

Coastal Quilters Guild Meeting

Minutes

August 11, 2016

7:00 PM Linda Boynton De Sepulveda, President, called the meeting to order.

Announcements:

- Board Meeting is on August 18, 2016 at 6:30 PM.
- Volunteers are needed for:

Ticket sales

Refreshment Chair person

- Carol Barringer spoke about her friend and guild member, Patty Rogers, who recently passed away. She was an active member of the Community Quilt Committee and will be missed.

Membership: Bonnie Epperson

Tonight there are 213 members. This is the last night to turn in renewal forms for inclusion in the directory.

New members and guests were welcomed. It was suggested that new member's badges be a different color so they can be recognized and welcomed.

Library: Pam Holst

The book sale generated $160.00. Pam thanked all who participated. Tonight 5 boxes of books were donated.

Programs: Mary Maxwell

September: Ranell Hansen will speak about her evolving journey as a quilter.

October: Kim Fauth - ABCD quilts

November: Kristen Otte

December: Holiday potluck & party

Quilt Show: Irelle Beatie

- Irelle showed the Santa Barbara themed quilt which was made in 1995 and has been hanging in the Washington D.C. office of Congresswoman Lois Capps for 21 years. She asked for any information about the quilt makers and its history. It will be displayed in the upcoming quilt show. Carol Boyce volunteered to find the needed information.
- Volunteers are needed for the education booth and a few other spots at the quilt show. There are many volunteer positions which do not require standing.
- Boutique: There are quite a few signed up for booths. Karen Pickford needs volunteers for 1 -2 shifts.
- Judging: When quilts are picked up after the show, there will be a critique from the judge attached. There are more openings for judged quilts. Remember to cover the label. There should be no hair, no lint, no smell and no hanging threads on the quilts.

Volunteers to assist with the judging should be at the Goleta Community Center on Monday, September 12 at 8:30 AM.

- As of tonight, there are 164 quilts registered for the show.

Block of the Month: Marty Frolli, Rochelle Schneider

Twenty-eight participated in tonight's block of the month project which equalled sixty-nine blocks. The winner of tonight's blocks is Carol Boyce.

The directions for next month's block of the month are posted on the website. The theme is "back to school" using primary colors of red, yellow, and blue.

Community Quilts: Carol Barringer

- Cradle kits were passed out. When cutting the backing and mattress covers, the fabric length should go up and down. Carol demonstrated how to accomplish this. Directions are on the website.
- Connie at the Unity shop is very excited to receive the cradle quilts.
- Quilts for CALM and Hospice are still needed.
- Blank kits are available if one wishes to use their own fabric.

Workshops: Shirley Morrison

October 14: Kim Fauth will conduct the ABCD workshop. The book is available and there will be clear directions for this workshop on the website.

November: Kristen Otte

Show & Tell:

Dee Johnson

Julie Mock

Ursula Dial

Michelle Garbarino

Jan Inouye

Nettie Graham

Darilyn Kisch

Tell:

New member, Prissy Barbour would like to hire 2 - 3 sewers to cover her sewing classes in schools.

Raffle winners:

Basket #1: Nancy Ponce

Basket #2: Ursula Dial

Basket #3: Melissa Frolli

Program:

Pamela Dransfeldt, the joyful quilter presented her beautiful quilts and discussed her interesting life as a long- arm quilter.

Respectfully submitted:

Carole Kennedy

Recording Secretary

