attached.
4. Bring to the December meeting where Jan Inouye will have a special basket available. If you can't attend this meeting, have a friend bring it for you OR contact Jan, 962-3498, in advance.

*Suggestions for an ornament: Rubber stamped mini blocks, Cross-Stitch Christmas design, check out the books from guild library.

Community Project – Quilts donated for our annual community project will be collected at the November meeting. Hospice, which provides a home for cancer and terminally ill patients, will receive the quilts at our December meeting. Identification tags are available tonight and throughout the month from coordinator Claire Hemke. Please call her at 569-9442 if you have any questions.

Far Corners —

It has come to our attention, and mailboxes, lately, that we have several members far away and wishing to stay in touch. Here's news of them.

Portland is the new home of Darlene Skog, who says there are several large quilting organizations in the area. She's excited to be in two shows this Fall, the Pennsylvania National Quilt Extravaganza II, and the Pacific International Quilt Festival IV.

Norah McMeeking writes that her schedule is very busy. She's contacted other teachers who might want to come to the US to teach. She's also teaching, and met up with our own Sharon Doyle at "The Great British Quilt Festival". She misses us, and would love to hear news from home; her address is 3 Bulstrode Gardens, Cambridge, CB3 0EN, England, phone 01223-324858.

Before moving to Washington in 1993, Julie Johnston was an active guild member, quilt designer of the outstanding patriotic quilt commemorating the Gulf War that was selected for a traveling exhibit, business co-partner of Thoroughly Modern Mini rubber stamp blocks with Phyllis Peterson and Sharon Doyle and member of On-Line Quilters, the first computer Internet quilting bee. She has recently become seriously ill and unable to take phone calls. Please send your words of encouragement and concern to Mrs. Russell (Julie) Johnston, P.O. Box 1378, Kingston, WA 98346.

California Heritage Quilt Project —

Two names were suggested to the CHQ Project, but there is no way of contacting them. Addresses or phone numbers are needed for Esther Flores and Mary Mortar. Contact Linda Karppinen or Judy Gorrindo if you have this information.

The Santa Barbara "chapter" of the project will be researched here November 1 & 2! Help is needed to successfully record the stories of quilters in our area. The SCCQG Fall 95 Newsletter includes a letter from Sharon Peters of the CHQP. She writes that "CHQP's immediate goal for the next three years is to collect oral interviews and preserve them in archival storage for posterity. We are continually investigating how to best put this information into tomorrow's technology and keep it affordable. If you are a computer whiz kid and can guide us, we need your advise. How can we affordably put the stories and pictures onto CDROM?" If you'd like to help on this exciting project, call Linda Karppinen at 563-0817.

Touchy/Feely — School's back in session and now's the time to have school children get "up-close & personal" with quilts. Our Touchy/Feely quilt was made specifically for children in mind during the Natural Impressions exhibit and is still available to guild members who plan to do a special presentation in a classroom. Children and teachers love to see quilts. Just an informal collection of your quilts and some of your friend's quilts along with the Touchy/Feely will bring about many happy faces. And when you talk about quilts in your child's classroom, you are guaranteed to be the envy of all the other classes in your school. So don't miss this opportunity to educate the next generation on our great heritage of quilting. Contact Betty Libbert for scheduling, 687-5128.

Accountant Sought — As the Guild moves into it's new role as a non-profit corporation, we may need an accountant to review our finances and taxes. If you, or your spouse, is an accountant and would be able to help the Guild out in this capacity, please contact Judy at 682-2964.

Still Looking for Storage

Your Guild has need of storage space — clean, dry, secure, pest-free, and accessible. As we have grown, we have acquired records, memorabilia, and possessions that need a permanent home. Do you have a large closet, garage, room that meets our requirements? Contact Judy at 682-6592.

Reminder — If you bring a guest to a guild meeting, please stop at the desk and make the $5.00 guest donation.

Take a Chance — Your opportunity to help the Guild and raise money for guest speakers and programs comes each year with "Opportunity Quilt" tickets. Membership alone does not provide all the funds for our speakers and events. Please do your part and raise donations for a chance to win our beautiful quilt.

★ September Refreshments -

thank you to:

- Nancy Bauerle
- Peg Gard
- Jean MacMillan
- Harriet Berk &
- Madelyn Rowlands brought delicious cookies!

Wanted — the following names are found to be in negligence for not picking up their guild roster. (It's October, ladies!) Failure to do so, renounces your right to know everything there is to know about the best guild in the South Coast, plus identification of all the best quilters in town. The rosters with no claim can be picked up (without jail term, court date, penalty fee or jury duty) at the tables at the entrance at every meeting.
