Newsletter articles due for March edition

February 17th Board Mtg.

Meeting begins at 6:30 p.m. in Maravilla's Galleria room.

February Speaker: Jean Wells

Don't miss Jean's presentation "Sticks and Stones: Pattern and Color". Jean has been an avid quilter for more than 30 years, sharing her knowledge and ideas with thousands of quilters of all experience levels. A teacher at heart, she began sewing as a child, and her love of sewing led to a career as a home economics teacher and school counselor. Twenty-seven years ago, she opened her quilt shop, The Stitchin' Post, in Sisters, Oregon. The Stitchin' Post is one of the premier shops featured in American Patchwork & Quilting magazine's "Quilt Shop Sampler." Jean has written articles for magazines, lectured and taught quilting classes worldwide, and has appeared on numerous television shows, including HGTV's Simply Quilts.

A love of gardening led Jean to open her second retail store, The Wild Hare, also in Sisters, where she offers unique garden-style accessories and decorative items. The combination of quilting and gardening has proved especially fruitful for Jean, and she often explores garden-related themes in her quilt making. In 2000, her quilt Paradise in the Garden won the Millennium Quilt Contest's Imagination Award. Visit The Stitchin' Post's web site at: www.stitchinpost.com.

Jean's workshop, "Outside the Lines", will be offered both Friday, Feb. 11 and Saturday, Feb. 12. Her workshop is based on her book Intuitive Color and Design. Creative exercises will take your use of color, design, and piecing in dramatic new directions. The rest of the day will be spent using your inner vision to design and piece spectacular, free-form quilts. The size of your finished quilt will depend on you. You may do several small quilts as design exercises. It is up to you.

OPEN SEW IS CHANGING DIRECTIONS TO LEARN & SEW!

While we love the idea of having a day to just "go and sew" with our friends from Guild, one of our most successful Open Sews was last March when Guild members made bags for the Breast Cancer Resource Center and pillowcases for the national challenge — in other words, a day with a project. At the January 20 meeting, the Guild's Board decided to try something new and slightly change the direction of Open Sews by incorporating the talents of our local instructors and offering a two- to three hour mini-workshop in the morning followed by open time to finish that project (or one of your own) — more like a Learn & Sew.

To achieve this change, we need instructors. We are asking those interested Guild members to submit a short proposal via email to Patty Six (rpsix@aol.com) outlining a small project or quilting skill that they would like to teach in a two- or three-hour session. Please include your hourly rate and the maximum number of students you would prefer in a session. Other suggestions are welcome too.

Our first Learn & Sew program will be on Saturday, March 12. From 9 a.m. to noon, Ranell Hansen will be demonstrating how to make several different purses or bags, easy to intermediate; from noon to 3 p.m., attendees can stay and sew. Ranell will have her supply list and possibly some samples at the next meeting. The cost will be $10/person and you can sign up at the February meeting. (For those already signed up for March 12, the day will still be free for you.)

CHALLENGE NIGHT MARCH 10, 2011

Challenge Night is approaching! Are you excited? I'm eager to see what interesting unique interpretations of our theme All Creatures Great and Small will be displayed in this year's Show. Guests are always welcome to Guild meetings but Challenge night the guest fee is waived, so encourage family members, neighbors and friends to attend. They'll see why we are so devoted to our quilting projects, satellite groups and the wonderful friendships we develop by attending Guild meetings.

February 10, 2011 will be the ONLY GUILD MEETING for ENTRY COLLECTION, prior to meeting and during intermission.

Look for the COLLECTION table with Sew It All's (wearing "animal hats" available to receive your Entry Form and Challenge Entry

ENTRY FORM:

- Remember to fill in Entry Title on the Entry Form. Name your entry.
- Remember to write up your Inspiration on the Entry Form. Show Signage at each entry will include Entry Title and Inspiration. Quilters names will be omitted.
- Check whether to display or not at Maravilla or Grant House.
- Safety pin or otherwise secure your Entry Form to the pillowcase or delivery box.

CHALLENGE ENTRY:

- Wall hangings (120" or less circumference) require a hanging sleeve of at least 2" attached to the top back of the wall hanging.
- Wearable Art requires an appropriate clothes hanger.
- If your entry requires a display prop include the item or fixture along with display instructions, if you feel the SIA's need guidance for proper set up.
- Conceal and deliver your entry in a pillowcase or appropriate container, your Name, Address and Telephone Number boldly written and clearly visible.

SEW IT ALL ENTRY COLLECTION, DEADLINE- March 2, 2011

Eight Sew It All's will be available February 11 - March 2 for COLLECTION. Check Member Directory to make prior arrangements by phone or email.

Don't Forget!

From the President's Desk

Our Guild is made up of FABULOUS people. I realize that statement is probably something you are already aware of, but as a relatively new member, I am just finding out! And as your new president, I know that fact will be reinforced for me over and over in the next couple of years and beyond.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our Guild Board for stepping up and keeping the guild running very efficiently without a President for six months. This was a huge undertaking and required many additional hours from those wonderful ladies. Their service, commitment and contributions to our guild in performing the tasks of their own positions as well as absorbing the president's responsibilities is outstanding. I know I speak for the entire Guild in extending a huge "thank you" to the board.

As January comes to a close, I have a couple of "presidential" firsts under my belt — my first general Guild meeting, my first CQG board meeting and my first SCCQG meeting! I have discovered the learning curve to be bigger than I imagined, but I can only improve with more experience and I am looking forward to the journey.

I am thrilled by our Program calendar for 2011. The speaker lineup is amazing, and I think you will find something for everyone in the variety of teachers who will be coming to Santa Barbara this year. The response to Jean Wells was so abundant that we booked her for a Saturday workshop in addition to the regular Friday date. Check with Patty Six to see if there is room available. And don't forget the Challenge coming up in March. I checked out the website to see the results of the last few years of challenges to see what it's all about. (Remember I'm a newbie). All Creatures Great and Small is bound to be our best yet! It's hard to narrow down all your ideas to just one!

We will discuss the results of our Opportunity Quilt poll at the next Guild meeting. In the meantime, I want to let you know that, while we will NOT be promoting an Opportunity Quilt for 2011, we do hope that a volunteer will come forward to undertake the task of creating a quilt for 2012.

Quilt 'til you wilt,
Irelle

MARCH

This could be our most popular meeting each year. Members present their skill and creativity in response to our annual design challenge. This year's theme is: All Creatures Great and Small, hosted by the Sew-it-alls.

APRIL

April 14 Presentation: Wendy Butler Berns, Capering with Creativity and Our Quilts. Wendy will guide you through an eclectic collection of traditional and contemporary quilts all with a common thread – Captivating Color.

April 15 Workshop: Liberate Your Logs. What fun and endless possibilities with Wendy's freeing, spontaneous, no-rule approach – odd size strips and odd size centers to the liberating log cabin.
www.wendybutlerberns.com

MAY

May 12 Presentation: Karla Alexander, Lift the Quilts Out of Your Stash. This is a way to look at your stash in a whole new way and actually start using your fabric rather than just admiring it!

May 13 Workshop: Stack a New Deck, Bent Out of Square. Windows of luscious color that entice your eyes from block to block from her new book, Stack a New Deck.

Local Exhibit Solicits Quilts

The Bronfman Family Jewish Community Center (JCC) is soliciting quilts for an exhibit, which opens March 13 and runs through June at the JCC Gallery, located at 524 Chapala St. This is not a judged show and they are looking for a variety of quilt types. Please contact Lynn Holley at Imossh@aol.com for additional information.

What Your CQG Membership Means For You

Coastal Quilters Guild is an opportunity for everyone to enjoy gathering monthly to share their projects, learn from leading quilt makers in the teaching community, catch up with friends and make new ones, as well as participate in the bustle of activities during an always-scrumptious refreshment break. Some members are so anxious to participate that they come early, just to socialize beforehand! The social aspect of Guild membership is engaging — where else can you make friends with so many other like-minded people?

Your annual paid membership entitles you to much, much more:

- Door Prizes
- Guild Lending Library
- Block of the Month
- Treasure Table “freebies”
- Community Quilts
- Bulletin Board of information
- Activity handouts
- Workshops
- Committee Reports
- Show & Tell
- Program lectures and Trunk Shows
- Membership Directory
- Annual Guild Picnic
- Silent Auctions
- Book Sale
- Opportunity Quilt
- Coast Lines newsletter
- Satellite Groups
- Guild Shows
- Discounts from Member Vendors
- And a website full of opportunities!

But let's also not forget that your Guild expects and needs your participation in order to remain a vital, thriving organization. All Guild board positions, committee chairs and committees are staffed by volunteers only — that means YOU! All of the many features you come to expect and enjoy at every Guild meeting are there only because someone else has volunteered. There is also no better way for you to meet other Guild members than by volunteering your time to one or more of these special activities — there is a place for EVERYONE to participate in some capacity. Many options are available inside each month's newsletter, as well as inside the front of your annual membership directory.

Does something specific spark your interest? To find out more about what that position entails, contact the current person serving in that capacity and they will be more than happy to fill you in. Are you interested in finding out more about how your Guild operates in general? You are always welcome to attend ANY Board meeting.

For more information about your Guild entitlements, visit our website at www.coastalquilters.org. Go to the tab labeled Our Guild and go to Membership; click on the link About Us: For New Members.

The Rambling Rose

The Land of Ahhhs Is Coming To Santa Barbara!

The 22nd annual Santa Barbara Fair & Expo is coming April 27th through May 1st to Earl Warren Showgrounds, with the theme of The Land of Ahhhs.

See entertainment at the Flying Monkey Stage and the Behind the Curtain Stage. Music, dancing, magic and more will keep you and your family entertained for hours! Visit Emerald City (Warren Hall) to see the expo showcase of local foods, wine & beer, arts & crafts, horticulture and fine arts displays. Taste free samples of the featured desserts, appetizers and other scrumptious foods in the Fair & Expo Cooking Contest, offered daily at Emerald City.

The Kansas Dust Bowl Arena and paddocks beyond hold many surprises for visitors to The Land of Ahhhs! Visit Auntie Em's Farm and to see cattle, goats, sheep and poultry as they compete for blue ribbons, as well as exotic animals, a full Kid's Carnival and Petting Zoo. Visit "Munchkin Land" (Exhibit Building) and enjoy interactive displays. See artwork, photography, pottery and many other projects entered by children from our community.

If you're ready for some magical fun to satisfy your whole family, click your heels together and say "There's no place like the Santa Barbara Fair & Expo". Pre-sale tickets are on sale now, so give them a call at 687-0766.

For exhibitor information, go to: www.sbfairandexpo.com and click on the “Exhibitor Info” tab for entry deadlines, downloadable instructions and entry forms.

Auction Coming Up in August

August will be the month of our AUCTION at Coastal Quilters for 2011! We are excited and busy planning lots of fun things to entertain you and auctions items to tempt you. So we need your help! Of course we are looking for the usual auction items, start cleaning out your closets and sewing rooms. We will take tools, sewing machines, quilts, fabric, buttons, batting, just about anything of a quilting nature!!! Please do not bring us things that really need to go to the trash. Please sort before you donate, we really appreciate that as we always have a lot of work to do to make sure things are salable — and we appreciate your help.

We are also looking for ribbon that you are tired of and would like to pass along so that we may tie our bundles of cloth. We are also looking for plastic zip bags from new sheets, pillow case or comforter in, as we use those to package items in as well.

We will accept auction items at our regular Guild meetings. The last night we will received donations will be the July Guild meeting! If you have things that are too large to transport to a guild meeting please contact me at a meeting or call my cell phone at 805-705-5523 to arrange a pick up! We are open for donations from estates. In the past folks have donated the contents of their studios and we will provide the heirs with receipts for their tax purposes. This is true for anyone donating. We are happy to provide you with a receipt for your taxes.

If you have questions don't hesitate to ask. Thanks so much for your participation as it will make our Auction an even bigger success than the Auction in 2009!

Fashioning Fashion: European Dress in Detail 1700-1915

October 2nd, 2010 through March 6th, 2011

12-8 M/T/Th, Closed Wednesdays, 12-9 F, 11-8 S/S

Make sure to go see this if you can! Member Isabel Downs relates: "We went to LACMA today and I urge everyone to RUN not walk to the show. It was absolutely staggering to inspect (as closely as they would allow) the fine hand workmanship of the pieces exhibited - garments for all occasions and none of them shoddy. Fabulous textiles, extraordinary construction, extravagant designs. There are two tiny quilted pieces (next to the two children's clothes) that are the finest pieces of hand quilting I have ever seen."

"...a fashion-forward trip from the Age of Enlightenment through World War I. The items come from the museum's recently and vastly expanded holdings... The exhibition, one of three opening in the new space designed by Renzo Piano, is the most comprehensive of any European costume exhibition in the museum's history." L.A. Block of the Month for March

SCRAP INSANITY: 4 PATCH FOR THE 90s

This variation of a Four Patch block comes from Linda Ballard. Each of the four patches are assembled then put together to form the whole block.

We are getting away from those pesky Half-square triangles this month. But a word of caution, we will be working with some bias edges.

This month we will be using batiks. There are 16 pieces to this block and it will finish to 12 1/2" square.

FABRIC:

Background: white. Cut 4 – 3 1/2" squares.

Scraps: you will need 8 different batik fabrics. This block will look best using medium and dark scraps. Cut 4 – 3 1/2" squares, 4 – 6 1/2" squares.

PREPARATION

Cut all background squares in half diagonally.

Cut 6 1/2" batik squares in half diagonally.

Note: You will only use one half of the batik square for this block. Save the other half for future use or make a second block.

ASSEMBLY:

Attach a background triangle to two sides of a 3 1/2" batik square to form a larger triangle. Press the seams toward the background.

Join this larger triangle to one of your large batik triangles to make one of the four patches. Press the seams toward the batik.

Layout the four patches as shown in the diagram to complete your block. Having problems with the block? We are here to help.
