September Speaker: Norah McMeeking

How fortunate we are that we have author and lecturer Norah McMeeking, who wrote Bella Bella Quilts, Stunning designs from Italian Mosaics, right in our own back yard! Norah has taught quilting across the US and Great Britain with emphasis on patchwork, appliqué, and foundation paper piecing techniques.

She will be teaching at Festival of Quilts (UK), A Gathering of Quilts (NH); the Utah Quilt Conference, Quilt Colorado, and Quilts Unlimited (VA) over the next few months. She helped organize "Natural Impression" quilt exhibits at the SB Museum of Natural History.

Norah's quilts have been shown at AQS, Pacific International, Vermont Quilt Festival, Road to California, Quilts UK, The British Patchwork Championships, and in history museums in Santa Barbara and Ventura.

Norah will present her powerpoint presentation and a trunk show of her quilts. Too good to miss!

Our Harvest of Colors Quilt Show is Just Around the Corner!

There is excitement in the air as we approach the weekend of the 2010 Harvest of Colors Quilt Show. I'm pleased that so many quilts have been submitted for the show – and that we had a large number submitted for judging. We are looking forward to a wonderful display of all of your beautiful creations – I personally can't wait! Keep telling all of your friends about the show, and let's sell lots of tickets!

Quilt Drop Off

You will be contacted by the person responsible for collecting your quilt(s) to set up a suitable time for you to deliver it to them. The Quilts must go to your designated Collector – they will not be accepted at the Guild Meeting.

Photography - DVD

If you do not wish to have your quilt photographed as part of the DVD the guild is having produced and selling at the show, you will have an opportunity to mark this preference on the form when you drop off your quilt(s) at the collector. If you are dropping off a quilt for another member, please be sure that you know what their preference is regarding the DVD photography.

Volunteers

Volunteers are still needed in several categories for the show. Please contact Diane Eardley (earldley@lifesci.ucsb.edu or 963-8321), or sign up at the September meeting.

Dinner

The traditional HOC "kick-off" dinner (Friday, September 24th) will be at Mulligan's (just off Las Positas at the golf course) for all who wish to attend. Dinner will consist of an Italian selection, including Chicken Piccata and Lasagna, Caesar salad, etc. The cost of the dinner will be $25. There is a no-host bar with appetizers included in the price of the dinner. Appetizers will be served around 6:00 p.m. If you would like to attend the dinner, please contact Becky Gallup (bjoyg@aol.com or 680-6962). You may also sign up for the dinner at the next Guild meeting.

I'd like to thank my wonderful committee chairs for all of the work and creative thought they've put into the preparations for the show. They truly made my job so much easier - in fact, I'm sure their jobs were harder than mine! It was a pleasure to work with all of these wonderful women (and man) and hopefully our efforts will pay off with a profitable and successful show.

Guild Business: Who to Contact

At the July picnic, it was announced that, until we have a president, Guild members should contact Julie Mock, our Corresponding Secretary with questions. This was a pretty broad statement and we would like to clarify contact information.

For specific information, please contact the appropriate Elected Officer or Committee Chair as listed in the inside front cover of the Guild Newsletter or on the Guild's website (<http://www.coastalquilters.org>).

In addition:

- Set-up requirements for Guild Meetings (i.e. tables, chairs, quilt stands), email your request to Becky Gallup (bjoyg@aol.com) at least one day prior to the Guild Meeting.
- Agenda items for Guild or Board meetings, email your request to Priscilla Jacobs (priscillabjacobs@yahoo.com) at least one day prior to the meeting.

If none of the above meets your need, send a note to the guild's email CQGinfo@gmail.com and it will be forwarded to the appropriate person. If you do not have email, you should call Julie Mock or write to the Board at:

Quilt Show Boutique Participants

Good news...your volunteer shift for the main show DOES give you an entry pass for both days of the Show. A few of you still need to sign up for a boutique shift, and if a couple of you want to do two shifts, you have that opportunity. I'll be at a table in the rear at the September meeting for you - and also taking pre-sale orders of the Show DVDs.

Challenge 2011 "All Creatures Great and Small"

We challenge you to enter this friendly guild tradition with an entry for yourself or to give as a gift. Be creative. Have fun. Surprise us!

Rules

1. Each entry must include at least one identifiable animal print fabric: (any non-human animal: amphibians, birds, fish, insects, invertebrates, or mammals, etc.) or animal feature (animal fur, reptile skin, animal paw, etc.) The required animal print may be dominant or subtle within your creation.
2. The entry may be ANY handmade creation which includes SOME quilting. You are not limited to a wall hanging. Wall hangings must be 120" or less in circumference. Any handmade creation includes: garments: wearables, Halloween costume; toys: stuffed animal, doll; home dec: pillow, etc.; utilitarian: apron, tea cozy, table runner, etc. There must be enough quilting to be noticed so that the entry is identified as having been quilted.
3. One entry per member. An entry may be a unit. For example an apron with coordinating pot holder or a dressed stuffed animal.

Questions?

Do we need to depict an animal great and or small?

No, but whatever you decide to enter must include an animal fabric. You may do an "I spy" landscape, vest or whatever, which under close inspection reveals an animal fabric. You may celebrate our Challenge theme depicting a known species animal or your own imaginary animal which also includes an animal fabric. Your entry may mimic our theme with a traditional animal-named quilting block: Hen and Chicks, Cats and Mice, or more abstractly: Turkey Tracks, Bear's Paw, or a border of Flying Geese, etc. as long as it includes an animal fabric.

Consider also how your entry will be displayed. It may need an accessory: a tea cozy needs a teapot, a doll may need a doll stand, a garment shows best on a hanger, etc. You will need to include these accessories when the challenges are collected for Challenge Night.

Future Programs

SEPTEMBER

There is no workshop because of the Quilt Show, but join us for Free Sew on Saturday the 11th: Come to the Goleta Community Center to enjoy sewing with others in a well-lit room with lots of tables. Bring a cushion to sit on if you like (chairs are low).

OCTOBER

Nancy Ota, from San Clemente, will present us with a Trunk Show, How's and Why's of Quilting. Her Sashiko workshop is scheduled for October 15, 2010. Learn to hand embroider the beautiful stitching patterns used in Japan. You will begin by stitching on a small traced pattern, which is provided. Then you can select from six other provided patterns or create something on your own. An optional kit for $20 will provide pre-marked fabric, thread and a pattern. It is available for viewing at the Workshop Sign-up table.

Save Friday, October 29 & Saturday, October 30th for Apron Presentations and workshops by EllynAnne Geisel at the Goleta Community Center. It will be open to the public so invite a friend. See the full article in this issue for more information.

NOVEMBER

Tonye Belinda Phillips, from Sisters, Oregon, will present a lecture A Hint of Whimsy or Tonye's Applique Trip. Her workshop is: Applique Potluck, Needle turn appliqué. Her shapes are whimsical and playful. She likes to use unexpected fabrics. Sounds like fun!

DECEMBER

Always lots of fun and food. Save Thursday the 9th on your calendar.

Suzy Pelovsky, Speaker Liaison

A Special Event October 29 and 30: Two Days Celebrating the Apron

The Guild has arranged for noted apron author, exhibitor, and designer, EllynAnne Geisel, to spend two days with us sharing her life-changing apron journey. She will talk about the apron's historical odyssey and the people, the aprons and the stories she has collected along the way. EllynAnne Geisel first tied on domestic armor in 1999 while writing an article about aprons, and was struck by the history she knew must be woven into the fabric of that vintage icon. Since then she has gathered more than 600 aprons and apron memories from across America. She is coming to Santa Barbara to chronicle and celebrate her apron journey by presenting a lecture and five workshops. These consist of a writing workshop, an evening program, a sewing session and a hands-on presentation where EllynAnne shares items from her fabulous collection. The sessions will be open to the general public but Guild members have the opportunity to sign up first--YOU MUST DO SO BY OCTOBER 1.

Session Details

FRIDAY, October 29:

Session A: Writing Workshop, 9am-noon. Harriet Nelson May Have Died, But She Isn't Dead: Without our apron memories, the humble icon is just so much fabric. It is our stories that give life to the fabric. EllynAnne will help aspiring authors write about these memories.

Supplies You Will Need to Bring: A blank notebook and a nice pen that you enjoy writing with. Three or four of the compositions will be read at the evening presentation. (Limited to 20 people; cost for workshop $25—or see special pricing below.)

Session B: Tie One On With Us--Open Sew, Session 1, 1:00-4:30pm.

Created by EllynAnne, National Tie One On Day™ celebrates the humble apron and the spirit of women of earlier generations who have worn it. On the day before Thanksgiving, EllynAnne encourages us to wrap a loaf of bread in a special apron or envelope, tuck a prayer or note of encouragement in the pocket, and deliver the bread to someone in need of spiritual or physical sustenance.

Special patterns and fabric will be provided or you can bring your own pattern and/or fabric. (Limited to 25 people; cost for workshop $25—or see special pricing below.)

Session C: EVENING PROGRAM, 7:00pm-9:30pm.

A Celebration of the Apron: Remembering the Richness of Our Lives Through a Humble Icon. According to EllynAnne Geisel, aprons don't hold us back, they take us back. Apron author, exhibitor and designer, EllynAnne will speak on the apron's historical odyssey, share her life-changing apron journey and the people, the aprons, and the stories she's collected along the way. Audience members are encouraged to wear their aprons for a Parade of Aprons and there will be more..... (Cost $20—or see special pricing below.)

SATURDAY, October 30:

Session D: Tie One On With Us--Open Sew, Session 2, 9am-12:30pm.

See description above. Sign up for Session B or Session D. If room is available, you may sign up for both sessions. (Limited to 25 people; cost for workshop $25—or see special pricing below. Specify if interested in taking both B and D; room might be available)

Session E: "Sew Up Close" Presentation, 1:30-3:30pm. EllynAnne Geisel will meet with a smaller group where you will have hands-on experience seeing her aprons and other items of interest. (Limited to 50 people; cost $20—or see special pricing below.)

Special Pricing Options

Special Pricing #1: Sign up for Sessions A, C, E and either Session B or D for just $75, saving $15 over the cost of each session.

Special Pricing #2: Sign up for Session A, C and E only for $50, saving $15 over the cost of each session.

More on EllynAnne Geisel

EllynAnne curated and wrote Apron Chronicles, a traveling exhibit managed by The Women's Museum in Dallas. She is the author of the award-winning The Apron Book: Making, Wearing and Sharing a Bit of Cloth and Comfort, now in its sixth printing, a companion little gift book, Apronisms: Pocket Wisdom for Every Day, and a third book, The Kitchen Linens Book: Using, Sharing and Cherishing the Fabrics of Our Daily Lives. She also creates vintage designs for her company, Apron Memories®. Her aprons have been featured in Vogue and worn by desperate housewife Bree Van De Kamp. She has been featured on CBS News Sunday Morning and NPR's Weekend All Things Considered. EllynAnne is the mother of two sons, who she raised to be excellent husband material. She lives with her Prince Charming of 35 years in Pueblo, CO. For more about EllynAnne and her apron journey, visit www.apronmemories.com.

Block of the Month for October

SCRAP INSANITY: SNOWBALL

It's a snowball fight! How many can you make in an hour?

Don't expect to get cold hands making these simple snowballs. They will be soft and fluffy made from 30's scraps, perfect to snuggle under on a cold winter evening.

There are 20 pieces to this block and it will finish to 12 1/2" square.

FABRIC:

Background: white or cream. Cut 16 squares 2 1/2".

Scraps: you will need 4 different 30's prints. Cut 4 squares 6 1/2".

ASSEMBLY:

To make a snowball:

- » Draw a diagonal line on the wrong side of four background pieces.
- » Place a marked square, right sides together, on each corner of the 6 1/2" 30's scrap.
- » Sew on the drawn line.
- » Trim each corner seam to 1/4" to eliminate excess fabric and press open.
- » When you have four snowballs made, assemble them together as shown above.

Having problems with the block? We are here to help.

Cathe, Darilyn, & Kathy

P.S. If you don't have enough 30's fabric scraps, come see us at the September Guild meeting. We have some extras - but come early, the supply is limited.

Quilt Show Volunteers—We Need You!

We still need some volunteers in most categories, and the Guild would like every member to volunteer in some way for this important fundraiser. The September Guild meeting will be your last formal opportunity to sign up to volunteer, although you can also contact Diane Eardley at 963-8321 or eardeley@lifesci.ucsb.edu. So, please stop by the volunteer sign-up table at the September meeting and volunteer some of your time for this important cause! You will receive a reminder card with the time and category of your shift about one week before the show. It is important that you bring this card to the show when you come to volunteer as this will be your free admission ticket.

Quilt Show Acquisitions

You've submitted a picture of your quilt(s) and entry form(s) – now what?

The next step to getting your quilt(s) hung at the September show is the "collecting" phase.

By Sept 1st, those members that volunteered to collect quilts will be contacted with instructions and a list of the quilts they are to procure. These collectors will then contact each member on their list and arrange for a mutually convenient time for quilt delivery. I suggest that all quilts be collected between Sept 11th – Sept 19th but the exact date is up to the collector.

ALL QUILTS MUST BE SIGNED OVER TO A COLLECTOR BY SEPT 19TH.

If you requested that your quilt(s) be judged, your collector will be responsible for delivering the quilt(s) to the judging site. If not being judged, your quilt(s) will be taken by your collector to Earl Warren Showground on Friday morning for hanging.

You must pick up your quilt(s) Sunday, September 26th at the Earl Warren Showground after the show ends. You will receive written instructions, including time and location, when you drop off your quilt(s) with your collector.

NO QUILT MAY BE REMOVED FROM THE SHOW BEFORE SUNDAY EVENING.

If you are not able to deliver your quilt(s) to your assigned collector, or cannot pick-up your quilt(s) on Sunday evening, it is your responsibility to provide a friend with written permission to drop-off and/or pick-up your quilt(s).

Policies and procedures will be strictly adhered to in order to provide a safe and secure environment for all quilts.

Kate Lima, Acquisitions Committee

Quilt Show Judging Notes

Wow, your response to the last call for submitting entries was so fantastic that I needed to hire a second judge! Our Judges are Kathy Lee Smith and Shirley Bertolino. We received enough entries to keep all categories open. In fact, during category verification we needed to expand the number of categories to ten instead of seven. There will be lovely custom made ribbons to honor each category.

One reminder: anonymity is required for judging. When covering your entry label's identifying information (name, etc.) with a scrap of fabric please baste it securely, don't use safety pins. Our schedule on Judging Day is very tight.; we won't be able to re-cover your label if the cover you provide comes off.

Thank you for submitting your quilts for judging. This will be an exciting Show.
