July - Quild's Community Quilts Project

Presentation Program

At the July 12 meeting, we will present the balance of the quilts that the members have made for the Adventures in Caring Organization. Trish, from Adventures in Caring will be on hand as will a Raggedy, to receive the quilts. Don't miss this meeting; you will be treated to a great quilt show. Many of you really out did yourselves! Thus far we have collected an additional 75 quilts, putting us over our goal of 100. If you have not yet turned in your quilt to Liz Turner, please do so before the meeting. Also, it is important that you sew on the label provided with the kit. Especial thanks to all of you who participated in this very worthwhile project. These quilts will very definitely go to those who will treasure them. bye, Liz Turner

President's Message

Greetings from San Diego! I haven't really had time to catch my breath, but it is nice to be here. I did make it to Rosie's Calico Cupboard, my favorite quilt shop here, but it was Saturday afternoon and very crowded, so I was not able to go into the creative mode I like to adopt in the presence of all that fabric. Aside from visiting quilt shops, one of my favorite quilt-related things to do is attend the Canyon Quilters' Guild July meeting. I became a member because I am always in San Diego for the month of July. However, I still feel like a new member because this month will only be my seventh meeting, and I hardly know any of the other members. Thus, I walk in feeling somewhat self-conscious and not really knowing where to go (they moved their meeting site two years ago) or what the sign-in procedure is. Also, I'm always a bit nervous that I will sit in a seat that is being saved for someone's friend. In some respects, the anonymity is kind of fun because I can sit back and do nothing but enjoy the program without having to worry about the logistics of the meeting. Nevertheless, I don't really belong to Canyon Quilters' yet, and I find myself envious of the other members' conviviality in greeting all of their friends.

This brings me to our July meeting and the New Members' reception. Please get all of the details from Desiree's article, but the high points are: come early, bring a snack to share (cookies are always a big hit, but your specialty will be greatly appreciated), and bring one or two fat-quarters to be given to the new members as welcome gifts.

Our new members are a valuable resource. Not only do we have the opportunity to introduce them to the wonders of the quilting world, but also they provide us a great source of new friends with whom to share our interests. Our Guild works so well, in part, because we have a continual influx of enthusiastic, fun, and 'eager to learn' new members. Let's all join in welcoming our new members this month and invite one or more of them to sit with us. I encourage each of you to make a commitment to learn the names of at least three (or more) new members so you can greet them by name at next month's feat, that will be much simpler if we all wear our name tags!

Oh, and by the way, I think I will volunteer for something at the Canyon Quilters' meeting this month, and I know that will help me feel more a part of the group. I'll be home briefly for the July meeting and then back in Santa Barbara for good in early August. I'm always available by e-mail so don't hesitate to write.

July Meeting Puts Members in the Spotlight

This month you will get some insight to the working styles, inspiration, and accomplishments of these very productive quilters in our guild: Ruth Walters, Diane Eardley, Linda Cassirer, and Judy Gorrindo.

You'll see vibrant colors, gorgeous handwork and sewing machine mastery from these four and will hear stories to inspire and encourage you in your own quiltmaking. We'll display a quilt from each member in the spotlight, hold up others for viewing and listen as each one spends about 15 minutes telling us about her work. Two will speak before the break and two after. With the New Members' reception taking place before the meeting and the Library Book Sale during the break, this meeting will be one of the friendliest of the year. Be sure to be there to honor some of the "best:" Linda, Judy, Ruth, Diane AND our new members. You don't want to miss it!

UPCOMING Meeting Highlights:

August: Silent Auction.

Join us for an evening of quilters' bargains. Bring your unwanted, no longer needed, never used quilting whatnots to this meeting along with your checkbook! One woman's "trash" is another's treasure. Saturday wearables workshop follows, details pending.

September: Mickey Lawler

Mickey is owner of Skydyes and author of the book by the same title. A skilled teacher and craftswoman, she'll show us how to make textured, hand-dyed fabric and put it to use in our quilts.

October: Challenge

A great meeting for friends and family to attend. CQG Challenge is no doubt our most popular program when our members tackle the same design "problem" from many angles and take part in a friendly competition for prizes.

November: Mary Lou Weidman

Author of Whimsies and Whynots, this Washington state quilter is noted for her colorful story quilts. Mary Lou combines folk art methods with lively color to spark your imagination. Also, in November we hold our annual election of Guild Officers.

Library News

We have a special book this month given to us by the authors, Rosalind Webster Perry and Mary Frolli. Newly published, MARIE WEBSTERS GARDEN OF QUILTS tells the story of Rosalind's grandmother, an Indiana quilter, who with the help of her son, built the first successful quilt business in the first decade of the Twentieth Century. Marie designed mostly floral appliqué patterns and kits that became the rage through their publication in The Ladies Home Journal. From lovely pink roses on the cover of this book through colorful and attractive pages we follow Marie's lead from the traditional Nineteenth Century quilt designs to Art Nouveau and Arts and Crafts designs she introduced to quilts. She gained an international reputation, traveled widely through the world, and published the first book on quilts, QUILTS: THEIR STORY AND HOW TO MAKE THEM. This is the second book on Marie Webster, the first, also by Rosalind and Marty, is A JOY FOREVER. What a wonderful life she led. No wonder she was inducted into the Quilter's Hall of Fame in 1991.

To ease us down from the high of such a thrilling career, we have the two volumes of The Museum of the American Quilter's Society Permanent Collection in Paducah, Kentucky entitled simply QUILTS, Volumes 1 and 2. These are museum catalogs of quilts purchased and acquired during the years 1984 to 1994. Each quilt is illustrated on a full-page with a one-page statement by the quilter. You will recognize many of these contemporary quilters working nearly 100 years after Marie Webster. Thank you, Carol Boyce for donating these to the library.

Because Mickey Lawler will be our featured speaker in September we have bought MICKEY LAWLER'S SKY DYES. Mickey is a nationally known fabric painter and quilter and her hand-painted fabrics are in demand. C&T Publishing encourages teachers to use this book as a text. If you are interested in hand-painted fabrics, this is for you. Reading the book with its many illustrated instructions is like taking the workshop before September.

PICTORIAL QUILTS by Maggi McCormick Gordon is a large and well-arranged book on quilts depicting a preserved memory, a story, a location, a beloved animal, a portrait. After a brief history of pictorial quilts, comes the most valuable section of chapters on how to adapt the original source material, how to use perspective and compose your picture, and how colors, fabrics, and textures enhance the picture. Next follows a gallery of quilts showing land and sea, flowers and foliage, animals, figures and places.

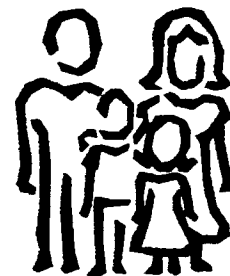

Helping us shore up our grasp of Maggi's principles, along comes a donated book from Betty Kelley, THE LANDSCAPE QUILT by Sheryl Morrow Robinson. Norah McMeeking urges her students to search for this out-of-print book with its basic instructions for making beautiful landscape quilts and here it is in your Guild library!

Panty Raid. Get Your Panties in a Bunch!

Deadline & Drawing for Quilt This Month

Bring as many as you can.

The Blockheads satellite group have made a quilt to benefit local women in life transition. For each pair of brand-new underwear you give us to donate to Shelter Services for Women, you get a chance to win the gorgeous group-effort quilt.

Donate new underwear, (in the package or with tags still on) in any size for women, children, or men. All men's underwear and some women's panties we receive will go to Good Hearted People/Job Smart. Everything you bring will benefit someone in our community.

We will give the quilt away to some lucky guild member during this month's meeting.

See any Blockhead to turn in your donations and get your chances to win this lovely quilt.

The Blockheads are: Carol Barringer, Jan Beckert, Oleta Bennett, Anne Braddock, Linda Cassirer, Isabel Downs, Monte Farris, Leslie Hogan, Lora Martin, Mary Norton, Cecilia Puppo, and Sue Scholl.

If you would like more information about the organizations who will benefit from this "underwear raiser", please see Lora Martin, 963-3685.

This idea was copied (with permission) from the Simi Valley quilter's guild. They have about as many members as we, and were able to donate nearly 500 pair of underwear to their local women's shelter.

Can we do better? YES we can!

More Library News

We could not let a month go by without adding a good old traditional quilt idea to all the new approaches we find today. PINEAPPLE QUILTS edited by Barbara Smith for AQS is not a stodgy old idea. But it is pure pineapple and that is traditional. This book presents the winner of the 1998 challenge in The Museum of the American Quilt Society's annual international contest of 'New Quilts from Old Favorites'. The only design requirement for quilts in the contest was that they come from the Pineapple.

Like their other catalogs, this book contains a page devoted to the quilter as well as her quilt. There are full-size patterns and designs that can be used to inspire or copy.

These are exciting Pineapples, no wonder the pattern has endured. Pineapples are a good way to use those scraps, charms, and yards of material in your stash. Pineapple pieces are small but usually lots of material is eaten up.

Happy quilting. Joyce Ball

OPPORTUNITY QUILT TICKETS HAVE ARRIVED

The Guild's 2001 Opportunity Quilt bloomed at the June meeting, thanks to the artistry of June Gerrard. Harmony in Bloom is a king-size blooming nine-patch, and it can be yours!

Each Guild member receives 12 raffle tickets, to buy or sell to others, and each ticket is an opportunity to win this masterpiece. Tickets are $1.00 each or 6 for $5.00. The tickets will be available at the July and August Guild meetings, so please pick up your envelope then if you did not get it in June. Any tickets not picked up will have to be mailed, and the cost of mailing will reduce the amount raised for Guild activities.

If you would like to purchase or sell more than 12 tickets, there will be extra tickets available at the July and August Guild meetings; after that, you may call Cynthia Manzer at 687-0657 to obtain additional tickets.

Challenge 2001

Mariner's Compass

October Guild Challenge Program is just 4 months away. It may seem there is plenty of time to make that great challenge quilt in your dreams.

CHALLENGE:

quilt must include a Mariner's Compass of some type: pieced, appliquéd, printed, traditional, contemporary, fractured, etc.

SIZE OF ENTRY QUILT:

no greater than 144" circumference (or a 36"x36" wall hanging).

Fact: Summer is busy, then Fall classes will start and before you know it you are in a crunch to finish before October 11th.

TIPS: Make your challenge quilt Mariner's Compass block in a class or workshop. You will still be able to keep the rest of the quilt a secret! Our guild library has several books with patterns as well as flip & sew techniques that make the Compass possible for beginners and advanced.

'Get on board' and 'learn the ropes' for this beautiful pattern and enter the Guild Challenge this year!

Quilters Hall of Fame Announces Honoree for 2001

Barbara Brackman, from Lawrence, Kansas, with nearly 20 years devoted to quilt research, has been selected as The Quilters Hall of Fame inductee for 2001. Brackman has played a remarkable number of roles within the quilting community: author, lecturer, teacher, curator, researcher, pattern collector, and quiltmaker. Her expertise in pattern and fabric identification, as well her insights and overview of quilt history, have had a profound impact nationally and internationally. Brackman wrote The Encyclopedia of Pieced Patterns, Encyclopedia of Appliqué, and Clues in Calico [A Guide to Identifying and Dating Antique Quilts], the latter probably the most referenced book in quilting history. Brackman has curated exhibits for the Knoxville Museum of Art, Kansas Museum of History, Wichita Art Museum, and Spencer Museum of Art at the University of Kansas, to name a few, and has trained participants in quilt documentation projects, among them Iowa Quilt Research Project, Georgia Quilt Project and the North Carolina Quilt Project. Brackman is highly sought after for lectures and fabric dating seminars. "Being inducted into The Quilters Hall of Fame is an appropriate way to say thanks and to recognize Barbara Brackman's many accomplishments in researching and preserving our quilt heritage," stated Hazel Carter, President of The Quilters Hall of Fame, upon announcing the selection. The induction will take place on July 21, 2001, during The Quilters Hall of Fame Celebration in Marion, Indiana. For details, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to The Quilters Hall of Fame, P.O. Box 681, Marion, IN 46952

A Reminder for August - Get ready...

The fun and fabulous "Silent Auction" is coming in August, so start stashing away those quilting related treasures you've lost interest in or space for. We've all changed direction in our work and "one woman's trash is another woman's treasure." We'll bid with pencil and paper on items, with the high bid at the end of the allotted time getting the item--usually for a song. All proceeds go into the Guild treasury to fund our activities.

Quilters' Trips. Go with your friends, don't miss out!

Oct 2-15 Textile tour to England. $2795 per person
Oct 31-Nov 4 Houston International Quilt Show $798 per person
Would there be interest in a bus trip down to M & L Fabrics in Anaheim? I am thinking about a Saturday in September. The cost would be around $26 round trip. I would get a bus with lots of room for purchases! M & L has excellent fabrics and very low cost, making them invaluable for quilt backs!

For any of these events please call Nancy King at 964 4741 or drop by Magic Carpet Travel, next to Blue Island Quilts!

Guild Doing's - 2001

July Members' Showcase, New Members Welcome and Library Book sale.

Note to Remember: Collect sewing related items to donate to Silent action. (this event benefits the Guild).

August Silent Auction - Trash to treasure.

September Mickey Lawler, owner of Skydyes and author of the book by the same title. A skilled teacher and craftswoman, she'll show us how to make textured, hand-dyed fabric and put it to use in our quilts. Sign up for her two-day workshop in September, Paints on Fabric! Enrollment will be announced at the July meeting.

October 2001 Guild Challenge Quilts.

Do you have your compasses directing you towards this year's Challenge Quilt?

Nominations 2002

The time has come once again to think about who will lead our guild in the coming year. The nominations process will be done a bit differently this year, so as to involve a more diverse cross section of the guild membership. We are asking each satellite group to nominate one of their members for a board position. Your satellite groups are the place where you get to know each other very personally. Look over the list of officers and committee chairs found in the front of your roster, and think of who in your group would be the perfect person for one of those jobs. If we can get someone on the board from each satellite group, then everyone in a satellite group will have a friend on the board. Talk to Ranell Hansen at the next meeting, or email your suggestions to hansen-adams@email.msn.com. Thanks for your cooperation and enthusiasm.

Workshops:

September 13 & 14 (Thurs. & Fri.)
Mickey Lawler Paints on Fabric!

An introduction for the non-painter to the use of non-toxic paints on cotton fabric. The student will become familiar with various effects of watercolor paints applied with brushes, sponges and bottles. Experimental techniques & manipulation of fabric will also be covered. In a 1-day workshop the student is expected to have 3-5 yards of fabric & in the 2-day workshop, 6-10 yds. Her website is <http://www.skydyes.com>.

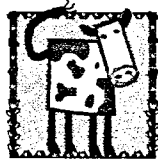

Because of the anticipated popularity, we have asked Mickey Lawler to add an extra day to the workshop schedule. She will be here for a total of 3 days, Thurs., Fri., Sat, Sept. 13, 14 & 15, for a combination of 1 or 2 day workshops covering her methods of painting on fabrics.

Norah McMeeking will register the Mickey Lawler workshop in July. If, on the night of that meeting, we are oversubscribed for a workshop, we will have a lottery. We will hold the lottery as soon as possible to let applicants know their status. If we hold a lottery, the other names will be placed on a waiting list for space available. Remember, a check or cash for the amount of the workshop is needed to hold your space.

Just drop them off at the membership table as you enter the meeting room. A container for collection will be available. Thank you for the contributions. It appears that a lot of sewing is going on!

International Quilt Study Center

The University of Nebraska in Lincoln is home to both the International Quilt Study Cent and the State Museum with its Hall of Mammoths. (Not to be mistaken for mama- moths).

In March, 2001, an exhibition titled, "Fanciful Flowers, Botany and the American Quilt", was displayed in the Cooper Gallery. Curated by Carolyn Ducy of the Quilt Study Center, a dozen full-size quilts featuring flowers in various styles and forms were featured. The quilts were drawn from the Ardis and Robert James Collection located at IQSC.

Quilts from the 1800's included a blazing star with a leave border, followed by another border row of LeMoyne stars and finally, a border row of chintz cut-out flowers. It was marked as being from New England, circa 1850. One album quilt from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, was three dimensional, the result of using a yo-yo technique for the flowers and berries that were first stuffed and then stitched to the quilt top. Sample blocks accompanied many of the quilts, illustrating the techniques used. These blocks were available for close examination or touching. One of the outstanding features of this exhibit was technical notes and historical comments on placards for each quilt. For each quilt, tidbits like the average number of stitches per inch (ranging from six to eleven for the hand-quilted works. One machine quilted piece was featured--not unusual for this period, as sewing machines, although numerous in the 1800's, were not resident in every household. Hand quilting was preferred and traditionally thought to be 'the only way' to make a quilt. However, those older, straight stitch, sewing machines can produce beautiful straight stitches. (Aren't we happy that has changed for many of us, allowing us to experiment and duplicate old techniques with new techniques?)

To keep the kids (or yourself) happy during the event, there was a hands-on Quilt Design Table, with a tray and brightly colored plastic shapes: triangles, squares and parallelograms.
