

5/8/96 Coastal Quilters Guild, Inc., Monthly Meeting

1. Judy Gorrindo opened the meeting at 7:30 pm for Maggie Godwin.
2. Kristin Otte introduced 12 guests and 4 new members.
3. Susie Carter spoke about the difficulties of parking over the next several months as the Samarkand remodels.
4. Sue Scholl spoke about the library and said many overdue books were returning.
5. Jan Inouye reminded members of the Wearable Art Challenge in October. Noelle Olson will have a wearable art workshop for the guild on Saturday, August 17th.
6. Marty Frolli described the summer courses for the adult ed. program.
7. Judy said that the guild has a new web page set up by Pat Yamada. The URL is <http://www.west.net/nonprof/quilt/>
8. Barbara Maxwell described her trip to the AQS show in Paducah. The Santa Barbara received 3rd place in Applique.
9. Judy said that the speaker in July will be Bev Stucky from San Francisco. The August workshop will be fabric dyeing at Oak Park.
10. Diane Eardley spoke about the community quilts made for Sarah House. Two quilts have been delivered, and 5 more were received at this evenings meeting.
11. Judy Matheson gave a lecture on "New Directions in Contemporary Quilts from Traditional Designs.
12. Judy acknowledged winners at the Santa Barbara County Fair in April.
13. 41 Amish baskets were won by Michelle Peerson.
14. 10 people had show and tell.

Respectfully submitted,

Diane Eardley

Diane Eardley, Recording Secretary