

COASTAL QUILTER'S GUILD BOARD MEETING

March 25, 1998

The meeting was called to order at the home of Norah McMeeking at 7:10 P.M. In attendance were Norah McMeeking, Betty Kelley, Doris Gilman, Susan West, Diane Eardley, Carol Barringer, Harlene Bailey Linda Karppinen, Suzy Carter, Karin Cooper, Ellen Richardson and Jeanna Thunderhawk. Minutes for a general meeting of March 11 and a board meeting of February 25, 1998 were approved.

TREASURER - Susan West reported balances. Dorothy Oksner has completed the audit for 1997.

PROGRAM - Ellen Richardson requested help for the silent auction in April. Suggestions included better items have a minimum bid. A program is needed for June as the scheduled speaker canceled due to family health problems. It was suggested Sharon Doyle be contacted as she also does photo transfer work.

SCCQG - Linda Karppinen - White bags will be purchased and stamped with our logo to distribute information re the meeting we will host. The next meeting will be in Ontario and concern vendors.

NEWSLETTER The mail application is completed and target date for mailing is May.

QUILT SHOW - Diane Eardley - An education table has been approved by the committee. Insurance is still pending awaiting a copy of the policy. Publicity is going out re the show to publications. Photos will be taken of the quilts at the July, August or September meetings to aid the hanging committee. Entrants may submit their own photos. Quilts need not be completed for photo purposes. A photo is not required, but it is hoped for good cooperation. Next meeting will be April 15 at Samarkand.

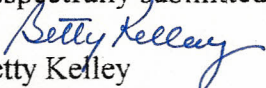

COMMUNITY PROJECTS- Carol Barringer is working with Bethel House as the recipient for our quilts. She has received donations from several merchants. She requested funds to purchase batting, backing fabric and children's fabrics. She was strongly encouraged to use the budgeted funds for batting and to use donated materials for the quilts. Lunch will be provided and a donation requested.

OLD BUSINESS Norah and Susan West worked out the attached for questions that need to be answered re a new meeting site. They had visited the Lutheran Church at the end of Las Positas and reported on their trip. Good parking, large space, no screen or stage. Betty Kelley volunteered to be a site visitor. An announcement will appear in COASTLINES to inform members and request suggestions.

The Santa Barbara quilt is again in Norah's possession. It was moved by Betty Kelley and seconded by Ellen Richardson the quilt again return to Washington for display in Lois Capps' office.

Meeting was adjourned at 9:00 P. M.

Respectfully submitted,

Betty Kelley
