

COASTAL QUILTERS GUILD

General Meeting

October 11, 2001

The meeting of the Coastal Quilters Guild was held July 12, 2001 at St Andrews Presbyterian Church. Diane Eardley opened the meeting at 7:00.

Announcements:

1. "New Directions" a charity, requests Christmas stocking. You will be assigned a name to make a stocking for.
2. Diane will make the Marigold Quilt for an organization in town. We need to make the blocks for her.
3. Jan introduced the new guests and members.
4. Betty Kelley and Judy will chair the Quilt show next year. They sent four clipboards around to allow us to sign up for committees.
5. Karen Pickfort—the challenge tonight had twenty entries.
6. Kristin Otte talked about MaryLou Widman's class in November.
7. Ranell needs more volunteers for the 2002 board. Membership has one volunteer and needs another.
8. Museum of Natural History did not have quilts this year in the art walk.
9. The Holiday Fair is Nov 23, 23, & 25. The boutique will be in the rotunda. The people participating in selling will have to demonstrate some aspect of quilting and sell for at least two hours on each day. There is a meeting at Evelyn's house at 10:00am and another at 7:00 pm. We will have to do all the setting up on Tuesday, Nov. 20.
10. Mary Welsh is setting up the bus for the Road to California show. The cost will be about $35.00 and includes admission to the show. Mary's phone number is 644-1925
11. Camarillo Quilters show is Nov 17 & 18 at Seaside Park in Ventura.
12. Block of the month is a maple leaf next month.
13. Marty Frolli is making flags to send to the east coast. She asked for help. Already they have sent 70 quilts. Santa Barbara fabric stores are low on red and blue fabric.
14. The challenge quilt winners:
Overall: Isabel Downs 1st place. Judy Rush 2nd place.

Diane Eardley ended the meeting at 8:45.

Respectfully submitted
Margaret Dear