September Speaker:

Jennifer Sampou, "How to Harness Your MOJO: Golden Creativity"

We are delighted to have renowned quilt artist and fabric designer Jennifer Sampou speak at our Guild for the September meeting. Over the past 30 years, she's combined an academic background in textiles (Fashion Institute of Technology, Univ. of Vermont) with a career as creative director for P&B Textiles before opening her own company, Studio Sampou, in 1996. Now she creates beautiful quilts that feature lots of play with color and shape along with her timeless fabrics. Her talk will be about a subject she knows well: nourishing our creativity — the elements that feed it, what can distract, and how to keep our mojo going.

September Workshop:

Jennifer Sampou, "Octagon Shimmer"

I first saw Jennifer Sampou's "Octagon Shimmer" quilt at QuiltCon where it stood out from across the room: traditional in design, but completely modern in scale and color sensibility. We'll get a running start on our own versions of the quilt, with encouragement and instruction from Jennifer on color, composition, scale, value, and a bit of improv. Please note, per Jennifer's website, she has offered to be available for color consultation. If you have questions or are inclined to take her up on this great offer, please do. There are still a few spaces left, so you can send your check or further questions to workshop coordinator Margaret Dear (margaretdear@gmail.com).

October Speaker:

Linda Ballard, "Discover Possibilities"

Popular quilting teacher Linda Ballard says, "People ask me what I look for when I'm writing a new quilt pattern. How do I know what components to make? Can I make it easier than what my eye sees? This program will show you how I look at quilts, what I can do to simplify the construction, and what techniques I can share with my quilters. The audience is encouraged to participate throughout the program while I'm sharing quilts both on screen and in person. When you see what I have to share, you'll see why people think some of my quilts are hard when, in fact, they're pretty darn easy." Come prepared to Discover the Possibilities!

President's Message

It's hard to believe the summer has passed and fall is upon us. I hope all of you had a wonderful summer filled with fun and relaxing activities. I am back from Colorado, where I was able to devote some time to completing the quilt top from Cathie Hoover's workshop in June. I'll try to remember to bring it to the Guild meeting in September. I also have signed up for the September and October workshops. It's so nice to have these wonderful classes/teachers available to us. And for me, it's nice to have the time to take them!

Do you ever find that you have an urge to sew, but not much time? That's when projects such as Block of the Month or the cradle bedding kits for the Unity Shop can fill an important niche in your day. Nancy Butterfield is doing a wonderful job reviving blocks from past years — and making them fun for you to do today. And who knows, you might end up with blocks for a quilt! I especially enjoy making the cradle bedding kits — and hope to get a couple finished before the November deadline.

On a business note, we are still looking for a person to be in charge of Public Relations for our Guild. If this is something that interests you, please contact me or any member of the Board. It's an important role to be filled. Also, the 2020 Quilt Show committee is moving into high gear with preparations. Please find a role that works for you to help with this important endeavor. The Quilt Show proceeds mostly fund our Guild for two years — so you can understand how critical it is to be successful.

I hope to see you at our September Guild meeting. Along with Jennifer Sampou, our speaker, we will be visited by representatives from the Glendale Quilt Guild selling tickets for their Opportunity Quilt.

Happy quilting!

— Karen Pickford, President

In Memoriam

We remember Doris Gilman, a long time member of our Guild, who passed away on August 10, 2019. Condolences to her family and friends. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that memorial gifts may be made to Royal Family Kids Camp Quilters, P.O. Box 8614, Goleta, CA 93118.

Sewjourners – a satellite group of the Coastal Quilters Guild

At a general meeting many years ago, a member spoke to the Guild about starting a new art quilt satellite group. She asked interested members to join her at the break to discuss the possibility. The Sewjourners have been going strong ever since. Some of our nine current members were a part of that original group.

We meet once a month, and our focus is on the improvement of our design and composition skills. Approximately once a year we select a book, artist, or other medium to study and use as a guide for our growth. Sharing our work and working toward continuous progress through critique and demonstration keep us learning and growing. The group has become much more, in that we see each other as support for our practice and for each other.

In spring of 2017 we presented an art quilt show at the Arts Fund Gallery of Santa Barbara. Called "Sticks and Stones," it was the result of a study we had done, creating work on that topic from fiber.

Saturday, September 21, 5-7 pm, we'll have the opening reception of our new show at the Conejo Valley Art Museum, 197 N. Moorpark Rd., Thousand Oaks, CA. The new show is called "Sewjourners — Our Journey" and features a mix of projects including a black and white challenge, a one-color challenge, and more. We will have a group panel discussing the show at the museum Saturday, November 2, 5-7 pm.

Our rewards as members of the group have been many. Most often mentioned is how the support, critique, and challenges have encouraged us to expand our creative horizons and go beyond what we ever realized we could do. And underneath it all is a lot of friendship and fun! We are not taking new members at this time.

ginner plus to advanced. Linda says, “I hope you'll come and be part of the workshop... you won't be sorry!”

Community Quilts

Many thanks to those of you that bought stripes and flannels at the August meeting. I know the fabrics are so happy to be chosen for your special projects! The sale fabric theme for the upcoming September meeting is “Fall Favorites”. Think changing leaves, warm reds, golds and a full spectrum of greens. Look for fabric with bats, cats, and witches hats to inspire your Halloween creations. Remember, Community Quilts fabric sells for $1 per pound — that's about 30 cents a yard, folks!

Cradle kits will continue to be featured. We need 165 by the November meeting. Christmas stocking kits will be available this month, also with a November deadline.

— Community Quilts: Kathy, Darilyn and Laura

Block of the Month News – August 2019

Kika Hutchings is the happy winner of twenty-five cheerful Framed Four Patch blocks this month! It is delightful to see so many beautiful florals and greens, playing together in our block garden. I am grateful for all who participate in this fun Guild activity; many hands, making a lovely project!

— Nancy Butterfield, Chair, Block of the Month

2020 HARVEST OF COLORS Quilt Show

The 2020 Harvest of Colors Quilt Show will be getting into full swing in September-October but we still need volunteers for a few spots in order to have all the component parts covered to make this a successful show. We still need people to head up Publicity, Site Design, Raffle and Door Prizes, Programs, Vendors, and Tickets. We need one or two more volunteers to help Toni and Eileen with our Children's Quilts feature and one or two more volunteers to work with Nancy on the data management and data entry for the quilt entry forms. If you are interested in working on our quilt show in one of these areas, please contact one of us on the Leadership Team.

The first meeting of ALL of the Committee Chairs will be at 5:30 before the Guild meeting on October 10 in the room adjacent to the kitchen. The Chairs will get their notebooks at this meeting and we will establish a regular meeting schedule for our future meetings.

We are excited about our upcoming show, on September 26-27, 2020 at the Earl Warren Showgrounds, but we need everyone to pitch in and contribute to making this a successful show.

— Quilt Show Leadership Team, Toni Percival, Nancy Butterfield, and Eileen Lewandowski

La Vie de Bohème July 21 - October 13

La Vie de Bohème celebrates the collaboration between two San Jose cultural institutions, San Jose Museum of Quilts & Textiles and Opera San José. Showcasing costumes, illustrations and props. The costumes illuminate the story of a group of bohemians, and how their lives become intertwined.

Mayan Traje: a Tradition in Transition July 21 - October 13

The Maya of Guatemala are known worldwide for their excellent weaving and distinctive trajes (traditional clothing). These were once 100% village-specific, and people could be recognized as being from a specific place. Over time, many and diverse influences have caused significant change - but even so, visitors are struck by the ubiquitous nature of indigenous weaving and the persistence of their "wearable art". This exhibit will show outstanding examples of clothing from the early 20th century to contemporary fashion, highlight key differences, and explore some of the reasons for these changes. On view will be individual pieces as well as full trajes - none created for tourist markets. These will be drawn from the rarely-displayed collection of the Friends of the Ixchel Museum.
