

COASTAL QUILTER'S GUILD

General Meeting August 13, 1997

The meeting was called to order at the Samarkand Community Center at 7:30 P.M. by Vice President Diane Eardley. She requested members check their names off on the roster sheet so a more accurate count may be kept of attendance. The date of the next Board meeting will be September 3 when President Nora McMeeking will have returned from her trip.

MEMBERSHIP - Jan Inouye welcomed 2 new members and 11 guests. 110 members were present.

ANNOUNCEMENTS - A reminder was made that Guild meetings will begin at 7:00 P.M. starting in September. The UCSB Art Museum is in need of empty thread spools for children's projects. They can be turned in at "Blue Island Quilts".

It was moved by Kristen Otte and seconded by Anne Braddock that $300 be appropriated for prizes to be awarded for the Challenge Quilts. Passed by the membership.

SHOW REPORT Betty Kelley encouraged participation in the planning. Judith Nybakken will organize volunteers at the show. Next Meeting will be at Samarkand at 7:00 PM.

ADULT ED CLASSES - will begin September 8. Maggie Godwin and Melody Bollay spoke briefly of their classes.

PROGRAM - Diane Eardley asked that those members who might have projects completed with Beverly Soderlund when she was in Santa Barbara should bring them to the September meeting as a special "Show and Tell" when she will be our presenter.

Caryl Bryer Fallert was then introduced as our featured speaker.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH was won by Tracy Hilden Cope.

DOOR PRIZES were drawn.

The meeting was closed at 9:40 P.M..

Respectfully submitted,

Betty Kelley
