November Program

On the 13th we will have a lecture by Lyn Mann entitled "When Life Gives you Scraps." You guessed it...it's about scrap quilts with emphasis on color, value and texture. She's driving in from So. Calif. and promises to bring many quilts to share with us. She has been featured in many books, magazines and has been featured on the TV show Simply Quilts in 2002. Check out her website at: www.quiltsbylyn.com. The next day her workshop will be "No Such Thing As An Ugly Fabric." We will learn how to make any fabric great depending on what we put with it. For this workshop bring squares of ugly or hard to use fabric to share and also a large variety of scraps and fabric. Please see the Supply List when you sign up for her workshop.

Boutique Report

Our sales of 532 items/sets to about 220 customers was $6,353.25 of which $1,609.19 goes to the Guild. A hearty THANK YOU to the 27 participants: the Loose Threads for the tote bags, Susan West, Marilyn Kisch and Liz Turner for your boutique donations and to all who bought our handmade goods.

Harvest of Colors Raffle Prizes

The winners were:

Ingrid Steele

Baby Lock Sewing Machine, donated by Mr. Baron of Baron's Fabrics

Jerry Yearego

The Santa Barbara Quilting Retreat Basket, donated by Cathe Hedrick

Norah McMeeking

The Basket Extravaganza for Quilters

A Big Thanks to all the vendors who made our raffle such a success.

We had wonderful participation by our local vendors, Baron's sewing machine was a great draw, and the bright red basket from the SB Quilting Retreat couldn't be missed as people passed by the table. Grant House donated so many rulers for the Guild raffle basket it took on a life of it's own with points sticking out everywhere! Craft Essentials added fabric, the Treasure Hunt a book to help with using the fabric, and Quilt Ventura a bendable light to illuminate the sewing process! In addition, thanks to Sue Kadner for all the letter writing to vendors across the U.S. who sent so many wonderful items which ended up in the basket. And finally, a round of applause to all the volunteers who sold the tickets, collected the money, and smiled every time someone came up with a $20 bill and asked for 1 ticket!

What's in Your Garage?

The Board is searching for all items belonging to the guild. If you have been storing guild property (ie, quilt stands, photo albums, show hardware), please contact the inventory committee. Even if the item is something you use each month (ie, Opportunity Quilt quilt stand), please let us know that you have it.

This new ad hoc committee of two has been tasked with locating, tagging, documenting, tracking and storing all guild inventory. Please contact them by December so that they can prepare for a year-end inventory of Guild property.

Do You EQ?

I would like to get together with quilters interested in learning how to become "power users" of this exciting software. If you have EQ and just don't know where to start, let's learn together. OR, if you are already familiar with EQ and are interested in sharing your knowledge, call me!

From Darilyn's Desk:

While there is no doubt that many individuals deserve a huge thanks for producing a great quilt show this year, I would also like to acknowledge all of you – members who submitted your incredible quilts for display. The variety of colors, styles, and techniques along with the beautiful workmanship proved once again to all that we are very fortunate to have such enormous talent and creativity within our guild. Throughout the show, I heard nothing but praise from those in attendance. You should all be so proud! I know I am and I can hardly wait to see what you come up with in 2010.

On another note, are you aware that we have 21 new members since July? Try as I might, there just doesn't seem to be enough time during the hustle and bustle of our monthly meetings to talk with each new member – let alone get to know them! Therefore, I have invited these new members to a Welcome Coffee – a chance for me to meet each of them and for them to meet each other, to ask questions, and learn about our guild's history, current activities, and future goals.

I also would like to invite and encourage all members to help me welcome these newcomers and spend a couple of hours talking about our favorite subject – quilting. Join me for an old-fashioned chat. Very casual, no agenda, no test. The door is open, the coffee pot is on, and the fireplace is lit (but only if it gets below 70 degrees!).

There are two opportunities to participate – hopefully one will match your schedule:

- Wednesday Evening, Nov 12th, 7pm or
- Thursday Morning, Nov 10th, 10am

Please RSVP. (I'd like to be sure to brew enough coffee for everyone).

In Memoriam

Suzy Cox Carter, who passed away September 22, 2008, was a long-time member of Coastal Quilters. She was active in both the "Cotton Club" and the "Straight and Narrow" satellite groups. It was through Suzy's connection that the guild was able to meet at Samarkand for so many years. She was a kind and compassionate lady who was always willing to volunteer and she will be greatly missed by those who knew her. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to Breast Cancer Action, 55 New Montgomery St. #323, San Francisco, CA, 94105.

Future Programs

December

In December we will not have a speaker or a workshop. But...it's promised to be fun.

January

In January 2009 Sue Rasmussen's lecture, Desperate Housewife's Quilt Journey sounds very interesting with her workshop, "Landscapes - Machine Pieced." Her classes teach participants to stretch beyond traditional confinements. She will be showing us many of her quilts.

February

For our February meeting Anita Luvera Mayer will be our speaker entitled I Don't Do Guilt Anymore. She'll include philosophy, encouragement, humor and a practical approach to find more time to be creative.

Organizing Tip of the Month:

from Juli Shulem, Professional Organizer

Bobbins can make a total mess of your thread drawer, but that doesn't have to be the case. If you haven't discovered "Bobbin Savers," do check them out! You can see them at Superior Threads website, (<http://www.superiorthreads.com/category/41>) but can also find them at many fabric stores. The rubber ring holds up to 20 bobbins and keeps them not only in one place and easy to see, but keeps the threads from unraveling all over the place. It is also lightweight and portable, so you can keep collections together on different rings – they come in several colors too.

Quilt Show Judging Wrap-Up

The show is over and everyone can sit back and rest on their laurels. It was a beautiful show, thanks to the efforts of many, many people who spent countless hours over the past 18 months to make it all come together.

I am especially grateful to the team of volunteers who did a fantastic job the day of the quilt judging. One of our judges described our crew of eager, efficient aides as “a marvel of choreography in motion.” And I agree! Thanks to the following people, the judging went smoothly and efficiently:

Mary Norton	Lynette Lishman	Suzy Pelovsky	Laura Nana
Betty Shumaker	Darilyn Kisch	Jean MacMillan	Juli Shulem
Diana Iler	Lou Ann Smith	Linda Cassirer	Linda Boynton de
Nancy Miller	Judy Stanton	Carolyn Rory	Sepulveda
Barbara Postma	Carol Hart	Ky Easton
Barbara Aspen	Cynthia Manzer	Jean Faison

Judges: Shirley Bertolino & Judy De Boer

Juli, Lynette and Darilyn provided outstanding computer assistance and produced professional comment sheets. Our judges were most impressed with how well everyone worked together. I know everyone worked hard, had fun, and learned a great deal.

Thanks also to Darilyn and all of the quilt collectors for getting the 58 quilts to the judging site on time.

The greatest appreciation goes to the quilters who submitted their awesome quilts for judging. You may have noted that some of the categories were combined for judging purposes. See the list in this newsletter of the winners of the beautiful ribbons in the nine different categories.

A total of 36 ribbons were awarded which means 62% of the quilts submitted for judging took home a ribbon. Our judges made a point that having quilts judged elevates the quality of quilts in a show and the overall show. During the quilt show, the judges, and myself, observed many beautiful quilts that were not submitted for judging. Hopefully, in our next member showcase, more of you will submit your beautiful work to be judged. Thank you all again.

Community Quilts

This year we offer you the opportunity to make a quilt for a child with cancer for The Teddy Bear Cancer Foundation. The mission of the Teddy Bear Cancer Foundation is to ensure that children with cancer receive the undivided comfort of their parents during the treatment and recovery process. You can give the gift of comfort and encouragement to someone that will appreciate all the support you can offer. We are accepting all sizes of quilts, so it doesn't have to take a long time to create a special gift.

We have a wide variety of quilt kits available every month at our Community Quilts table. Several quilt kits have already been snapped up, but there are plenty of others waiting for you. We are confident the array of choices will inspire you to make the most of your quilt making talents. If you have plenty of fabric, but just need a good project, we have one for you and batting if you need it. If you would benefit from a pattern, we have a variety of patterns across different sizes for you to choose from; including the pattern for the sample “Backyard Treehouse Quilt” that Jeanne Surber made and demonstrated in September. Please drop by the Community Quilts table at our monthly meeting and see what we have to offer. Our goal is to inspire and encourage you to contribute to this worthwhile cause.

Nancy King is again offering her quilting services for Community Quilts for a nominal charge of $45.00. She will quilt an edge to edge design that she determines appropriate for the quilt. Please feel free to contact her at: Nancy King, znancy@rain.org; 687-2063.

Please read more about the project and our guidelines on our website at: http://www.coastalquilters.org/community\_quilts.html. We look forward to seeing your beautiful quilts in the months to come.

Block of the Month for December

In case you weren't at the last meeting, and definitely in the event that you won't be at the December meeting, here's the scoop on the BLOCK OF THE MONTH for December. The Loose Threads satellite group, current sponsors of the Block of the Month, are in the process of selecting a national charity that is soliciting individual blocks. It is our goal to have EVERY member of the Guild provide a block for this special holiday donation.

Now, here's the tricky part: It can be ANY color, ANY size, ANY pattern. There are no restrictions and no requirements. I know that's hard, but I know you can pull it off if you really try. We have somewhere around 250 members in the Guild right now—wouldn't it be wonderful if we got 250 blocks? What a great donation that would be, and what a cool thing to lift our holiday spirits!

Consider that block you made for a class or a workshop and never used...or that bunch of blocks where you tried a new pattern and you didn't like it... or the extra block or two you made "just in case" you made a boo-boo in your piecing.... I'll just bet you all have a renegade block or two somewhere in your stash and what a perfect way to get rid of them! And, yes, if you want to donate more than one, we'll be happy to take them off your hands.

We will collect the blocks at the December meeting, (or at the November meeting, if you're excited about getting it out of your stash), or if you won't be at the meetings, call any of the Loose Threads and we will come and get it.
