November Meeting: Mary Lou Weidman Creative You

Mary Lou Weidman has traveled the world teaching workshops that share her happy, whimsical quilting style. Mary Lou began quilting at her grandmother's knee. She first learned to do yoyos and then to piece nine patches, half-square triangles and Grandmother's Flower Garden blocks (her favorite pattern). While she was growing up, Mary Lou's father, Ted, an artist, encouraged her to paint and draw. Later they shared a studio, where they painted and sold fine art paintings. She started doing story quilts in a folk art style that took the fancy of museums and galleries.

She has written four large books Whimsies and Whynots, Everyday Angels, Quilted Memories and Out of the Box, and she also owns a pattern company. Her technique book, Hoochy Mama Quilts and Flower

Power, is popular with her students when she teaches workshops on her style, which is the class that she will teach us on November 11. Phone Diane Eardley 963-8321 to sign up for some fun!

November 11 Workshop: Flower Power. These blocks are pieced blocks done Hoochy style and made into great wall hangings and quilts. Then when they are done, you have the option of adding buttons for centers and eyes and other fun things in the garden. These quilts have a "WOW" factor and are loads of fun!

Last Call: Raffle Tickets for Empty Spools Seminar at Asilomar

The guild is offering its members an opportunity to participate in a raffle to attend an Empty Spools seminar, a quilting workshop held at Asilomar, California (near Carmel). Tickets are $20 each and only 150 will be sold. The price includes a five-day workshop with your selected instructor, all meals, lodging, and the cost of mileage to and fro. The drawing will be at the December 2011 meeting. If the seminar you want to take in 2012 is full, you can wait until 2013 to sign up. Look for Sue Davies table at the next Guild meeting to buy a ticket or two. To read more about Empty Spools, check out the website at www.emptyspoolsseminars.com/

A Meeting of Satellites

The Knotty Threads and the Sew Whats held a joint meeting at Make a Wish, Roxanne Barbieri's new quilt shop in Carpinteria. Once the members who hadn't yet visited the shop finished oohing and aahing over the marvelous decor, fabric, yarn, books and gift items, show and tell began. We gathered at Roxanne's HUGE table at the rear of the store and soon were blended into one very large "quilting bee", talking and laughing, sharing, and some working on individual projects. Yummy refreshments kept everyone going through the hard work of nonstop talking and laughing together. Roxanne was good enough to open the cash register, so some of us could take home something that we had to have right then! The evening ended on the happy note of "Let's do this again!" — and we will. But next time the Sew Whats will bring refreshments and the Knotty Threads can be the guests.

We hope that other satellite groups will get together in joint meetings. It's lots of fun, and you get to visit with women you know and women you're just beginning to get to know, who are in the other group. Visiting before the guild meeting is fine, but visiting another satellite group is terrific.

Quilt Show News for November 2011

The next meeting for the Quilt Show committee will be at 10 a.m. on November 5, 2011, at the home of Karen Pickford. The primary item on the agenda will be establishing a budget for our show.

The postcard/advertising piece was completed in time to be distributed at the PIQF show in Santa Clara. Kathy Rose reported that our postcards were the "BRIGHTEST AND MOST NOTICABLE ITEMS on the information table." Thanks go to Leslie Dodge for creating such an attractive piece, and to Rosana Swing and Leslie for making sure we had them printed on time. At the October meeting, packets of 10 postcards were available for members to pick up and begin distributing to their friends. More will be available at future meetings, so start spreading the word so that your friends can mark their calendars.

Most positions on the Quilt Show Committee are filled, but there are a few remaining as shown on the following list. These can be filled by an individual, or shared between a couple of people. We especially encourage our newer members to get involved; it's a great way to meet other members and to feel connected to the guild. And we could always use fresh ideas!

Quilt Show Committee openings:

- Boutique (younger able-bodied person is especially needed)
- Judging
- Site Design and Coordination
- Hanging Co-chair
- Featured Exhibit Coordinator

If you would like to know more about these positions, please contact me (e-mail preferred) for details and job descriptions. There will be plenty of other opportunities to volunteer as we get closer to the show, but it is essential that these positions be filled.

Thanks for your consideration.

From the President's Desk

The busy holiday season is almost upon us. Not only are we all thinking of gifts for those we love, but the deadline for some of our charity projects is rapidly approaching. We had a great turn out for the Community Quilt Sewing Day, and we made some headway with the shopping bags, stockings and placemats that our Community Quilt Quartet is collecting. If you have a few spare minutes in the next two months, please pick up a kit from the Community Quilt table or create your own masterpiece in the form of a stocking or placemat. They are great small projects and can be completed in a short amount of time.

Terrie Sandelin's workshop on Miniatures in Minutes was a lot of fun. The process went pretty rapidly once you made fabric choices. I never thought a miniature would be of interest to me, but I enjoyed learning the process and am very pleased with the result. I will probably put my miniature in a purse rather than a miniature quilt, but the possibilities are endless as she showed us in her talk at the guild meeting.

If you are looking for inspiration for DIY projects, quilt design, recipes, decorating or most anything else and you have access to a computer, check out Pinterest at www.pinterest.com. It is a virtual pinboard. People use this site to "pin" items for future reference. It is easier than bookmarking and it is very inspirational. If you want to sign up for the site, you can "pin" most anything that is on the Internet to your own pinboards for future reference. I have found absolutely beautiful quilts, color palettes, DIY projects and more. The downside is that you can spend too much time looking and pinning. I believe the point is to use the site as inspiration!

Another great source of inspiration on the Internet is the world of quilt blogs. If you have a favorite teacher, it is possible that they have a blog where they talk about their quilting. I found Terrie Sandelin's blog last week after her class. Many of the bloggers have patterns to sell or have tutorials on everything from binding a quilt to making specific projects. Many of them are new to quilting but some are old hands. Once you find a blog you like, you can check out the bloggers that they follow for loads more information and inspiration.

There are so many projects and so little time, but I love the search for inspiration. Who knows, you may find the perfect idea for our 2012 Challenge!

Quilt 'til you wilt,
Irelle

Future Programs

DECEMBER

Coastal Quilters Guild Annual Holiday Party!

JANUARY

Melody Crust, Quilt Toppings: Fun & Fancy Embellishments. Quilters are a notoriously restless group, always seeking new ways to express their creativity. Melody's lecture taps into the strong emerging trend toward embellishment of quilt surfaces. Paint, foil, paint sticks, thread, crayons, buttons, ribbons, and beads are all readily available, fun, easy, and non-messy ways to add that final design element to traditional and non-traditional quilts. For more information, visit: www.melodycrust.com
melodycrust.blogspot.com

January 13 Workshop: Simple Surfaces. Learn all about paint sticks and foiling on fabric. Applying foil or paint sticks to silk or cotton is easy, fun, and permanent. This informative hands-on workshop is for both traditional and non-traditional quilters. Kit fee $33.

FEBRUARY

Ann Turley, Confessions of the Quilt Police. So many quilters just don't understand what happens to their quilt during the judging process. Ann will take us through a mock judging, start to finish, in an effort to demystify the judging arena. You will learn just what it takes to get your quilt the recognition it deserves—great to know with our show in the fall. www.annturley.info

February 10 Workshop: Making Faces. Here is an opportunity to release your collective creative potential by making a small portrait quilt. Spend the day exploring color, texture, distortion, manipulation and embellishment.

Happy Belated Birthday to Connie Feeley, whose birthday was on October 18th. We're sorry we left you out of last month's newsletter!

The Doorway Challenge 2012 Coastal Quilters Challenge

There was a lovely show of hands at the September meeting of those who are planning to participate in this year's challenge. Great! But what about the rest of you? When asked, several of you volunteered that there was just no time and, some ventured to state that they had no idea what to make for the challenge.

Ok...Let's look at the challenge. The theme is a doorway, which can be the door itself, what's outside of, or what's inside of the door. The dimensions are all given to you. You just have to fill the doorway. How simple is that? It may be a realistic or an "arty" piece. Easy.

So, may we suggest a few options each month?
This month: A PANEL.

We all have fallen in love with a panel or two or 12. We get them home and look at them lovingly. Then we start to get practical. What are we going to do with it? We can't bear to cut it up. It's too big (or two small) for a project we had (have) in mind. Now what?

How about using the panel as your challenge quilt? It can be used alone, or it can be enlarged with borders to adhere to the measurement size of the challenge quilt. The divisions in the pattern can be pieced in or appliquéd on by hand or machine. And you can embellish to your heart's content.

Or, perhaps your panel has distinct parts. Look to see if the portions can be used within the various partitions of the door.

How's that for an idea?

Next month we will have a new challenge example of the use of a panel. Come to our table and take a gander. See you then.

— Marty Frolli and Barb Postma, Co-chairs

The Doorway Challenge Requirements

1. The entry must be a quilt of 3 layers and quilted by hand or machine.
2. Entry must hang in the vertical orientation. The perimeter of the quilt is limited to 134" or less.
3. Entry must be readily recognizable as a derivative of the door pattern presented:
  - The quilt may represent a door itself or depict areas within or outside of a door
  - Units and framework may be made larger or smaller. Units within the frames may be added or deleted.
  - Borders may be added, as long as the perimeter does not exceed 134". (Pattern + 2" borders = 134")
4. The door pattern must be used on the front of the quilt.
5. Appliqué and embellishments are encouraged.
6. Only 1 entry per member. A 4" hanging sleeve must be sewn to the back of each entry. Please cover any identifying quilt label. Quilts must be submitted in a labeled pillow case and accompanied by a completed entry form.

In fairness to all participants, only entries that meet the challenge requirements will be accepted. Although we encourage visiting guests at the presentation, voting will be restricted to members only.

Community Quilts Open Sew

The Open Sew on October 22 was stimulating with a room full of energetic guild members. Our time ended with many stockings and placemats in process or completed. Thank you to Carol Fay for setting up and to everyone for coming.

The CQQ are thrilled with your strong support of our charities this year. Self-motivated members have made many of our community quilts not from kits, but perhaps finished an UFO or were otherwise stimulated from their own stash. Patterns and instructions are easy to print from the guild website, look under Community. These surprise quilts have increased our inventory immensely. Kits are also being signed out in good number.

Christmas stockings are priority #1, due at the December Meeting. We have 23 completed stockings.

Our first delivery of Holiday stockings, baby quilts and lined shopping bags will be in December. Saint Vincent's, one of our recipients, will have a representative attending the December meeting to receive their first donation. The CQQ will also deliver Christmas stockings and baby quilts to T.A.P.P., part of the Community Action Commission. Unity Shop too will benefit from your generosity. The stockings make up quickly, are adorable, and will cheer so many families. If you haven't chosen a kit yet, there is still time to sign one out at November's meeting.

CQQ's presentation of kits will vary monthly as various goals are emphasized. We have collected many placemats for Food From the Heart. Our goal of 200 is due at the February meeting to be delivered Valentine's week. Placemats will continue to be available in kits for CAC, without the appliquéd heart, for a later disbursement. Pillowcases, baby, kid and adult kits will be needed through out the year.

Donations of fabric and orphan blocks are much appreciated. If you take a kit and want to substitute another fabric instead of those provided, go ahead. We use the guild's fabric stash to meet our needs when assembling kits. Please return any kit scraps of 1/4 yard or more, instruction sheets and the Ziploc kit bag. We will try to recycle them for later kits. Thank you.

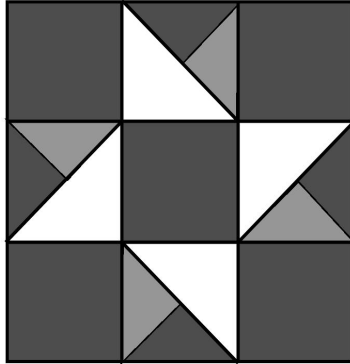

Remember to e-mail one of the CQQ ahead of time if you would like some fabric for borders, backing or batting ready for you at guild meetings. Give us color, theme and size information, so we can better accommodate your needs.

— CQQ: Carol Hart, Edalee Keehe, Barbara MacCallum, Nancy Miller

Block of the Month for December

KEEP IT SCRAPPY: STARRY HOLIDAY SKY

December skies on a clear night in Santa Barbara are often the most beautiful of the year, setting the perfect scene for our holiday celebrations. Since this is such a busy time of year, we have planned a simple block of squares, triangles and quarter-square triangles. To make it even easier you will only need two scrap fabrics and one background fabric! Have fun creating blocks for this starry, starry night quilt. Hope you win!

FABRIC:

Background: One dark blue fabric

Scraps: You will need one scrap in light yellow or gold

Scraps: You will need one scrap in darker yellow or gold

CUTTING:

From background fabric: Cut 5 squares 4 1/2" and 1 square 5 1/4"

From light scraps: Cut 2 squares 4 7/8"

From darker scraps: Cut 1 square 5 1/4"

ASSEMBLY:

Draw a diagonal line on the wrong side of the 4 7/8" light scrap squares. Cut apart on the diagonal lines to form 4 triangles.

Draw 2 diagonal lines on the back of the 5 1/4" squares (looks like an X) Cut apart on the lines. You should now have 4 small blue and 4 small scrap triangles. Stitch one scrap triangle to each background blue triangle on a short side. Press. Sew each pair of small triangles to the long side of a light scrap triangle, forming 4 1/2" squares. Press and trim to 4 1/2".

Lay out the squares as shown in the diagram and piece together. Press. Your block should now be 12 1/2" square.

If you have any questions or problems, please ask us.

- Knotty Threads
