Newsletter of the Coastal Quilters Guild
P.O. Box 6341, Santa Barbara, CA 93160

August 8, 1990

The Coastal Quilters want to welcome everyone here tonight to enjoy Mary Ellen Hopkins and to join us in our monthly meeting. We hope that you will return and perhaps join our guild and participate in our many activities.

Information about membership is at the hospitality table or on the last page of this newsletter.

FROM LAST MEETING

"WHAT IF ... A STIMULATION TO CREATIVITY" - Sharon Craig had some wonderful ideas to stretch our thinking about traditional approaches to pattern to make them our originals.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH - A patriotic red, white and blue President's Star collection was won by Suzy Carter. Maggie Godwin challenged us for August to use some summer symbol to create an "Applique of Summer". More of us need to give Harriet Berk and Suzy some competition winning the blocks by participating in this fun monthly mini-lesson!

COMMUNITY PROJECT QUILTS

Quilts have been steadily coming in for our community project, the Women's Shelter. We will have our presentation at the December meeting. Contact Marge Hall, project chair - 968-1487 for information.

GOLETA VALLEY DAYS - The committee to organize the quilt show (Saturday, October 20th) at the Goleta Valley Days celebration will be meeting briefly this evening. If you are interested, please see Rebecca Mealey tonight or call 966-1429. Sign-ups for docents and help hanging the quilts will be at the next meeting.

DONATIONS - THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!!

Through the generosity of guild members, the guild's $100 donation was matched by a collection of $100 for a total of $200 which was sent to the Council of Christmas Cheer to aid victims of the Painted Cave fire. In addition, a donation of $100 was made to the Goleta Public Library for use of the meeting room.

CHRISTMAS ANGEL QUILT

Would you like to participate in making the December door prize? We still have some squares left that need applique angels. Contact Judy Gorrindo (library chairperson) after the meeting or call her at home - 682-6592.

ANIMAL CRACKERS TO REMIND US... that the nature challenge will soon be due.

Those finished by the October meeting will automatically be included in the Natural Impressions show next May.

CHECK IT OUT

Have you ever tried to machine quilt and was unhappy with the result? Thanks to Zetta Hanna's generous donation, our quilt guild has a new book called BEGINNER'S GUIDE TO MACHINE QUILTING by Judy Tryrell. This will help all us novices become better machine quilters.

We will have some new additions to the CQ's Library: Japanese Quilts by Jill Liddell & Yuko Watanabe and Wearable Art for Real People by Mary Mashuta. We also have a VHS video: Palettes for Patchwork by Ginny Beyer.

Come check it out!

August 8, 1990 MUSEUM SHOW & QUILT UPDATE The museum quilt just continues to grow more wonderful with squares as varied and intricate as nature. Be sure to take a peek and better yet, get involved in this great project by attending the next special meeting September 19th at Jan Inouye's.

COASTAL QUILTERS GUILD

of Santa Barbara and Goleta
MEETING SCHEDULE

The Coastal Quilters Guild welcomes quilters and quilt-lovers, novice and advanced. The Guild has a meeting the second Wednesday of every month at 7:30 pm. The programs include: guest speakers, current events, Block of the Month, Show and Tell, door prize, refreshments and more! Guild membership is $15 yearly. Guest donation for meetings is $3.

SEPTEMBER 12, 1990, 7:30 pm. at the Goleta Public Library, 500 N. Fairview Ave.

Our speaker VICKI L. JOHNSON is a quilter and college teacher from northern California. Her current emphasis is on quilts which use the California coast as inspiration and has integrated painted and pieced fabric surfaces. She will show slides of her quilts in which she uses her personal landscape environment as inspiration. In a series of steps, the development of one quilt will be shown so you can see how the painting builds and the piecing and applique are integrated.

OCTOBER 10, 1990, 7:30 pm. at the Goleta Public Library, 500 N. Fairview Ave.

Presentation of quilts made by members who choose to participate in the nature themed challenge. Participants have been working on these quilts since the beginning of the year and this will be the first viewing. They will be exhibited for the public at an exhibit May 3, 4 & 5, 1991 at the Santa Barbara Natural History Museum.

NOVEMBER 14, 1990, 7:30 pm. in the auditorium at General Research Corporation, 5383 Hollister Avenue, next to Goleta Valley Hospital.

Our speaker will be Rosalind Perry, member of our guild, who is the granddaughter of Marie Webster. Mrs. Webster was a quilt designer, maker, entrepreneur, researcher and author during the 20th century. Her book, QUILTS, THEIR STORY AND HOW TO MAKE THEM, has long been out of print, but recently Rosalind undertook the job of republishing the book with new updates. Rosalind will share stories about her famous grandmother as well as show some of her quilts. PLUS we will have the first opportunity to purchase the new book "hot-off-the-press".

DECEMBER 14, 1990, 7:30 pm. at the Goleta Public Library, 500 N. Fairview Ave.

Christmas party of delights and surprises especially for quilters. In addition the quilts made by members to be donated to the Battered Women's Shelter will be displayed and presented to that organization.
