

3/13/96 Coastal Quilters Guild, Inc. Monthly Meeting

1. Maggie Godwin called the meeting to order, and welcomed members and guests.
2. Jan Inouye announced that the challenge fabric is in stock at Betty's Fabrics and is due in to Beverly's in Goleta later in the month.
3. Lynn Laughrin encouraged members to submit items to the Santa Barbara County Fair and requested volunteers for docents and quilt demonstrations.
4. An announcement was made that a yarn and quilt book sale from an estate would be held at BB's knits the following Saturday.
5. Marty Frolli and Maggie announced the schedule for adult education classes which begin for the spring quarter on April 8.
6. Kristin Otte welcomed one guest and 7 new members.
7. Judy Gorrindo reminded participants in the "Nature's Greens and Browns" charm exchange to pick-up flyers. The exchange will take place at the April meeting.
8. Judy also said that Judy Warren's workshop next month on "Fabric Postcards" is still open. The May workshop, taught by Judy Mathieson, will be on "Mariner's Compass", and the fee is $30. The June workshop will be "Fractured Landscapes" taught by Katy Pasquini Masopust.
9. Anne Copeland, certified quilt appraiser for AQS, presented a lecture on "Quilt Kits in Perspective."
10. Carol Meyer announced that Bernina sewing machines will be on sale at Grant House for the month of March.
11. Nola Ferguson thanked members who brought refreshments.
12. Seventeen door prizes were awarded by Linda Estrada.
13. Cathy Rampton and Cindy Enderby held the drawing for block-of-the-month. Karin Cooper won 44 log cabin hearts in pink and red.
14. Four members presented show-and-tell.

Approximately 95 people were in attendance.

Respectfully Submitted,

Diane Eardley, Recording Secretary