March Speaker: Pam Hadfield

Our March 12 speaker and workshop presenter is Pam Hadfield, from Laguna Niguel. Pam taught quilting at Saddleback College for Community Education and her quilts have won awards at Road to California, Nashville AQS, Grand Rapids AQS, and Paducah. Her quilts have also been exhibited at Houston International Quilt Show and published in Quilter's Newsletter, Quiltmania, and American Quilter magazine. For her presentation, Pam will share a trunk show of her many quilts featuring a variety of techniques including piecing, appliqué with cotton and wool, mixed techniques, and pictorial quilts.

March Workshop: "Whimsy Dresdens"

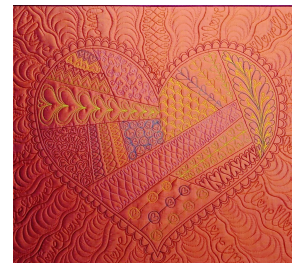

"Whimsy Wedges" is the topic of Pam's workshop Friday, March 13. Have you seen the Dresden-based circles of houses popping up on Instagram and elsewhere? Those and other designs are what members can create with the Whimsy Wedges Pam will teach. Part of the fun is that everybody's will be different, thanks to the different fabrics chosen. You can also choose to do a pillow, table runner, wall quilt, or bed quilt. There are spaces available.

May Speaker and Workshop: Award winning Quilter Mel Beach

Coming up in May our speaker is another Road to California award winner, Mel Beach. Join us at the May Guild meeting for "Free Motion CREA-TV and Reality." Her workshop on Friday, May 15 will be "Modern Free-Motion Fillers and Fun!".

If you have been wanting a little encouragement to do more free motion quilting on your domestic machine (maybe for your quilt show entry?), this might just be what you were looking for. You can see Mel on the February 22 episode of the Quilting Arts TV show, where she demonstrates working with unconventional materials (in one case, origami-folded dollar bills) while combining them with free-motion quilting.

Mel will also teach this coming fall at Houston International Quilt Show. Catch her workshop here with the Guild and save the cost of a plane ticket! Check out Mel's website melbeachquilts.com for tips and inspiration.

To sign up for a workshop, contact Margaret Dear at the next meeting or email at margaretdear@gmail.com

President's Message

If you have missed our last two general meetings, you've missed a great treat. We have been having a special showing of projects started in recent workshops. This is a wonderful way to advertise our fantastic workshops and the progress, however great or small, the attendees have made.

Coming up before we know it is our annual meeting in May. At this meeting, we will be voting to fill open Board and Committee positions. Before that can happen, we are forming a Nominations Committee headed by our Parliamentarian, Sue Wuertz. Sue is fairly new to our Guild and we would like to have a few seasoned members to help her - especially those who know a lot of our members. Fortunately, this year, we have several returning volunteers. However, our bylaws state that a position can only be held for two consecutive years. Therefore, we will need to fill some open spots. Please step up to help fill these so that our Guild can continue to run smoothly throughout the transition. We will have job descriptions available for anyone needing more information. I think you will find that involvement at this level is very satisfying and a great way to meet more people and appreciate what our Guild has to offer.

Also at the May meeting we will be voting on an update to our Bylaws. Heather Georgakis, along with Sue Kadner, Sue Wuertz and many others have been working on this project for the past year and have created a much more inclusive and organized document. When you see it (probably by early April) I believe you will all agree.

I'm looking forward to seeing which workshop is highlighted this month. I'm working as fast as I can on my projects!

Happy Quilting,

— Karen Pickford, President

Diana Hamilton

Community Quilts

Diana Hamilton, who won the mystery bolt in January, chose a beautiful blue Stonehenge. They say you subconsciously wear clothes to match your quilts. Check out Diana's top!

Linda Bird won the door prize for February - a trip to the locker to choose 20 yards of fabric. Congratulations!

During the March meeting, we will be selling themed bundles of fabrics and panels for one dollar per pound.

The Community Quilts committee hit a milestone in February. After nine months of hard work, we have finally touched every piece of fabric in the locker. We have sorted fabric for the treasure table, Art for Scrap, our $1/lb sales, donations to other non-profits and the trash. And we still have thousands of yards of quality fabrics looking for good homes.

Would you like to "shop" the locker? Buy door prize tickets at the general meetings - you could be the next lucky winner!

Challenge: The 3 T's Entries due in March

Thanks to Suzy Pelovsky's spirit of learning & fun, participants will have a new technique to add to their repertoire for future projects. For all members entering the 2020 Guild Challenge, the March 12th meeting is the time to turn in your entry. Entry forms may be downloaded from the website. If you need a printed form, contact Carol Hart. If you are unable to attend in March, please have another member deliver your entry & entry form for you. Your entry requires a 4" hanging sleeve and a label (with at least entry title, your name, phone #). Please deliver your entry in an appropriate protective cover which also has your identification boldly evident and secure- name, address, phone. A quiltcase (novelty print or commercial pillowcase) is fine for most entries. If your entry requires SH (special handling), make either a hard-sided cardboard carrier or use a pool noodle to roll your entry around, then slip into a quiltcase. Since the meeting room to the left of the kitchen will have the Show Meeting in progress, please take your entries to the open space beyond the library, in front of the church entrance doors nearer to the church office. Members of the Sew It Alls satellite group will be waiting to receive your entry. Thank you for participating in the Guild's annual April Challenge Show.

Road 2 CA Bus Trip

The Road to CA bus trip was a huge success. If you enjoyed your time at the Road to CA Quilt Show then you must be ready for another quilt show! Please, let me know, if you're interested in attending the International Quilt Festival Long Beach on Saturday, July 11, 2020. I am shooting to fill another 56 seat SB Airbus. Look for Rosana Swing at the March Guild meeting or email me at rsrdswing@gmail.com, 805-680-2670.

At the Road to CA Quilt Show I picked up postcards from Pineapple Fabrics pineapplefabrics.com. They are giving a 20% off coupon good until March 15, 2020 (excludes Creative Grids, gift certificates, & the Pineapple Slice Box). Use the code "SHOW20" when filling out your online order to receive the 20% discount! They have a nice selection of fabrics, plus fabric bundles with a free pattern. They also have a 20% off coupon good until March 15, 2020 (excludes Creative Grids, gift certificates, continuity programs, & drop ship items) at Keepsake Quilting KeepsakeQuilting.com. Use the code "SHOW20", when filling out your online order to receive the 20% discount!

2020 HARVEST OF COLORS Quilt Show News

Calling all Quilters! Now is the time to start (or continue) planning the quilt(s) you are going to enter in the 2020 Harvest of Colors Quilt Show! It is a members' showcase and we hope that all members will join in.

We have also begun contacting businesses and youth organizations about the Kids Can Quilt exhibition. Many of our members are sponsoring a young friend or relative in this endeavor. Details are on the Quilt Show page of the website.

Show preparations are on schedule thanks to the diligent work of the many Committee Chairs and members. It is truly amazing to see the teamwork exemplified by these ladies.

We will be updating everyone on the descriptions of the many additional volunteer opportunities you will have to help with the show. Your contributions are wanted and needed in order to stage this wonderful event.

We will be meeting each month at 5:30 pm before the Guild meeting in the room adjacent to the kitchen. Please join us! We want everyone to feel free to attend and ask questions or offer their help. Many hands make light work! It's a great way to find fellowship, share the joy and get to know your fellow quilters. We welcome inquiries anytime either by phoning one of us or through our dedicated email: cqgshow@gmail.com

Boutique

At the March Guild Meeting I'll be taking sign-ups for the Boutique on a first come first served basis. There'll be table assignments, choosing a large or half table, based on the quantity of your inventory. I'll have the layout with me, so we'll note where your table will be.

Classifications are 1) Seller receiving a percentage of your sales & the difference going to the guild OR 2) Donor, giving 100% of your sales to the guild. A contract, noting your ID number & table assignment number will be mailed to you, so you can sign & return to me. HOC Boutique contact is Rosana Swing at rsrdswing@gmail.com, 805-680-2670.

2019 - 2020 Opportunity Quilt

During Roxanne's, A Wish and A Dream, Super Bowl Sale in Carpinteria, the Knotty Threads satellite group set-up our Opportunity Quilt to sell raffle tickets. Carolyn Rory, Carol Hart, Nola Ferguson, Kika Hutchings, Suzanne Ahn, & Rosana Swing shared shifts, netting $175 for the day. In the picture, Carolyn Rory (left) & Carol Hart (right) were ready to start selling.

We are hoping that each Guild member takes on the responsibility of selling at least five tickets for $20. If you are not able to come to the meeting to pick them up, please email Sue Kadner at sgkadner@yahoo.com and we'll make arrangements to get them to you.

Rosie Lee Tompkins: A Retrospective

February 19 - July 19, 2020

Quoting from the BAMPFA website:

"The Berkeley Art Museum and Pacific Film Archive (BAMPFA) announced in October, 2019 its acquisition of nearly 3,000 works by African American quilt makers, including more than 500 pieces by the acclaimed artist Rosie Lee Tompkins, from the late Oakland collector Eli Leon.

The Eli Leon Collection, believed to be the largest of its kind, comprises quilts as well as assemblage and embroidery by more than 400 black artists. Leon, who collected the works for decades and died in 2018, willed the collection to BAMPFA in what the museum called one of the largest bequests of African American art ever donated to a United States museum.

The collections forms the basis of a major retrospective opening February 19, 2020 of some 80 quilts by Tompkins, an internationally renowned Richmond artist championed by Leon, including previously unseen pieces. Outgoing BAMPFA director Lawrence Rinder, who's co-curating the retrospective with Elaine Yau, previously worked with Leon to show Tompkins' work in 1997.

In 2022, BAMPFA will also mount an exhibition showcasing the broader collection, which includes pieces by some 400 artists such as Arbie Williams, Lawrence Brackens, Gladys Henry, Sherry Byrd and Angie Tobias".

Block of the Month for April 2020

Churn Dash

12 x 12" Block (12.5" x 12.5" Unfinished)

April finds us hopeful for showers and yearning for spring flowers. Stitch this cheerful block in happy bright green and delightful blue florals. Before you know it, Spring will be sprung!

Cutting

• White or White-on-White print:

- Cut 1 - 4 1/2" Square
- Cut 2 - 5 1/4" Squares
- Cut 4 - 2 1/2" x 4 1/2" Rectangles

• Bright Green:

- Cut 4 - 2 1/2" x 4 1/2" Rectangle

• Medium Blue Floral:

- Cut 2 - 5 1/4" Squares

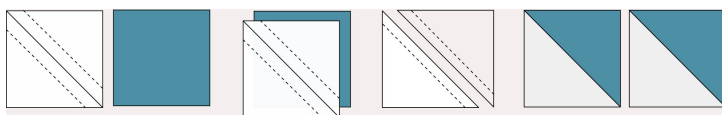

Assembly

For best results, please use scant 1/4" seams.

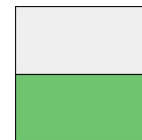

1. Draw a line corner to corner on the two 5 1/4" white squares. This is the cutting line. Draw a line 1/4" from the cutting line on both sides of the cutting line to make sewing line.

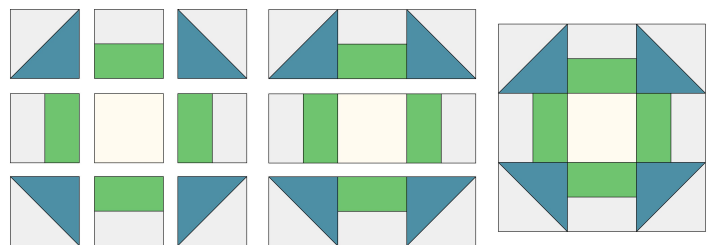

2. Pin White 5 1/4" squares to Blue 5 1/4" squares. Sew each unit on the sewing lines. Cut on the cutting line. Press seams to the Blue. Trim the four units to 4 1/2" square.

3. Sew the White rectangles to the Bright Green rectangles. Press seam toward the green.

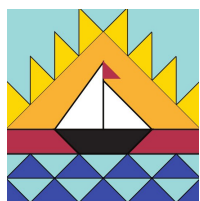

4. Arrange the triangle units, the rectangle units and the white square to make the Churn Dash block. Sew into rows. Press seams toward the rectangle units. Sew the rows together. Block should measure 12 1/2" square.

Please bring your block(s) to the April CQG Meeting
