

2/14/96 Coastal Quilters Guild, Inc. Monthly Meeting

1. Maggie Godwin called the meeting to order.
2. Jan Inouye discussed the Guild challenge for this year which will be wearable art. The black and white fabric which must be included in the clothing (in any amount) will be available at Betty's and Beverly's fabric stores in March.
3. Anne Braddock talked about the next day's workshop. Anne Copeland will speak in March on dating and preserving quilts. The workshop will be open to the first 30 guild members at no charge.
4. Diane Eardley announced that guild member, Cynthia Bonner will have a sale of her hand dyed fabrics on Saturday. Flyers announcing the sale were available at the snack table.
5. Judy Gorrindo discussed the fabric exchange which will be in April, and a sign-up sheet was passed around. The fabrics will be nature's browns and greens.
6. Cathy Hoover, fabric clothing artist, gave a lecture entitled "Accept the Challenge of Wearable Art." She also demonstrated several of her beautiful pieces of clothing.
7. Nola Ferguson thanked members who brought refreshments.
8. Kristin Otte, Membership chairperson, announced that membership payment must be made by tonight to be included for this year's roster. She also presented a fabric gift from England from Nora McMeeking which will be given as a door prize.
11. Linda Estrada distributed 19 door prizes. In December, she sent out a very large number of letters to quilt suppliers and has received a very generous response.
12. Cindy Enderby and Cathy Rampton held the drawing for block-of-the-month which was a log cabin heart in values of red. Michele Peerson won the drawing.
13. Six members presented "show and tell".

Respectfully submitted,

Diane Eardley
