Doris Floyd gave an interesting talk on charm quilts as well as a display of miniature and full sized quilts. Information about the charm exchange at the May meeting was handed out. 45 members will be participating. The Cotton Gallery has templates and 6" squares available.

OPPORTUNITY QUILT

The lovely new opportunity quilt, "Hidden Wells" was on display and tickets were passed out to members. Tickets are available from Harriet Berk and Denice Clark.

MAY MEETING will be our Round-Up of Skills. We will be offering the following the following demonstrations by our members :

- "Points & Cleavages" or Hand Applique by Zetta Hanna

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS

Two workshops to sharpen your quilt skills are offered to guild members in June and July. This is an opportunity to take workshops by noted teachers at a convenient location and reasonable price.

Margaret J. Miller will be returning from speaking at Visions, San Diego. She will be teaching a workshop on block manipulation "Reach for the Unexpected", Wed. June 13. Fee is $ 25. Those who signed up for the workshop, please pick up your supply list attached to the sign-up clipboard at tonight's meeting.

In July, Sharyn Craig will be giving her ever popular "Terrific Triangles" design and fabric selection workshop on Wed. July 11.

Both workshops will be held 9-3:30 at the Goleta Community Center in room 17. Contact Jan Inouye - 962-3498.

JUNE MEETING

Our June meeting will be our guest lecturer, Margaret Miller, formerly of San Diego and presently of Seattle. Her lecture is called "CALICO, CONFIDENCE AND CORNFLOWER BLUE" and will cover the topic color in your quilts. Regardless of how many or how few quilts you've completed or dreamed about, you're bound to get a nudge down the road toward greater proficiency in coloring your quilts by coming to hear Margaret.

TO MAKE OURSELVES PERFECTLY CLEAR....

To clarify any confusion regarding the various meetings that involve the May 1991 event with the SB Natural History Museum, there are two committee groups that meet approximately once a month and will henceforth be referred to as the following:

HINT #2

Reynolds freezer wrap is being discontinued by the manufacturer. If you use it for applique, now is the time to buy it if you can find it.

News on the Museum Quilt

The Drawings are in, the Design is roughed out, now the FUN begins . . .

(The Guild is making a 75th anniversary quilt which we will present to the Museum of Natural History in January 1991 and which will be displayed at the Museum and become part of its permanent collection. Drawings for the quilt were submitted by members of the community. We got 124 drawings.)

Interested members of the Guild met at the Museum on April 24 for a design brainstorming workshop with the block drawings chosen by Museum League president, Jackie Lunianski; Exhibits Curator, Norman Ikeda; and League representative, Jan Inouye. The group came up with a concept for the quilt that includes a diamond (75th anniversary symbol) comprised of 16 blocks on point with corner "habitat" motifs that include a tidepool, night sky, wildflower field, and either the rattlesnake exhibit or the paleontology hall. Human "participants" in silhouette will be part of each corner, reaching into the quilt. Chumash basket designs will be incorporated into the pieced borders and quilting motifs will be inspired by the remaining block drawings.

The brainstorming session was fun for everyone there and, as Jan said it would, the quilt "told" us what to do.

We also decided that a submitted design based on the arches and pillars of the Museum entrance was deserving of being made into a "prelude" to the commemorative quilt—that is, a "frame" to hang several feet in front of the quilt.

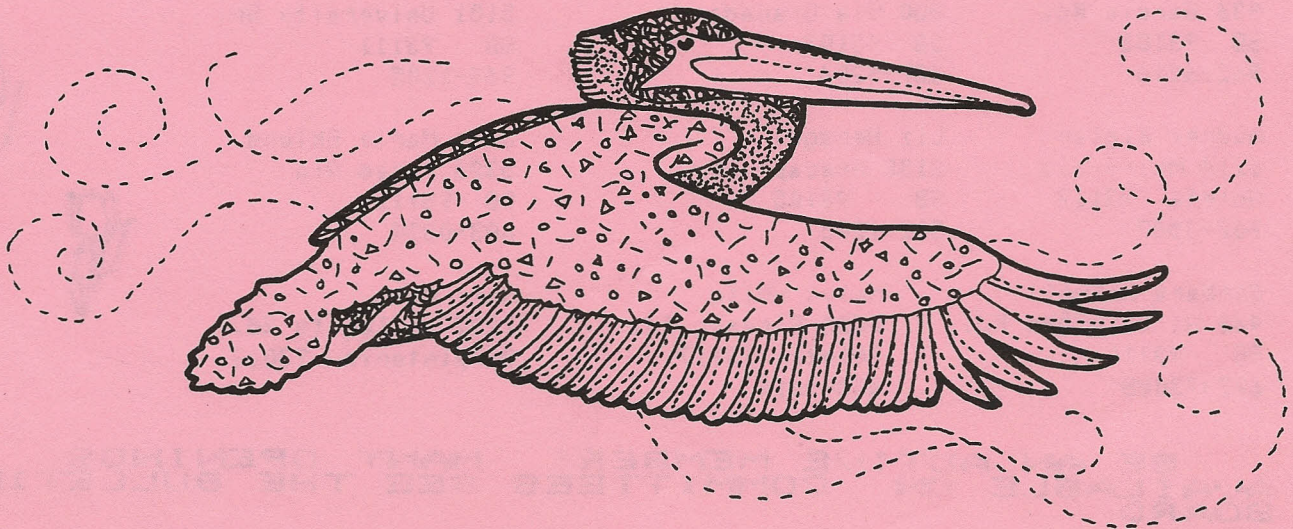

The commemorative quilt committee is asking Guild members to nominate quilters to make the individual blocks and corners of the quilt. If YOU would like to make a block, you can nominate yourself. A roster of Guild members will be available at this meeting for nominations. A telephone committee, headed by Melody Bollay (967-1515, she needs helpers) will then contact the quilters to attend a meeting where the work will be divided up amongst the group participating.

Even if you hate applique, there is a way for you to be involved. Patterns need to be made, strip piecing done, setting together—not to mention basting, quilting design, and quilting! It would really be great if everyone in the Guild managed to add their touch to this quilt.

Because of the timing of meetings, availability of working space and so on, it is not always possible to list our meeting times in the newsletter, so if you are interested in working on this project, it is important for you to take the initiative and contact either Norah (962-8511) or Jan (962-3498). The same goes if you do not regularly attend Guild meetings. We both have answering machines and are very willing to answer questions and to have all interested Guild members get involved. Don't be shy.

If you would like to be involved in our second project, "Natural Impressions: Quilts at the Museum of Natural History," our guild's quilt show, you are invited to attend the next steering committee meeting, May 17, 7:30 p.m. at the home of Liz Steele, 414 Camino Laguna Vista, Goleta.. Please let Norah (963-8511), Jan (962-3498), or Liz (967-1490) know if you are planning to come. Everyone is welcome!
