December 1992

This Month -- Get Acquainted with that Quilter Sitting Next to You!

Tonight is an opportunity for holiday fun and socializing. Merriment is on tap with a slide show we can all relate to -- what quilting has done to our lives. VP Norah has devised the ultimate fabric exchange, and Rosalind Perry and Marti Froli are here to sign and sell their beautiful and useful book on Marie Webster.

Next Month -- Who doesn't have scraps at home?

Beverly Dunivent will be speaking on the history of scrap quilts. Make a New Year's resolution to use up those scraps and attend this meeting to see how quilters of yesteryear have used their left over fabric. Anyone who has ever sighed over an old quilt and wondered just how "they got that look" will enjoy Beverly's talk.

Scrap Quilt workshop with Beverly Dunivent: See Jan Inouye and get a supply list at the same time.

There are photographs included to help you gather your scraps. The workshop will take place from 9 am to 3 pm on Thursday, January 14. Cost: $25

Distortions: An Election Year Challenge Now History

The race has been run and the votes have been tallied in the 1992 Coastal Quilters Election Year Challenge. Twenty two quilts were "on the ballot" at our November meeting. Even those of you who were not "elected" should be proud to have made the choices so difficult. Prizes were generously donated by Betty's Fabrics, Beverly Fabrics, Fabric Depot and Grant House

Viewers Choice:

Carol Boyce "Breaking the Rules"

Zetta Hanna "Serene Solitude"

Linda Estrada "Waiting for Coyote"

Quilting Award:

Zetta Hanna "Serene Solitude"

Linda Estrada "Waiting for Coyote"

Darlene Skog

Theme Award:

Doris Floyd "Politics and Politicians = Distortions"

Susan Cochran "Monthly Distortions"

Challenge cont.

Other candidates in the closely run race were: Barbara Maxwell, Anne Braddock, Ruth Walters, Rob and Eve Gill, Claire Hemke, Jan Inouye, Norah McMeeking, Carol Ludwig, Harriet Berk, Marti Frolli, and Judy Gorrindo.

The quilts have been photographed for submission to "Quilters Newsletter." Please call Norah, 962-8511, and arrange to pick up your quilt if you haven't already.

Hurray for the Opportunity! Mr. and Mrs. Jose Hernandez were excited to win the Opportunity Quilt that has "the perfect colors to go with their house." As a matter of fact, Jose was waiting in anticipation outside to receive the quilt. They bought their ticket at the Lemon Festival. Thanks again to everybody who helped make this fund raiser a success.

The Big Yellow Quilt is Coming!

Suzu Carter is donating an antique Basket Pattern Quilt Top with wonderful old timey prints and knock-out yellow sashing. This quilt top is both Big and Very Charming. What should the Guild do with this treasure? Raffle? Keep it for the Guild to show? Would you be interested in helping turn this pretty top into a real quilt? Call Carol Boyce, our past prez, if this project interests you, 685-5882

What A Group!

A few positions in the Guild still need to be filled for 1993. Much needed is a membership chair (Accurate & excellent Carol Ludwick has done it for 3 years now!), some phone callers, and a Chair to oversee Guild activities at Stow House, Goleta Valley Days, and Brinkerhoff. What suits your personality? Give Zetta a call, 967-3296, and be a part of the action!

Board Members who scurry around to make Guild Meetings HAPPEN, happen to often find themselves without seat! So from now on, the first few rows on the piano side of the room will be set aside for these busy beavers.

Calendar

Every Tuesday -- 9 am to noon, bring yourself and your sewing to BEVERLY FABRICS, GOLETA, for a pleasant morning with friends, newcomers welcome.

Satellite Groups -- Would you like to join, or start a group of friends who like to sew together? Jane Manasse coordinates these groups. Giver her a call soon. Her number is 687-0301

Mary has very generously donated at lot of time and professional brain work to the Guild. Mary and Laura Alarid, our Treasurer have been wending their way though a maze of state and federal forms to incorporate the Guild. Big Thanks to you two who would probably rather been Quilting! Your names will go down in Guild History.

Whether it represents your happiness over Mr. Clinton heading for Washington, or your wish for him to go back home, it's a fun block that will make a beautiful quilt!

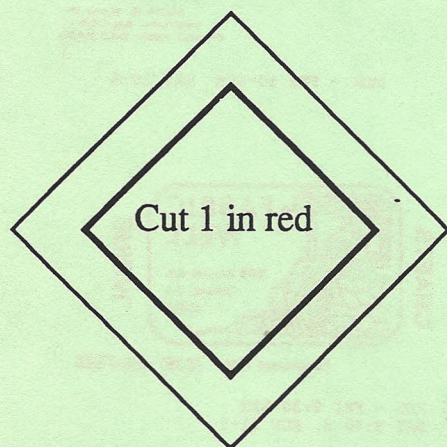

The block you'll make

- * Make the block in the Christmas reds, greens, and whites you couldn't resist buying!
- * Final block is 6" x 6" without seam allowances.
- * 1/4" seam allowances throughout.
- * Since you're only making a fourth of the block you should be able to make a handful, so we'll get a nice "scrappy" look to the final quilt.
- * Welcome to Maggie as the new B.O.M-er! Have fun, Maggie, I sure did!

Dear Mrs. Maxwell:

Thank you so very much for the beautiful handmade quilts for our babies. They have brought such joy to the staff and parents and beauty to our center. You have helped us create the homelike atmosphere that we strive for here as our little ones sleep contentedly under the warmth of the quilts, and also the love that was sewn into each of them.

We are all impressed with the generous way you use your talents to reach out to the community. We feel blessed that we were included.

Thank you again,

Karen Claydon

Marge We love you!

Thank you Marge Hall and Guild Members for a bumper crop of community quilts. And Marge, we thought that the presentation of the quilts at the meeting was super!

Dear Quilter Friends,
On behalf of Villa Majella, thanks to each and every one of you for your labor of love represented in the beautiful quilts presented to our women.

The hand made quilts are treasured
gifts for the mothers and their babies.

Bless you for caring and providing.

With Appreciation,
Carole Bown

It was real close to Christmas, and all through the Night
Sewers were stitching, weary muscles were tight.
Projects unfinished, tears on the brink,
When Elves from Santa appeared in a wink
With a few simple stretches, easy and fun
Quilters kept going -- AND THE PRESENTS GOT DONE !

Try to put your ear on your shoulder!
Don't raise your shoulder. This will stretch your neck muscle on the other side.

Arms up, grasp elbows and bend to the side. Hold for 30 seconds and bend to other side.
