August 2017

Upcoming Speakers

We are planning for the August meeting with Natalie Barnes of Beyond the Reef. You might know her. She is one of our regular vendors at our Harvest of Colors Quilt Show! She is also a teacher at the Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show and does beautiful work. She is a designer for Windham Fabrics and has a line of her own patterns.

She is going to teach a class called String Piecing Boot Camp. This is a concept class, or a theory class. We'll work with free form and foundation piecing. Then we'll take a look at what can be done with these string piecing elements. How about some appliqué? Triangles? Block arrangements? Half-square triangle strips. Last but not least, we'll be talking about color and contrast and the use of both of these while working with string piecing.

In September Karen Gloeggler from Las Vegas will be with us. She is known, in part, for her Jane Austen Quilts based on Austen's novels. Be sure to put that on your calendar!

October is still a work-in-progress (stay tuned)

November meeting brings Dora Cary from Orange Dot Quilts in Paso Robles, whose workshop will be Make It Modern. Students will be able to select from among four patterns. Dora is a Romanian-born American engineer and a Modern Quilter. Her quilts have appeared in many shows including PIQF, QuiltCon and Seven Sisters.

Then we have the December holiday party!

What a fun Fall to look forward to enjoying.

For questions about workshops, please contact Francine Smith, francinesspot@cox.net.

President's Message

Addiction—Pinterest is my addiction. Hundreds, thousands of quilts of all descriptions. There are big ones, small ones, art, modern, abstract, baby, machine quilting designs. If I lived a hundred years I could never complete all the beautiful designs that I found searching the web. So why do I spend hours looking? It opens my creative mind. Like a writer with a blank page sometimes we need the right spark to write that first line. Has that happened to you?

Quilt stores are seventh heaven. Colors everywhere, patterns jumping out waiting for the right quilter to take them home. I am a firm believer in fabric stores. I want to see the colors and mix and match. Fabric online doesn't always look the same in person! Do you agree? Then you get home with your new purchase and put it aside for a later date. Oops, it is forgotten. Happily though it is found during a search for something else, and the magic returns.

Just what are you going to do with this assortment of fabric (Challenge, Quilt Show, Gift, Charity)? Who are you going to tell about your recent discovery? Friends? Quilting friends? There is a loneliness in sewing alone. Some people find inspiration and gratification in sewing alone. Others need companionship and mutual support. Which are you?

Next time you are online, check out the quilting pictures. Design your own quilt. Visit a quilting store. And above all, share your experiences with quilting friends. Who else could understand the experience?

Community Quilts

The Doll Cradle Quilt Project is underway. We are making small quilts and bedding for the Unity Shoppe again this year. Kits will be given out at the next few meetings, and can be returned as soon as they are completed. If you feel inspired before the next meeting, look on our website for the instructions under the Community Quilts banner or click here.

We plan to honor the Jewish Federation's request for 22 lap quilts that will be given to homebound seniors as part of their holiday gift basket program. Lap quilts should be approximately 35" x 45" to 50" x 70" in size. We will be delivering these in early December, and will have kits available starting at the August meeting.

If you would like to help pass out kits at a meeting, or help with community quilts in any other capacity, please email Carol Fay at carol@carolfayquilts.com or call her cell phone 805-455-4799. Many hands make light work!

Carol Fay, Community Quilts Chair

Opportunity Quilt Tickets

The purpose of the Opportunity Quilt raffle is to raise money for the Guild so we can continue to provide the informative, educational presentations to our membership as well as support our community outreach programs. The drawing will be held at the Guild Meeting on December 14, 2017; the winner need not be present.

If you don't have your tickets yet, please visit the Opportunity Quilt table at the August meeting to pick them up. We provide an envelope of 24 tickets which sell at 6 for $5 or $1 each. There could be a prize for the person who sells the most tickets!

Library News

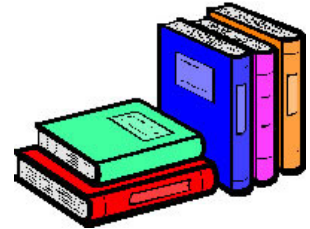

LIBRARY DATABASE NOW ONLINE

Now, you can search our library database on the guild's website. Whether you're looking for stimulation to begin or finish a project, seeking help with a quilting problem or interested in quilt history, we have an excellent selection of books waiting to be consulted. Thanks go to last term's librarians for passing on such a well-organized setup.

To locate the library database, bring up our website (www.coastalquilters.org). From the Home Page, click Our Guild then Library. Once there, click Library again. Or click here. Our vast collection can be searched by Title, Author and Subject.

To enable efficient check out during our brief open sessions, take notes of your choices when browsing the database, including each book's Location. If you find a particular book especially helpful, interesting, etc., please let us know so we can recommend it to other members.

I, too, will be browsing the database to familiarize myself with the stacks. Then some new books will be ordered. A New Book Wish List will be laid out each month for your suggestions. Donation books always welcome, returns due monthly.
