April 2018

Musical Memories "Reveal" is Here!

Our 2018 Challenge exhibit and voting will take place at the April 12 meeting. Please invite friends and family (guests are free) but remember that only guild members may vote. Doors will open at 6:00 for your convenience, and prizes will be awarded after the break.

A hearty thank-you to those who participated. We hope you enjoyed your tour down "Memory Lane" and think you'll all agree that the quality of the "Musical Memories" entries is top-notch.

Quilt Show NEWS: Good Jobs Still Open

The quilt show planning took a major detour in February when Bonnie Epperson needed to resign due to health issues and I stepped in to head the show. Bonnie had filled many of the show committee chair positions but these still need to be filled:

Co-chair – will work with me to oversee the 2018 show, and will learn the ropes of the chair's position with the hope they will take over for the 2020 show.

Boutique – the boutique is a great opportunity for guild members to sell handcrafted items with a share of sales going to the guild; some items are also donated to the guild to sell. This position could be filled by a committee of 3 or 4 people to spread the work around.

Quilt Acquisitions – this position has been pared down significantly, as the Data Management chair will now handle computer input. Key duties include organizing the quilt collectors and managing delivery of quilts at the show.

Tickets – managing pre-sales and tickets at the show.

We have some great ideas percolating that will make this 30th Anniversary Show one of our best ever. Freddy Moran is our

May Speaker: Velda Newman

At the May 10 Guild meeting, Velda Newman will speak on "A Painter's Approach to Quilt Design." Velda is a contemporary fiber Artist from Nevada City, California. She will discuss the evolution of her career in quilt making since the mid-1980's and demonstrate how certain artistic principles have contributed to her personal style.

Velda's large-scale designs, portraying subjects from nature, have been exhibited throughout the U.S., Europe, Australia and Japan. She uses textiles and threads the way other artists use paints and brushes. Her primary source of inspiration is the natural world and

President's Message: Starting a Project

Spring brings the promise of new growth. I am thinking of spring in a different way. I have hopes that spring will bring forth newfound energy, fresh ideas and a desire to be part of a wonderful organization that just gave 33 quilts to Montecito Union School for their kindergartners who survived the Thomas fire and flood.

The Coastal Quilters Guild has afforded you the opportunity to take quilting classes from nationally-known teachers at a discounted rate. Provided monthly meetings to meet with these teachers, catch up with friends and share your quilting experience. Not to forget, an extensive lending library is also available for your benefit. For over 30 years the Guild has been an asset to this community, gifting quilts (Visiting Nurse and Hospice, Unity Shop, Teddy Bear Cancer foundation, Project Linus, Hillside House, Rescue Mission, St. Vincent's, 9/11, etc.), cradle kits, placemats and breast pillows.

This organization exists for all of us and it will only survive if members take a more proactive stance in its success. Please help us survive by working together. Fill a soon-to-be vacant slot on the board and/or committee chair position. Share the experience with your friend(s), by co-chairing a position. Please help.

Linda Boynton de Sepulveda, President

Your Guild Needs You

The guild is an important part of all our lives. To keep it robust and thriving, we need people to serve on the board and committees. We currently need a new President, Public Relations chair, one more Speaker Liaison and a Refreshments Chair, as well as a few committee members.

The first two are critical positions. Our President guides the board and members to ensure lively meetings, great workshops and overall governance. While it is an important role, it is a fully supported one—the board and committee chairs are there for the President, so it's not onerous or boring! Public Relations is key, too.

Committees keep our interests alive and support our meetings. If you're interested in a committee, feel free to contact the committee chair for more details.

Keeping our guild alive in the community—for our members, as well as the greater community beyond—is so important. We know quilting is a valued, time-honored passion, and we want to share that with our neighbors and friends. Thanks for considering how you can support your guild. ## Please Join Us for Coffee

In a creative slump? Have a question about the guild? Need inspiration? Not sure about the upcoming quilt show? Or maybe you are challenged with a pattern instruction or technique?

You need coffee!

Join me on Monday, April 16 at 10am for a chat. We can talk about whatever is on your quilting mind.

Newer members are especially encouraged. This is a great chance to meet other quilters one-on-one, and get the inside scoop on what's happening in the guild.

RSVPs are nice but not required. If you can make it April 16th, come on by!

her exquisitely crafted quilts reflect the detail and design she finds there. Her work is included in public and private collections and has appeared in national and international publications, including MASTERS Art Quilts, published in 2008. Her quilt ZINNIA received the Quilts Japan Prize. Her books include Velda Newman: A Painter's Approach to Quilt Design (Fiber Studio Press) and A Workshop With Velda Newman (C & T Publishing, also an e-book on Amazon).

On Friday, May 11, 2018, Velda will conduct the workshop “Texture & Form.” Nature is an endless source of beauty and inspiration. With this in mind, Velda will teach a technique to eliminate the “flat” look and make fabric very interesting. These easy machine stitching techniques can be used for quilts or clothing. So much to learn....so little time! You can register for this fun workshop at the April meeting or by contacting Francine Smith at francinesspot@cox.net.

Sewjourners’ Gallery Exhibit: “Sticks and Stones”

The March 16 opening reception of “Sticks and Stones”, an exhibition by the satellite group Sewjourners at the Santa Barbara Arts Fund, was a rousing success. Close to 120 friends and admirers showed up despite heavy rain. The Fund’s past president wrote appreciatively that the “show fits in beautifully with what the Arts Fund hopes to accomplish in bringing local artists into the spotlight. Your show is a knockout in both beauty and accomplishments...besides its quality of uniqueness. I was in awe of the skills required...and the imagination.”

The exhibition is on display Wednesday-Sundays at the SB Arts Fund Gallery at the corner of Santa Barbara and Yanonali Streets in the Funk Zone, 12:00 -5:00 until May 12. A conversation with the artists is scheduled for April 11, 6:00-7:30. All are welcome.

Raffle Basket Donations

We are so excited to put together the $$ making baskets for our September quilt show.

Have you had a chance to go through your many quilting gadgets, supplies and patterns to see what duplicates you may have, or those "had-to-have-never-used" items that maybe someone else can make good use of? They would be a great addition to one of our baskets.

Any pre-cuts that you don't think you're going to get around to using, we would be happy to take off your hands. And then you'll have more room for new additions to your stash!

Do you have any packaged battings that ended up not being your favorite brand? Maybe it's time to do a good spring-cleaning of your quilt room.....I know mine needs it desperately, any volunteers?

We will be next to the community quilts table at the guild meeting in April to collect any and all donations. Thank you for helping us create the most awesome raffle baskets a quilt show could ask for!!

Quilt Show News (Continued from page 1)

Featured Artist. We also plan to have Community Quilts as a show highlight, to make the public more aware of our many contributions to our community over the years.

I hope you are all working on your show quilts or have ideas that are percolating. I have LOTS of ideas but am having trouble starting. I have many to choose from that are in the works but no definite plan as yet – but that's pretty typical for me.

This is the GUILD show and we want to make it the best ever, so your input is always appreciated. If you have any questions, comments or suggestions, please let me know (805-569-3930, irellebeatie@cox.net).

Sad news

We received news that former member Joanne Coulter died recently (March 2018).

She was a Coastal Quilt Guild member from 1996-2000. Due to failing health she has not been active in a while. She was a member of the Doll Funs satellite group. She worked at Craft Village (Craft Essentials) for some time. A talented quilter especially in applique. She had a wonderful laugh and a great sense of humor. She will be missed.

Days for Girls Sew Day

The Daysies, a Guild satellite group, meets once a month to sew reusable feminine hygiene kits for girls and women in impoverished countries. We follow the guidelines of Days for Girls International. Come join us for our next Sew Day—everyone is welcome. If interested in attending, please contact Marty Frolli.

Monday, April 16th from 9 am - 3 pm at the Goleta Valley Community Center, Rooms 1 and 2

Marty Frolli, Daysies Satellite Group

Library News

We are so fortunate to have our guild library to borrow books from. Although some are a few decades old, they still teach valuable lessons offering enticing quilt designs. Browse among the bins, because donation books and new purchases continually expand our offerings. Loaned books are due back the next month but may be renewed—let us know when you need more time. On Guild night, it's important to remember our name badges, so why not place your guild library books with your badge, in your car, a few days ahead of time so they'll be remembered for the meeting?

Contrary Wife 12" Finished Block

May 2018
Coastal Quilters Guild
Block of the Month

Cutting

White print with small black motif.
Two 5-1/4" squares.

Black

Five 4-1/2" squares.

Red

Two 5-1/4" squares.

Assembly

1. Draw a line corner to corner on the two white squares. This is the cutting line.
Draw a line 1/4" from the cutting line and on each side of the cutting line. These are the sewing lines.

2. Pin white squares and red squares right sides together. Stitch on the two sewing lines.
Cut on the cutting line. Press seam to the red. Trim units to 4-1/2".

3. Arrange the triangle units with the black squares to make the Contrary Wife block.
Sew into rows. Press to black squares. Sew rows together. Block should measure 12-1/2".

*Bring your block to the May CQG meeting.
Please contact Marty Frohli with any questions.*
