Volunteers:

We need many volunteers for the quilt show in order to make it a success. Please be prepared to sign up for one or more shifts at the September meeting, or contact Cathe Hedrick (705-5523 or chedrick@housing.ucsb.edu) now to sign up.

Boutique:

Julie Mock (687-8695 or jamcats@cox.net) is looking for more people who want to participate in the boutique. Donations of items that would be sold to benefit the Guild would also be appreciated.

From the President's Desk

I would like to hear your reaction to our first vendor event. I think it was a very special and positive event. Some of the vendors told me they would like to have this event every year. I enjoyed it very much and I learned some new things. Set up and take down was very efficient. A very big thank you to the set up and take down crews. I also thank Julie Mock and Bonnie Barber for their idea, creativity and organization that made this event a success. And I also want to send a special thanks to our vendors and demonstrators who showed us all of the equipment and techniques.

We are now working on our final action items for our Harvest of Colors Quilt Show in September. I hope all of you already have your tickets and remember to bring your credit cards. I am looking forward to this show and my credit card and I plan to spend all day both days at the show. We still need volunteers at the show, so please check with Cathe Hedrick. We also need donations for our raffle baskets and you can contact Debbi Haeberle. Thank you for your ongoing support of our guild.

Pre-sale: $8. At the door: $10.

2015 Quilt Challenge

You may be wondering "What is a quilt challenge?" A quilt challenge is a contest to make a quilt with a specific theme. The challenge rules will state what elements the quilt must contain to qualify for entry. The goal is not to make the most elaborate and original quilt, but to make a quilt that best incorporates all of the elements required in the challenge. Most challenges require that the quilt entry contain both creative and technical elements, and there is a deadline to meet. Most quilters enter challenges for the creative pleasure of participating.

"A Few Favorite Things" requires a Heart, someplace, somewhere, and it must be quilted, and no larger than 36x36 inches.....

More to come next month.

Bye for now,

Patt Blair
October 9:

"A Painter's Path to Quilting" This lecture includes slides and samples of Patt's pathway into art quilting. Patt addresses the application of traditional art media into quilting, new materials developed for quilting, tips and examples of machine quilting techniques that support the message in the quilt top, and finally, some ways to finish and hang quilts intended for wall display.

Workshop October 10 Painting on Fabrics with Inks

You will be amazed at what you can create using these flexible and easy-to-use pigment inks made by Tsukineko of Japan. These permanent inks are used to enhance commercial fabrics or to create an original art piece painted on clean white fabric. Special fiber stick applicators make painting much simpler than traditional brushing techniques. Students are delightfully amazed and proud of their creations.

Paint a landscape, still life, or animal using TSUKINEKO Fabric Inks and special stick applicators. Bring your own artwork or choose from Patt's drawings. You'll love these inks. They are surprisingly easy to use... It's like crayons for grown-ups!

A Banner Year for Community Quilts!

Members fulfilled the "charitable" aspect of our Guild's purpose last year with more than 400 items donated to ten different local charities!

Transition House, CALM, Visiting Nurses/Hospice, Santa Barbara Grief Counseling Hospice, and Bethel House gratefully received quilts made by our members. Our Guild also contributed quilts to our local Modern Quilt Guild's project for emancipated teens.

In addition to our annual commitment to make doll cradle quilts and bedding to go with the cradles made by the retired Delco engineers for Unity Shoppe, Meals on Wheels and Meals from the Heart were thrilled to receive 200 placemats for their senior shut-in clients; Bethel House and Hillside House loved the handmade Christmas stockings to brighten their clients' holiday; and Bethel House also received pillowcases to go with the quilts.

Whew! What a year! The Community Quilt committee receives fervent thank you's from our recipients, we pass them on to you, all of you who use your precious quilting time to benefit our community. Thank you! The smaller items such as placemats, pillowcases and stockings are every bit as important, meaningful and needed as the quilts, and we thank everyone for their creativity, time, skill and effort. Thank you!!

For the year ahead, we will be focused mainly on children's quilts for CALM and adult lap quilts for VNA/Hospice. These organizations have an ongoing need for quilts. Visiting Nurses/Hospice clients are in the final stage of their lives. Our quilts help frail bodies keep warm, and provide comfort to both those who are dying and those who are grieving.

CALM's clients are families in crisis, not only the child/children identified as abused but also their siblings. Families often arrive with nothing but the clothes they are wearing. Our quilts provide warmth, comfort and a sense of safety to children in shock. The service we provide through our quilting is crucial; the benefit cannot be overestimated.

This month we are wrapping up the doll cradle quilt project for the year; if you cannot make the September meeting deadline for turning in your cradle quilts, just keep working on them – they will be a head start for the next year. Thank you for all your creativity in making these cradle quilts! They are all adorable and will all be cherished.

We are focused now on Christmas stockings for Transition House, aiming for 50 stockings to be turned in by the November meeting. We also have requests for pillowcases for foster children in Buellton and placemats for Buellton seniors who receive Meals on Wheels.

Organizations contact Community Quilts throughout the year with requests, so everything you make will fill a need somewhere in our area. We thank you for your dedication.

Please update your membership information when you change your address, phone, e-mail, etc. by contacting Sue Kadner at cqg4email@cox.net.
