

Coastal Quilters Guild Meeting

December 10, 2015

“Giving and Receiving”

6:00PM Bonnie Epperson called the meeting to order and welcomed attendees.

This was the annual Holiday Meeting and potluck. The event was very well attended with a great variety of yummy appetizers and desserts. Julie Mock and her committee are to be commended for organizing this fun event.

Toy donations will go to American Charities for foster children in Santa Barbara County.

Suzy Pelovsky led the group in the construction of ornaments.

PROGRAM:

Favorite holiday projects and trends for the New Year were presented by 3 quilt store owners.

Dawn Farrier from Creation Station in Buellton discussed Christmas projects available in the shop. She demonstrated how to make a great paper snowflake.

Dee Angus from Quilt Ventura showed quilts for holidays in each month and discussed the history of the store and the classes that are offered.

Roxanne Barbieri from Roxanne's A Wish & A Dream shop in Carpenteria discussed the history of the shop and the fact that Charlie Chaplin married Una O'Neill in the house which is the current shop.

Bonnie Epperson thanked all for attending and adjourned the meeting at 9:00 PM.
