

Coastal Quilter's Guild
Board Meeting Minutes
May 17, 2000

(Attendees: Ranell Hansen, Betty Kelley, Harlene Bailey, Diane Eardley, Gail Tinsley, Joyce Ball, Judy Stanton, Suzy Carter, Nola Ferguson, Leslie Hogan, Lynn Laughrin and Michelle Pearson)

Meeting called to order by President Ranell Hansen at 7:00pm

- I. Minutes of the last meeting corrected and approved. Motion by Harlene Bailey
- II. Leslie Hogan gave a quilt show update, next meeting 5/22
- III. Committee Reports
 - A. Workshops – Betty Kelly
 - B. Community Quilts – Suzy Carter reported that half of the quilts are in storage, and half are at the center, which is now open. No workshop until July.
 - C. Retreat – Judy Stanton reported that 9 ladies have paid, and one more has reserved. There is one space available, paid for and Ranell will offer it to Oleta Bennett. We can offer up to three scholarships.
 - D. Nominating Committee update was given by Nola Ferguson
 - E. Library-Joyce Ball said there will be a used book sale at the September meeting as the Feature of the Month
 - F. Boutique – Feasibility of credit card sales discussed, not feasible. Is there an ATM machine at Earl Warren Showgrounds?
 - G. Group of the Month – September Books Sale, October challenge
- III. Old Business
 - A. Scholarships – Sarah at SBCCF in Development requested our guidelines – academic grade, skills, interests, art major, in fibrous arts, design. Student need.
 - B. I Modonnari is May 26-29 at the Mission. Marlene Pearson submitted her design. Volunteers will do the chalking.
- IV. New Business
 - A. Treasury may have to spend some money. Possibly sponsor and educational program, purchase equipment, stationery, pins, bags (Serigraph in Carp will charge $7 each for quantity over 500), additional scholarships
 - B. Opportunity quilt post cards – Diane Eardley has a good source and will provide the information – “Modern Postcards”
 - C. The “Carol Hamilton” doll challenge will be rescinded in the newsletter by Ranell.
 - D. Newsletter – discussed advertising

MEETING ADJOURNED AT 8:50PM

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

Michelle Pearson