

April 12, 1995 General Meeting of Coastal Quilters Guild

- 1) Judy called the meeting to order.
- 2) Susan Cochran welcomed guests and new members.
- 3) Judy asked for people to design and make a 20x24 inch quilt to enter in the shark marine art exhibit at the Museum of Natural History.
- 4) Karin Cooper explained the new library policy as listed in the guild newsletter.
- 5) Lynn Laughrin brought to our attention the upcoming programs and workshops as listed in the newsletter.
- 6) Norah McMeeking, Marty Frolli, and Diane Eardley (for Maggie Godwin) spoke about the Quilt classes offered through the local Adult Education program.
- 7) The California Heritage Quilt Program will document quilt related things in this state; Linda Karppinen is the guild contact.
- 8) Natural Impressions II quilt show will be next month.
 - a) Jan Inouye gave a summary
 - b) Norah McMeeking talked about set up and break down of show, and donation of opportunity quilt.
 - c) Lynn Laughrin gave thanks to people who found ads for the show program, which will pay for printing the program.
 - d) Docent sign ups are with Helena Kennedy.
 - e) Judy pointed out the list of special events for the show in the newsletter.
 - f) The Touchy Feely quilt was shown. It will be used in school classrooms to educate children about quilts and the upcoming show. Betty Libbert will schedule the visits.
 - g) Jan presented a slide show of the Natural Impressions I show.
- 9) Lynn Laughrin introduced the directions for tonights silent auction.
- 10) Break for auction
- 11) Block of the month (Tulips) was introduced by Beth Jones, and the drawing was held for Sunbonnet Sue, won by Cecilia Puppo.
- 12) Diana Iler thanked the folowing people for tonights refreshments; Nancy Bauerle, Mary Ann Coley, Pat Stanovich, and Carol Drescher.
- 13) Show and tell ended the meeting.

submitted by Sandy Wilmot substitute secretary for Sue Scholl

S. Wilmot.