Anelie Belden: Dresden Dance

Stroll along memory Lane and see the life of the Dresden Plate design. Learn about its beginning, the variety of designs it has had and venture into the future with a trunk show of Thoroughly Modern Dresden designs by fiber artist Anelie Belden. She began her sewing career working in the fashion industry, which gave her the skills to begin her quilting career. After owning her own quilt store and teaching quilting in her area, she began to design quilts. This led her to taking the traditional Dresden quilt design and creating a new updated Dresden Design, which is featured in her book, Thoroughly Modern Dresden. Not only are the designs modern, they are constructed using a breakthrough piecing technique to improve speed and accuracy. Anelie has recorded a program demonstrating her technique with The Quilt Show, starring Alex Anderson and Ricky Tims. She has also taught at quilt guilds throughout the country, the Houston Quilt Festival and at Empty Spools Seminars in Asilomar. An accomplished quilter, Belden has also had her quilt Amazon Horizons featured in the 2012 The Art of The Quilt Calendar published by Orange Circle Studio.

October 12 Workshop: Thoroughly Modern Dresden

Forget everything you thought you knew about Dresden Plate quilts. The new Dresdens are colorful, clever and fun, nothing stodgy or old-fashioned here! They're easy to make too, with Anelie's new stitch-and-flip technique. Try this fresh take on an old favorite.

Pilgrim Terrace Street Fair & Bake Sale

Saturday, October 6th, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

649 Pilgrim Terrace Drive, just off Modoc across from LaCumbre Junior High

Attractions this year include live music, car wash, cake walk, two big jumpers, hot dogs, chips, soda, popcorn, cotton candy, plus a HUGE variety of merchandise, including arts and crafts, baked goods, fresh produce, second-hand items and more.

Ing Welker is selling her bead collection and sewing notions.

Welcome to the Short Cut Sale!

This month Community Quilts is having a short cut sale. There will be small bags of fabric to total approximately 1½ yards. Some will be fat quarters, fat eighths, some will be quarter yard +/- cuts WOF. All yardages are approximate as these are donations from you, our very generous guild members. (We can see that there were some great garments cut from some of these fabrics.) We're cutting up pieces that are too small to include in kits. There will also be Christmas yardage so you can begin your holiday projects now that the show is behind us.

Of course, we'll be giving kits and receiving donations of kits and items from your own stash. Our goal of 168 cradle bedding sets is nearly met, thanks to you software engineers. The pattern is on our website, thanks to Bonnie Barber. The cradle kits will be delivered to Unity Shoppe after the November meeting so the little kids can shop before Christmas. Check out the custom painting done on the cradles – some to match the bedding set. These are truly works of art.

Also, this month please welcome our newest recipient, Hillside House. This is a caring institution for developmentally challenged men and women, many of whom have cerebral palsy. Their requests are for lap/nap or twin bed quilts for their residents, ages 18 and up. If we gather enough Christmas stockings for each resident, (total of 60) we will present those in early December. Quilts for this organization will be presented periodically until June.

Saturday, October 20, also brings an Open Sew, sponsored by your Community Quilts Quartet. However, you are most welcome to come and use the time to work on your very own projects, visit with friends and have some treats and coffee. We'll have kits for Christmas stockings, cradle bedding, placemats, quilts and more in case you need inspiration or a new project.

A big thank-you for all you've done to make this an exceptional year for donations to those in need. We and our recipients have all been extremely pleased with the quantity as well as the quantity of the items you've produced. A letter from Arlene Stepputat from Hospice has a message for all: "I cannot tell you what rave reviews the quilts are getting, and please convey to your members that both the beauty and the love that went into each one is deeply felt and appreciated by the families we serve."

— The CCQ: Edalee Keehn, Carol Hart, Nancy Miller, and Barbara MacCallum

From the President's Desk

This time of year when the weather starts to turn cold and we fall back to standard time, we are reminded that the holidays are imminent. Quilted projects for decoration or gifts must be started now to be finished on time. A small quilt, table runner or placemat is a perfect way to experiment with a new technique you've wanted to try. You may even want to take a guild workshop to learn something new. While you are challenging yourself to finish up holiday projects, don't forget that Community Quilts has several projects that you can help with that benefit others. The Open Sew on October 20 is a good time to work on charity projects and enjoy the company of other guild members. Whatever you choose to work on this month, enjoy the process.

— Carol Fay

Guild member, Sue Ponce, 70, passed away at Serenity House on September 21 after a brief illness. She is survived by her devoted husband of 52 years Andrew Ponce, her son, Drew Ponce, and daughter and son-in-law Lori and Ron Keifer. In remembrance of Sue, the family asks for donations to be made to the Teddy Bear Cancer Foundation of Santa Barbara or Serenity House of Santa Barbara.

Come Join the Fun!

The Refreshment Committee has worked out a new schedule that rotates the Satellite Groups one month each year, so that no group has to do refreshments during months that are can often be problem months, such as during the holiday rush or when lots of members take their vacations. For example, each group will only have to do the July Picnic only once every 12 years! Groups that are unable to do their assigned month are welcome and encouraged to switch directly with another group and let the Refreshment Committee know of the switch so the schedule can be updated. Notification has gone to all Satellite Representatives through e-mail as well.

Quilt Show News

Thank you, members of the Coastal Quilters Guild, for making this year's Harvest of Colors another successful show. You truly came through by buying and selling tickets, and our attendance appears to be up this year. As of press time, the numbers are still being calculated (finalizing the expenses, etc.), but it looks as though we will equal or surpass the 2010 show. Look for further updates in the November issue.

Also, thank you to my outstanding committee for their hard work and dedication to creating a wonderful show. As I walked around the show on Saturday and Sunday, I heard positive comments repeatedly about the look and feel of our show. I think everyone who attended was very glad they came. If you missed the show, you will be able to see photos on our website (www.coastalquilters.org) very soon.

Jeanne Surber's Ride a Cock Horse to Banbury Cross
won Best of Show/Large Quilt

Congratulations to all of the ribbon winners. I'm not sure how our judge was able to make her selections, as all of the quilts were so great, including those that were not submitted for judging. The Viewers' Choice ballots are being counted and will be announced at the October Quilt Guild meeting. We will be announcing the finalists and the winner.

As you reflect on our show, remember that it took many hands to make it a success — and when you are asked again to help on the 2014 show, please lend your support.

— Karen Pickford, Retiring 2010 & 2012 Quilt Show Chair

Food Bank

We wish to thank you all for your generosity in bringing items to the guild meetings in the past for the food bank. The food bank is still very much in need of our help. In our county, one in four people receive food support from the food bank, and 44% of those served are children. The items most needed are peanut butter, canned fruit, canned vegetables, canned stews and chili, tuna fish, fruit juice, rice/beans, cereal, pasta, soups, diapers, coffee and tea. Please keep up the good work.

Block of the Month for November

WINDMILL BLOCK

It's Fall! Trees will have their leaves, changing into those shades of brown and golden tones. Let's search in our grab bag of scraps and find those varying shades of brown with hint of golden tones, then compliment with light beige or tan.

CUTTING

- Cut 2 - 5" squares - Light Beige or tan
- Cut 1 - 2½" x 11" Strip - Light Beige or tan
- Cut 2 - 5" squares - Medium to Dark Batik
- Cut 1 - 2½" square - Medium to Dark Batik
- Cut 1 - 2½" x 11" Strip - Medium to Dark Batik

FABRIC

Light beige or tan fabric (Windmill)

Medium to Dark - Batik (Background)

ASSEMBLY:

Place a 5" Light beige/tan square and 5" Medium/dark batik square right sides together. Draw a diagonal line on the wrong side of the light beige/tan fabric. Stitch ¼" on each side of the line. Cut on the diagonal line. You'll have 4 - Half square triangles. True up each half square triangle to a 4½" square. With right side together, sew the beige/tan & medium/dark batik together, along the 11" side. Press seam to batik. Take one end of the strip & square up the end. From the squared up end, cut 4 - 2½" wide pieces.

First row, stitch a 4½" half square triangle, a beige/batik unit, & another 4½" half square triangle together.

Second row, stitch a beige/batik unit, the 2½" square & another beige/batik unit together.

Third row, stitch a 4½" half square triangle, a beige/batik unit, & another 4½" half square triangle together.

Sew all three rows together, beginning with Row 1 thru Row 3. 10½" unfinished square. Please go to the BOM tab on our CQG website to view the block for placement of the half square triangles and beige/batik units.
