The meeting was called to order by President Bee Saunders at 7:01 pm.

- Program - Introduction by Carole Kennedy
 - Lea McComas “Making Faces”
- Future Lea McComas workshop details – Susan Katz
 - Fused raw edge applique portraits, weekly workshop on Zoom for 4 weeks, starting April 20. Need a minimum of 10 attendees, cost $80
- Updates and Announcements – Bee Saunders
 - Hoping to have the Gathering again next month. Keep an eye out for the newsletter or eblast.
 - We have a Challenge, more to come later in the meeting
 - Plans are well under way for the Quilt Show, encouraging members to run for board positions
- Updates on Board nominations – Joel Blumenthal
 - Difficult to find members for the nominating committee. Want new people for board positions, check the newsletter for a description of the open positions
- Committee Reports
 - Program, Workshops, Coffee Breaks – Susan Katz, Carole Kennedy, Diane Hamilton
 - Speaker on March 10 will be Kitty Wilkin, “The Night Quilter” on Instagram with a presentation on “Take Great Quilt Photos Now”. Her workshop will be on Milestone Quilts. There will be no sewing in the workshop
 - This coming Saturday, Ranell Hansen will present the Scout Tee pattern with a follow up on Feb. 19
 - Coffee Break Feb 25: Susan Katz will talk about long arm quilting
 - Block of the Month - Kika Hutchings
 - Received 12 February blocks, Karen Barksdale won them
 - March block of the month is ‘Pinwheels’, submit blocks by March 7
 - Community Projects – Pam Holst, Mary Maxwell
 - Not starting cradle quilts yet, but happy to receive any other items that members are making
 - Quilt Show 2022 – Nancy Butterfield
 - All Quilt Show chair positions are filled
 - Will include a survey in the next eblast to see how many quilts members might want to submit to the show
 - Library – Mary Faria
 - Library selections are listed online and email can be used to arrange procurement of an item. We are grateful to add Lea McComas’ book on fabric portraits to our collection. If we have the afternoon gathering in March, the library will be open.
