Volume 29, No.11

May 2018

May Speaker: Velda Newman

Excitement is building for the May 10 Guild meeting and Velda Newman's presentation, "A Painter's Approach to Quilt Design." For a preview of Velda's outstanding large-scale quilts, check out her website: veldanewman.com (Keep trying: links to the first three "gallery" photos are broken, but the others work.) Velda, a contemporary fiber artist, will conduct the workshop entitled Texture & Form on Friday, May 11. Her workshop focuses on a machine-stitching technique to eliminate the "flat" look and make fabric very interesting, whether for quilts or clothing. Contact: franciesspot@cox.net to sign up.

June Speaker: Becky McDaniel

At the June 14 Guild meeting, Becky McDaniel will share her "Appliqué Journey" and entertain us with a trunk show of beautiful appliquéd quilts, and on June 15, she'll hold a workshop on "The Orange Peel Pillow" at the GVCC, 9am-3pm. During the workshop, she will teach us a machine appliquéd foundation method that puffs and causes the stitches to disappear when washed. The "Orange Peel Pillow" kit will be available and the quick project should easily be completed in the workshop. Email franciesspot@cox.net to sign up.

Carole Kennedy, Speaker Liaison

Membership News — Time to Renew your Guild Membership

Guild membership runs from July through June so now is the time to renew! Membership forms are available at the check-in desk at Guild meetings or can be downloaded from our website under "Our Guild/ Membership" here: coastalquilters.org/membership.

Annual Dues are $40; optional: mailing newsletter $15; mailing directory $2. The Harvest of Colors Quilt Show will be our main fundraiser this year. We do not anticipate needing additional donations, but they are always welcome and will be put to good use. Guild membership brings many rewarding benefits. We look forward to seeing your name on the renewal list.

Annette Goena, Membership Chair

Challenge 2018

Thanks go to all participants in the 2018 Challenge, Musical Memories - A Song From My High School Years.

Grand prize: Linda Estrada, "To Sir with Love"
Other winners:

Diana Hamilton, "Tie A Yellow Ribbon 'Round the Ole Oak Tree":

Patti Hunter, "Yellow Submarine":

Julie Mock, "R-E-S-P-E-C-T"

This year's entries were absolutely outstanding, as wonderful and varied as their songs and quilters. We hope you enjoyed the theme, and that it brought back great memories.

President's Message

My head tells me to go outside and enjoy the sun, but all the fabric online stores are showing us new fabrics for fall and Christmas. What is a "girl" supposed to think? The quilt show is moving closer and closer and still I don't have a finished quilt to enter. I have lots of ideas but none are drawn out, and the warm of the sun is beckoning me outside.

I guess I had better focus. Focus, focus, focus. I want to be able to show my family something in the show. I want them to see how much I have progressed since that first show I entered. What about you? All your hard work, the classes you have attended, the fabric you bought. Don't you have something to enter? Wouldn't your family and friends be proud to see your accomplishment in the 2018 show? We are celebrating 30 years of the Coastal Quilt Guild; wouldn't you like to be part of it?

Please let me know how I can help. (alshaven@aol.com) Do you need a sewing partner? Do you need a place to sew? Do you need some guidance in finishing your project? Whatever the issue we can find a solution together. It would be nice to see a quilt/quilted clothing from every member of the guild in this show.

Linda Boynton de Sepulveda, President

HOC: Quilt Show Raffle News

We are organizing baskets filled with treasures, including several from our satellite groups. We have a few mini-quilt stands to raffle, and need some quilters to make mini-quilts, no bigger than 10" X 10", to go with them.

Find a free pattern on the 'net ("mini-quilts" or "mug rugs") or make a favorite block.

Another way to help is by asking shops, restaurants, hair stylists, manicurists, etc. to donate a gift certificate—it's tax deductible and free advertising, so a real win-win for all! In addition to the baskets, we have a beautiful Singer Featherweight to raffle.

Bring donations and buy tickets at the May meeting—we'll be near the library! Thank you soooo much.

Challenge 2018 (Continued from page 1)

Profound thanks go to Roxanne's and Creation Station who made it possible to reward the winners' hard work and creativity.

Thanks too, to Grant House for hosting the display of 21 quilts to a wider audience. He is grateful to have such creativity on display and would like them for at least two months — but quilters may pick up their pieces whenever they wish.

We also want to thank the voters who selected our very deserving winners listed below. Each received a $50 gift certificate from Roxanne's or Creation Station; Grand Prize also included a Guild workshop certificate. "Thanks for the memories...."

Harvest of Colors: Quilt Show NEWS

Quilt show planning continues; members who would like to help with planning are welcome to attend our meetings. The next meeting will be at 5:30 before the May Guild meeting.

Our quilt show this year celebrates our 30th Anniversary. Part of that celebration will focus on Community Quilts and our many contributions to our community. We are planning a large exhibit highlighting some of the non-profit organizations that we have contributed to over the years. If you serve on a board or have a close contact with one of the many non-profits we have served in the past, please contact me. We plan to invite a number of these non-profits to speak at the show, to discuss their work in the community and how our contributions have helped. By inviting these non-profits to participate, we hope to utilize their newsletters and memberships lists to generate more attendance at the show.

Our Featured Artist this year will be Freddy Moran. She will be an exciting addition to our show. Freddy is an award-winning quilt maker, artist and author.

The Blockheads satellite group are heading our Boutique this year and are seeking sign-ups for participants. Please see Isabel Downs or another Blockhead to sign up.

Nancy Butterfield is our volunteer coordinator. Thanks to Nancy for signing up for this position. Nancy will have a table for signups for volunteer positions starting at our May meeting. Please be generous with your time as the show needs you.

This show is a Member's Showcase and we would like ALL of our members to participate. I hope you are all busy quilting those beautiful show quilts!

If you have any questions, comments or suggestions, please let me know: 805-569-3930; irellebeatie@cox.net. This is the GUILD show and we want to make it the best ever so your input is always appreciated.

Irelle Beatie, Harvest of Colors (HOC) Chair

Harvest of Colors: Quilts to Be Judged

The Judging Committee would like to encourage you to submit your quilt(s) to be judged in the Quilt Show. This is a great opportunity to receive an unbiased written evaluation of your quilt(s). The judge will give you positive comments as well as one or two suggestions for improvement. Your critique will be completely confidential and you will receive your written evaluation after the show on Sunday.

We are happy to have Andi Perejda as our judge this year. Andi is a long-time quilter, quilt teacher and a NQA certified quilt judge. Soon judging forms will be available on our website. There will be limits of two judged quilts per person and a total of 80 judged quilts. To have pieces judged:

- complete our judging form
- attach a 4x6" photo of each piece
- cover the quilt label with a piece of cloth
- pay a $15.00 fee for each quilt to be judged
- choose a category for your quilt: traditional, modern, art or innovative/contemporary (category definitions will be on the back of the form)

We would also like to encourage you to help us on Judge day, Monday September 10. Sign-ups will be coming soon. Questions? Please contact any member of the Judging Committee: Patty Six, Pam Holst, Patti Hunter or Darilyn Kisch.

Patty Six, HOC Judging Committee

HOC: Education Table News

For the Quilt Show, the Education Table is doing Tips & Triangles. For the Tips portion: big thanks to Kristin Otte, Kika Hutchings, Diana Hamilton, Irelle Beatie, Mary Maxwell, Pat Masterson and Pamela Holst for offering to share quilting tips. We still need a few more people to share 15 minutes' worth of a tip - could be big, could be small - during the show. Do you have a tip or technique you really enjoy doing? A shortcut, a nifty gadget, or a special way of doing something that you'd like to talk about or demo? If so, please let Ranell Hansen (805/637-4706) or Susan Katz (310/926-5116) know.

For the Triangles portion, we need donations of 6" squares in purple, blue, green, and white solids. Please bring them to the Guild meeting. Later, we will have a workshop to turn these into half-square triangles. Details to follow! Thanks for your help and support!

Ranell Hansen & Susan Katz, HOC Education Table

Policy on Publicity in Guild Media

(as approved by Guild Board on April 19, 2018)

1. This policy applies to all Guild Media, including announcements at Guild meetings, social media (i.e., eblasts, Facebook, etc.), website and Coastlines newsletter.
2. All use of Guild Media is subject to space, time and content requirements as established by the Guild Board, its committees and media managers.
3. Persons or groups who seek publicity in Guild Media should contact, in a single email and as applicable, all media manager(s) responsible: President (Guild meeting announcements); Public Relations Coordinator (social media); Webmaster (website) and Coastlines Editor (newsletter).
4. Individual activities: current Guild members may promote their individual, non-group-related, not-for-profit activities supporting the art and craft of quilting in all Guild Media.
5. Business (for-profit) activities: current members may list classes or services under a listing in the Coastlines' Quilter's Resources section and have a link on the Guild website to a business webpage; current individual members may also list occasional sales of quilting-related items in that section.
6. Group activities (see also paragraph 7 below):
  - a. Any Guild satellite group may promote its activities in all Guild Media, including but not limited to articles in the Newsletter. To constitute a Guild satellite group, all members must be current Guild members.
  - b. A group other than a Guild satellite group may promote its events supporting the art and craft of quilting with a listing in Coastlines in the Events Around California section and elsewhere as subject to the discretion of media managers as set forth in paragraph 7 below.
  - c. A request by a Guild member for promotion of any group activity in Guild Media will be handled as a request by the group, based on whether the group is a Guild satellite.
  - d. A group using Guild Media to promote events where non-Guild members will be present is encouraged to accept and distribute/display Guild literature, such as bookmarks and postcards, to promote awareness of the Guild.
7. Discretion of Media Managers
  - a. The manager of each Guild medium (President, Newsletter Editor, Webmaster and Public Relations Coordinator) has discretion to determine if requested publicity is relevant to the membership; the Guild President will be consulted if questions arise.
  - b. The Public Relations Coordinator has discretion over the issuance and timing of social media. Approved event information may be sent to the Guild's Promotion List (members who have agreed to receive such information) or posted in other social media.
  - c. The Webmaster may include on the Guild website, at her discretion, links to flyers or information about events that are related to the art and craft of quilting and sponsored by non-member organizations, in addition to those sponsored by individual Guild members and Guild satellite groups.
  - d. The Coastlines Editor may include in the Events Around California section of Coastlines, at her discretion, information about events related to the art and craft of quilting and sponsored by non-member organizations such as guilds, museums and quilt show organizers (e.g., Road to California, PIQF), in addition to events sponsored by individual Guild members and satellite groups.

HOC: Boutique

If you are interested in selling items in the HOC Boutique, please notify Isabel Downs (ifdowns@gmail.com) to have your name put on the list. You will be kept up to date about expectations.

Isabel Downs, HOC Boutique

Door Prizes

Winners for April were:

- #1 - Heather Georgakis
- #2 - Melissa Frolli
- #3 - Christine Allen

The Door Prize Committee has served for two years and is ready to pursue other interests, so we are asking Guild members to consider volunteering for this committee. It is not difficult – it is fun and rewarding to see the happy faces of members as they purchase tickets and even happier faces of those who win the baskets. There are a variety of ways that this committee can be organized, and Elizabeth will gladly offer ideas and assistance.

Elizabeth Jenquin, Linda Kriss, Diane Moore, Door Prize Committee

Library News

The library database has been updated, by Carolyn Rory and Carol Hart, to reflect recent additions and new subject headings. Please browse our extensive collection, found through the Guild's website at <http://www.coastalquilters.org/library.html>. On the tool bar, select Our Guild, next Library, then library again. You may search books by Subject, Author or Title.

You are welcome to suggest new books for purchase. Just let me know by email or at guild meetings. Happy reading, happy quilting.

Carol Hart, Librarian

Steps to the Altar
12" Finished Block

June 2018
Coastal Quilters Guild
Block of the Month

Cutting

White or white on white print:

1 strip 2-1/2" wide x 18".

Three 5-1/4" squares.

Bright yellow:

Two 5-1/4" squares.

Medium blue:

1 strip 2-1/2" wide x 18".

One 5-1/4" square.

Assembly

1. Draw a line corner to corner on the 3 white squares. This is the cutting line. Draw a line 1/4" from the cutting line and on each side of the cutting line. These are the sewing lines. Pin white squares and yellow and blue squares right sides together. Stitch on the two sewing lines. Cut on the cutting line. Press seam to the yellow or blue. Trim units to 4-1/2".

2. Sew the white strip to the medium blue strip. Press seam to blue. Sewn strips should measure 4-1/2" across. Cut into six 2-1/2" units. Sew units together to make 4 patch units. Units should measure 4-1/2".

3. Arrange triangle and 4 patch units to make the Steps to the Altar block. Sew units into rows. Sew rows together. Note pressing arrows. Block should measure 12-1/2".

*Bring your block to the June CQG meeting.
