

Coastal Quilters Guild
General Meeting
March 8, 2001

The meeting was called to order by Kristin Otte substituting for President Diane Eardley who is in Asilomar for a week of quilting. The meeting started at 7:04 at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church.

Membership Chair, Jan Beckert, introduced 2 new members and 4 guests. There were approximately 140 people in attendance. Jan paged around the beginning of our new directory so the audience could proof read their information to make sure it is accurate.

Nine people participated in Show & Tell

Liz Turner introduced Trish the volunteer program director for Adventures in Caring. She spoke about the program and how grateful the recipients are for the wonderful quilts. Liz Turner said she has about 25 finished quilts right now and is hoping for 100 by July.

Future programs and workshops will be - April: Barbara Barber with one day workshop, May: Jo Diggs with two workshops (Friday landscape applique and Sat. Direct Design, flowers and fish), June: Sylvia Einstein.

Marilyn Martin announced the bus to the Glendale Quilt Show on March 24, 2001 is full. She has a wait list. The bus is leaving St Andrew's Presbyterian Church at 7:30 and IHOP in Carp. at 8:00 sharp.

Winner of Block of the month was announced. Joanne Conklin introduced next month's block.

The break started at 7:50 and ended at 8:03.

Meg Miley asked for quilt pictures for our website.

Nancy King from Magic Carpet Travel has brochures about TEXTILE TOUR TO ENGLAND.

Kristin Otte introduced Trudy Smith of Simi Valley, the speaker for tonight's meeting.

Played Quilt-O

Meeting adjourned at 9:15 PM.

Respectfully submitted by Nancy Snyder