

11/8/95 Coastal Quilters Guild Inc. Monthly Meeting

- I. Susan Cochran introduced nine guests tonight.
- II. The CA Heritage Quilt Project was started with interviews of 35 women and 1 man! The purpose of the project is to acquire oral histories for future research projects, and the plan is to continue after the holidays. Sandy Wilmot and Jan Inouye were thanked for providing their homes for the Project and staff. Linda Karppinen, Ellen Richardson and Diane Eardley were trained as interviewers. Nola Ferguson, Toni Smith and everyone else who helped, as well as all those interviewed, were also thanked.
- III. Claire Hemke reported that twelve quilts have been turned in so far for the Community Project. The quilts will be presented to Hospice at next month's meeting. Everyone who brought one tonight showed theirs. Quilts can still be turned in at the next meeting. Please put a guild label on the back of the quilt.
- IV. A reminder was given about the sale at Beverly's on November 10 for Guild members.
- V. Sara Meyer from Grant House spoke of their new location on State Street off of Micheltorena. There will be an open house on 11/17, 18 and 19, and a chance to get into a drawing for a new Bernina sewing machine if you sew a strip onto the quilt for Hospice.
- VI. The Guild members present tonight voted on a motion to raise membership dues for 1996 to $25. The motion was passed.
- VII. The Nomination Committee of Judy Gorrindo and Toni Smith presented the candidate slate for the 1996 Board: President-Maggie Godwin; 1st Vice-President (Programs)-Judy Gorrindo, 2nd Vice-President (Workshops)-Anne Braddock; Recording Secretary-Diane Eardley; Correspondence Secretary-Betty Kelley; Treasurer-Carol Fay; and Parliamentarian-Kathy Doughty. The slate was put into a motion and seconded, and the motion was passed by Guild members present tonight. The non-elected committee positions are being filled (see attached list).
- VIII. Anne Braddock reminded members of the workshop by Alex Anderson on January 11 for $30. Only 20 people will be accepted into the workshop.
- IX. Diana Iler asked members to bring goodies to the Holiday Party next month.
- X. No door prizes were done tonight.
- XI. The Opportunity Quilt and Top will be drawn for in December. The Opportunity Quilt has raised $600 through donations so far.
- XII. Lynn Laughrin gave the history of the development of the Hoffman Challenge, which has grown to be the premier traveling exhibit. It was started in '87 at the NQ Show with 94 entries. Rules included using a pre-chosen fabric that must be recognizable in the entry, and not more than two yards. In 1989, 194 entries were made. In 1995, the print was "Orchids", and there were 604 entries. Lynn then showed the 1995 collection of the Hoffman Challenge B Wall Quilts, which included 44 entries (6 are currently on display in Houston). The print for 1996 is "Old Glory" (patriotic pattern). All participants receive a fat quarter and pin just for entering the Challenge
- XIII. Contact Judy if you are interested in hosting a workshop speaker for next year. The "perk" is a free workshop for that speaker. You are responsible for meals and transportation of the speaker.
- XIV. Linda Karppinen was the winner of the Block-of-the-Month. Next month's block is Kaleidoscope.

XV. Show and Tell concluded the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan Mihora-Scholl
