

COASTAL QUILTERS GUILD, INC
GENERAL MEETING
OCTOBER 8, 2009

The October General Meeting of the Coastal Quilters Guild was held at the Saint Andrews Presbyterian Church in Goleta. The meeting was called to order at 7:00 pm by President Darilyn Kisch.

Welcome: Four guests were welcomed. There were no new members.

Announcements:

Darilyn thanked members for food bank donations. She also thanked Becky Gallup, Jean Faison and Jean Phillips for the name badges.

Congratulations to Jeanne Suber for winning a blue ribbon at the Orange Coast Guild Show in September.

The deadline for the Glendale Quilt Guild Show is January 15th. It will be March 19-21, 2010 at the Marriot Convention Center in Burbank.

Darilyn sent a letter to Adult Education concerning the cancellation of classes but has not received a response. There will be a public meeting on October 27th from 5:30 to 7:30 at Schott Center to discuss the future of adult education classes.

The drawing for the Opportunity Quilt will be in December. Three months left to sell the Opportunity Quilt tickets.

The November speaker is Jill Schumacher, aka the "Quilt Maker to the Queen." At the Open Sew on Oct. 24 Darilyn will show how to create a crown using pattern she purchased. Members are encouraged to wear a "royal headpiece" to the Nov. meeting.

Darilyn will be focusing ways of engaging members in the success of this guild in the coming months. To start, a representative from each satellite group will meet with the board to brainstorm new ways in which satellite groups can support the guild

Upcoming Guild Events:

Botanic garden market place will be held Sat/Sun, Nov. 21-22. Applications due Oct 15. Claire Fouquet, former guild member, now lives in Canada and has started corresponding with Darilyn.

Breast Friends Forever is looking for volunteers to sew tote bags or hospital gowns.

There is a postcard from Thanking our Troops.

Buellton's "Meals on Wheels" program is requesting table runners and placemats.

A Community member has inherited a half-finished quilt and is looking for someone to complete it.

Pat Masterson announced an exhibit of contemporary and art quilts, March 13-May 31, 2010 at the Museum of Ventura County. She also has entry forms for those interested.

Special Presentation: Bonnie Barber, our webmaster, demonstrated how the guild website works and also explained a word search game. The answers will be given at the November meeting with prizes for the members finding all the "otto" words.

2010 Harvest of Colors: Karen reported Judy Stanton has become vice chairperson of the quilt show. There is also a need for a local pr chairperson or maybe a satellite group would like to do it. A chairperson for hanging is still needed.

Community Quilts: Yolanda reported 12 quilts have been turned in already. She and Louisa have purchased batting and fabric for backings. Thank you to members who have donated items and time.

Challenge Quilt: Judith and Jean reminded members to keep working on their challenge quilts.

Library: Heather encouraged members to check out books.

Block of the Month: Naomi announced the October winners. They were Betty Kelly and Annette Goena. Naomi explained the November block, turkey tracks.

Show & Tell: Ten members presented their quilts.

Break: Members were served a special cake by Jeannine Green of Jade.

Program: Darilyn introduced members and the wearable art they created.

Door Prizes: Darlene announced the Door prize winners: Gretchen Beckert, Lauren Hicks, Louise Salgado, Melissa Frolli, and Dee Johnson. The raffle winners for the vests and jacket were Ilona Varner, Nancy Miller and Robin Wotley. The contributing vendors were: Baron's Fabrics, Craft Essentials, Grant House, Creation Station, Treasure Hunt, Quilt Campus, Inc., Warm Company, and Anonymous Donors from Coastal Quilt Guild. Door Prize took in $164.00.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:55 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Priscilla Jacobs
Recording Secretary